CELEBRATE THE LIFE OF RABBI MARK G. LOEB

Wednesday, October 1
7:00 p.m.

1st Wednesdays continues on November 5

Join us as we celebrate the life and legacy of Rabbi Mark G. Loeb on his fifth yahrzeit; this 1st Wednesday@ Beth El concert is dedicated to his memory. Rabbi Loeb's dear friend, Dr. Rosann Catalano, will begin this special evening with remarks about and memories of her friend. Then enjoy the exciting and innovative sounds of The Alexandria Klezmet which has been combining traditional Eastern European/Jewish music with diverse influences for more than a decade. New arrangements of traditional melodies and original songs by members of the band draw upon jazz, classical, world beat, rock and other musical genres to create a unique and entertaining sound. Led by woodwind player Seth Kibel, the band includes violinist Helen Hausmann, bassist Scott Harlan and percussionist Tim Jarvis.

Dr. Steve Gimbel, Chair of the Philosophy Department at Gettysburg College, is the author of Einstein's Jewish Science, Physics at the Intersection of Politics and Religion. Dr. Gimbel has always been fascinated with Albert Einstein and became aware of the parallel between the way Einstein reasoned and the approach to ethics in classic Talmudic ethics. During the period between WWI and WWII with the rise of the Nazis, Einstein's theories were referred to as "Jewish science." He was made to be a villain. Yes, it is Jewish science, and, according to Dr. Gimbel, it is something of which to be proud; we can apply the lessons of that time to today.

Yom Kippur

The holiest day of the year, known as Yom Kippur, means "the day of atonement." On Yom Kippur, Jewish men and women are to make amends and seek forgiveness for past sins they have committed. Part of the atonement process involves fasting for 25 hours. According to the Jewish Virtual Library, "It is customary to wear white on the holiday, which symbolizes purity and calls to mind the promise that our sins shall be made as white as snow." This year, Yom Kippur begins at sundown on Friday, October 3, and ends on Saturday, October 4. Services begin at 6:10 p.m. on Kol Nidre. On Yom Kippur, Morning Services will begin at 9:30 a.m., Yizkor service at 11:15 a.m., Mincha Services at 5:15 p.m. and Neilah at 6:00 p.m.

Sukkot

Sukkot ("booths" in English), which occurs on the 15th of Tishrei, recalls the wandering in the desert for 40 years after escaping slavery in Egypt. This seven day holiday, unlike Yom Kippur, is all about rejoicing. Jews use The Four Species-etrog (a citrus fruit native to Israel); lulav (a palm branch); hadas (a branch from a myrtle tree) and arava (a willow branch). Joined together, they are used to "rejoice before the Lord." Sukkot is held from October 9 – October 15. Morning services on October 9 and October 10 will be held at 10:00 a.m., with evening services at 6:00 p.m.

Simchat Torah

Simchat Torah, or "rejoicing the Torah," is the completion of one Torah reading cycle and the beginning of the new one. On Simchat Torah, the Torah is paraded around the synagogue in a joyous celebration. Simchat Torah takes place from October 16 – October 17. Morning services for Shemini Atzeret on October 16 will start at 10:00 a.m. Yizkor will be recited during the service. Evening services will begin at 6:00 p.m. Morning services for Simchat Torah on October 17 will start at 10:00 a.m., with evening services at 6:00 p.m.

BLOOD DRIVE

On Wednesday, October 22, we are having our Semi-Annual Blood Drive. We are not asking you to open your wallets, but instead to take a small amount of time to help someone else by donating blood.

The Red Cross is in need of blood and every donation helps up to three people. Beth El's Blood Drive has been honored for collecting more blood in this area than any other synagogue. Let's maintain our reputation and have a great turn out! Our drive starts at 8:15 a.m. and continues until 7:00 p.m. First time donors are always welcome.

We prefer that you make an appointment, but walk-ins are welcome. Please call or e-mail Sonya or Jerry Goodman at 410-602-8766 or sgood18@comcast.net and we will set up an appointment time that is convenient for you. This is your chance to perform a Mitzvah for the New Year.

RABBI REFLECTION

An Infield Drill

By Rabbi Steven Schwartz

This summer was the 17th one that I've spent running laps at the local high school track. Down a hill on the track's eastern side are the school's athletic fields – 3 baseball diamonds, 2 soccer 'pitches' and a lacrosse field. As I ran around the southeast corner of the track, I had a full view of one of the baseball diamonds that lasted for about 30 seconds or so, until my jogging put the field behind me, out of my line of sight.

There were two coaches walking a team of 14 or 15 year-old boys through a series of infield drills. It seemed to me it was a tryout for the team. The coaches wanted to see what the boys could do, what their skills were, which of them could field a hard grounder or catch a fly ball. The boys were stacked in twos and threes at each base. The coach would hit a grounder towards first, second, third, or short, and the boy at the front of that line would be charged with fielding the ball and then making the proper play--generally throwing to first base.

There was one particular boy who caught my eye. Dirty white t-shirt, non-descript grey sweats, old logo-less baseball cap. He had longish hair (the look I remember from the '70s when I was growing up, that seems to come back every 10 years or so.) He did not move with the smooth grace of some of his friends. Stationed at first, I watched the coach hit the ball in his direction. He backed up slightly and stabbed his glove downward as the ball slipped through his legs. "Take another one!" the coach yelled out. This ball went to the boy's left. It caught the bottom of his glove and dribbled up the first base line. He hung his head and walked to the back of the line.

I know what that feels like. We all do in one way or another. Something we desperately want, someone we desperately want to be and then that (terrible) moment when we realize it just isn't going to work out the way we had hoped or even dreamed. In my mind I imagined the coach posting a list of names somewhere, those who had been chosen, selected to participate in a long summer of golden evenings, balls and strikes, wins and losses. And this young man walking down to see the list, knowing in his heart his name was not there, but needing to look to confirm it. He goes when he knows no one else will be there—alone, facing his fate. His eye runs over the list once or twice and not seeing his name, he turns his back and slowly walks home.

A bit later they had switched to fielding fly balls. The boy caught my eye again as a high ball sailed to his right. He tracked the flight of the baseball, ran, raised his glove, and there was a satisfying pop as the ball settled into the glove's webbing. He casually transferred the ball to his throwing arm and threw it back to the infield. I thought, in the distance, I could see the hint of a smile on his face.

The Talmud teaches that a person cannot stand by words of Torah unless he has failed at them (Gittin 43a). That is to say through failure we grow, and ultimately in that growth we can find success and meaning. We might say the same thing about baseball. And even life itself.

WORLD PREMIER

“DINER”

Signature Theatre in Arlington, VA
Sunday, December 14, 2014

Nine-time Grammy Award Winner Sheryl Crow and Academy Award-winning original screenwriter Barry Levinson make a stunning debut with the world premiere musical adaptation of the landmark movie “Diner.”

Christmas, Baltimore: 1959. A circle of childhood friends reunite for the upcoming wedding of one of them. Well, only if his fiancée passes a football trivia test. From the comfort of their all-night diner, the men, now in their early-twenties, confront the realities of adulthood: marriage, careers, money and the ever-mysterious opposite sex. But no matter where life takes them, they know they're welcome back at the diner, the one place they'll always belong.

Infused with swinging 1950's rock and roll sound, three-time Tony Award-winning director and choreographer Kathleen Marshall joins Crow and Levinson to transform Diner's groundbreaking evocation of burgeoning adulthood and friendship for the stage. Join Beth El Sisterhood on a nostalgic trip back to 1959.

IT IS RAELY TRUE

FACTS ABOUT HAMAS and GAZA

- In 2005, Israel unilaterally withdrew all of its citizens and soldiers from the Gaza Strip, hoping to live in peace and prosperity with her Palestinian neighbors.
- In 2006, a democratic election in Gaza was followed by a violent takeover by Hamas.

- Hamas is internationally recognized as a terrorist organization by the U.S., EU, Canada, and others. Its charter explicitly calls for the destruction of Israel and the murder of Jews.
- Hamas and other terrorists in Gaza have fired more than 15,000 rockets and mortars at Israel, specifically targeting civilians.
- Right now, six million Israelis are living under constant threat of rocket fire. They have as little as 15 seconds to find shelter.
- Hamas has consistently violated cease fire arrangements. Israel ceases, Hamas fires.
- Hamas forces Gazans to act as human shields, deliberately causing Palestinian civilian deaths to provoke international pressure on Israel.
- Israel's blockade of Gaza was only enacted after thousands of rocket attacks. It is used primarily to prevent materials for building rockets and tunnels from entering into Gaza. All other goods enter Gaza daily on dozens of trucks. Egypt, on the other hand has hermetically closed the passage between Egypt and Gaza.

- Israel provides extensive humanitarian support for civilians in Gaza. Even as Hamas sends thousands of rockets into Israel, Israel sends water, electricity, and other humanitarian assistance into Gaza.
- Hamas hijacks UN facilities in Gaza for terrorism. UN forces discovered Hamas rockets hidden in three UN schools.

TORAH MAINTENANCE CARDS

A project of The Beth El Seniors is to support the maintenance and repair of our synagogue's Torahs and Megillot. A kosher, usable Torah must be written by hand with a pen and special ink by a learned scribe. Every letter must be perfectly formed and each word must be correctly spelled. The ink cannot be chipped off even a little bit. The parchment on which the Torah is written must be flawless. The slightest tear or smudge will render the Torah unfit for use. The Beth El Torahs are regularly inspected and repaired. This is a costly process. It is a mitzvah to contribute to a process that keeps our sacred scrolls preserved for future generations. Torah Maintenance Cards may be purchased at The Beth El front office or call Dorothy Fineblum at 410/653-2631. These all-purpose cards are six for $10.00 or $2.00 each.

The card features a drawing by world famous artist Ira Moskowitz. Born in 1912, the son and grandson of rabbis, he has infused his work with the customs and traditions of our religion.

BETH EL LEGACY SOCIETY

We welcome our newest members:
Yvonne and Rene Daniel

Established in 2007, the Beth El Legacy Society is a group of 77 donor families who have confirmed their provision of a bequest to Beth El in their will or estate plan.

Legacy gifts offer our congregants the opportunity to convey their feelings for the positive impact that Beth El has had on their lives and the lives of their families. It allows them to think beyond their lifetime and to leave a personal legacy by making a difference in the lives that follow them.

A Beth El endowment fund has been created for these special gifts. Legacy gifts allow the Congregation to sustain current programs and services and create new ones. Finally, a bequest gift requires no immediate cash outlay; rather, the gift is received at the death of the donor(s).

For more information about legacy gifts, visit the Beth El website at <http://www.bethelbalto.com/LegacySociety> or contact Ailene Sher at: 410-580-5159, or ailene@bethelbalto.com.

We are pleased to announce that Sonny Davis will be our new Men's Club Programming Chair. We are excited to have him on board and are looking forward to seeing his great event ideas.

We have also reviewed and revised our dues structure. It was decided that the Men's Club fiscal year will coincide with the congregation's, June 1 through May 31. Existing members will owe $9 for Spring 2015, plus $18 for June 2015-May 2016. $27 can be paid together. New members will be charged $18 until May 2015; after that, $18/fiscal year.

Planning for the Men's Club Family Tailgate is underway.

For more information about Men's Club, please contact Jack Boonshaft at jmboonshaft@verizon.net.

Stay tuned for more updates!

Do you have a family member who served in the military buried in Memorial Park?

If so, contact Andy Katz at andy@bethelbalto.com.

Yours, Mine, and Ours: The Stranger Among Us

Share Wednesday mornings with Dr. Rosann Catalano, Rabbi Steven Schwartz, and Rabbi Dana Saroken beginning on October 22 through April 22 from 9:30 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. in the Agus Library. Both the Tanakh and the Christian Bible are filled with narratives whose pivotal moment turns on an encounter with a stranger, someone whose presence often irrevocably alters the direction of the narrative. Whether in the Torah or in the Gospels, the stranger always steers the narrative in the service of divine purpose. Together we will wrestle with and learn from our sacred stories the mysterious and compelling ways in which the divine will is embodied in women and men who struggle to understand what God is asking of them. Come join us for another year of study and discussion! This session is $100 for Beth El members and $150 for non-members.

Lunch and Learn with Rabbi Dana Saroken: Feed Your Body, Mind, and Soul

Join Rabbi Dana Saroken at The Milk and Honey Bistro located at 1777 Reisterstown Road in Commerce Centre beginning October 22 – November 26 then from February 18 – March 25 from 12:00 noon – 1:00 p.m. for this new group experience now being offered to busy moms, and professionals through empty nesters! Each mini-series will run for 6 Wednesdays. Participants are responsible for what they eat and drink.

Baltimore Hebrew Institute at Beth El presents TZION: History, Heritage, Homeland

Fifty Shades of Torah!

You know about the popular, successful books, Fifty Shades of Grey. Perhaps you are wondering what your Rabbi has to say about Fifty Shades? Join Rabbi Cantor beginning October 22 for a four-week exploration of the sexy stories in the Tanakh at Yogalada Yogurt, 1806D Reisterstown Road from 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.. We promise that you never learned these stories in Hebrew School! We will be using selections from Harlot by the Side of the Road: Forbidden Tales of the Bible, by Jonathan Kirsch for our conversations about how sex, sexuality, power, and love are not so hidden in our sacred texts. Participants are responsible for their food.

An Evening with Dr. Bert Vogelstein

Dr. Bert Vogelstein will discuss the topic, "Cancer Genes and Their Implications for Reducing Cancer Deaths".
Date: Monday, October 27, 2014
Time: 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
Location: Offit Auditorium
Description: Cancer used to be a black box, shrouded in mystery. As a result of revolutionary advances in research, cancer is now a well-understood disease. Each cancer results from a small number of changes (mutations) in the cancers' genes. The nature of these changes will be explained during the lecture in terms that are familiar to the audience. Then the implications of these genetic alterations for preventing and treating cancer in the future will be discussed. Dr. Vogelstein is the Director of the Ludwig Center, Clayton Professor of Oncology and Pathology, and a Howard Hughes Medical Institute investigator at The Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions. He is the leading pioneer in the field of cancer genomics. His work on colorectal cancer now forms the paradigm for much of modern cancer research.
Fee: No charge

Kristallnacht: Rescuing the Evidence: Three Minutes in Poland

This program will feature Glenn Kurtz and Leslie Swift as moderator on Monday, November 10, 2014 at 7:00 p.m. in the Gorn Chapel. Traveling in Europe in August 1938, one year before the outbreak of World War II, David Kurtz, a recent Jewish immigrant experiencing success in America, captured three minutes of ordinary life in a small, predominantly Jewish town in Poland on 16 mm Kodachrome color film. More than seventy years later, through the brutal twists of history, these few minutes of home movie footage have become a memorial to an entire community – an entire culture – that was annihilated in the Holocaust. Now part of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum's permanent collection, the film footage, along with other collected artifacts and oral testimonies, will preserve these lives in perpetuity. There is no charge for this program.

7:00 - 10:00 pm

TICKETS ARE $18/PERSON

IT'S A GIRL THING!

Rabbi Saroken and Jen Rudo will be partnering on a wonderful program for 5th and 6th grade girls to help build self-esteem while creating lasting friendships.

When - First Monday of every month at 7:30 pm from November to June
Where - The Mitchell David Teen Center
9621 Reisterstown Road, Owings Mills

Why Rosh Chodesh, it's a Girl Thing?
Girls come together as a group, examining the past that unites them, exploring ways to grow closer and finding their own inner beauty. They reflect on the value of being a Jewish female as they learn about the intrinsic importance of Jewish ritual. They take a significant first step to realizing "self" — through self-appreciation and self-reflection—while opening their hearts to the group, community and themselves.

The Great Ashrei Challenge is Back!

Are you up for the Challenge?

Rabbi Schwartz, Rabbi Saroken, Rabbi Cantor and Cantor King would like to issue the Ashrei Challenge! Stop by Rabbi Cantor's office for a copy of Ashrei and a CD. When you are comfortable chanting Ashrei, make an appointment with Rabbi Cantor and show off your new skills. We will then schedule you for a Shabbat morning where you will lead the entire congregation in chanting this Psalm.

Ashrei is Psalm 145 (with a few extra lines) and is chanted responsively on Shabbat Morning after the Torah reading.

Everyone (K-7th Grade) who completes the Ashrei Challenge before Shavuot will be entered in the Ashrei raffle for a spectacular prize! Contact Rabbi Cantor at faith@bethelbalto.com for more information.

IMAGINE!

Let's take a look into the future, and go on an imaginary Achshav journey:

- Imagine hanging out with your old friends from Beth El and your new friends from Chizuk Amuno and Beth Israel on a Tuesday night enjoying pizza, ice-cream, and lively debate.
- Imagine taking the lead in an important social action project.
- Imagine your whole class flying on El Al to Israel.
- Imagine coming home and being able to speak about Israel from personal experience.

What you are imagining is not far-fetched at all. To make it real, all you have to do is sign up for Achshav. If you are an 8th or 9th grader, it is not too late to register for this awesome leadership adventure! Please contact Fran Davis or Rabbi Faith Cantor in the Religious School Office for more details.

The Social Action Committee hosted a pizza dinner and cupcake decorating event in June at The Hackerman Patz House. All who attended had an enjoyable evening. We hope to be able to do this again in the future. At the end of this month, we are planning on hosting a program for Beth El members residing at North Oaks.

We are hoping to soon provide assistance with transportation to and from Shabbat morning services to any Beth El senior who may qualify for this service. Please contact Jeanette Davis at 410/484-2960 or jeajekdavis@hotmail.com for further information.

Bikur Cholim - The Jewish tradition of bikur cholim (be-core kho-leem), Hebrew for "visiting the sick," calls on us to support the needs of those who are ill or isolated. Our committee works to maintain a lifeline connection with people who need our support through telephone calls and personal visits. If you would like to be added to our list of volunteer visitors, OR if you know a member who would benefit from a friendly visit, please contact Cindy Neuman at cindyneuman@gmail.com.

Transportation – There are many congregants at Beth El who are still in need of transportation to Shabbat Services, as well as appointments to doctors, physical therapy, dialysis, etc. Please contact Paul Sheitel at psheit@comcast.net if you would like to become a driver.
