(Please print)

Beth Tikvah B'nai Jeshurun welcomes individuals who are Jewish, who have converted to Judaism or who have committed themselves to a member of the Jewish faith. Interfaith couples and families are part of our congregation, reflecting the diversity of an ever-widening variety of people committed to or interested in Jewish life. A two adult household in which only one of the adults is Jewish is invited to join the congregation pursuant to a two adult household membership. According to Conservative Jewish practice, which BTBJ subscribes to, a child is considered to be Jewish if born to a Jewish mother. If you have children who will be enrolled in the religious school in anticipation of celebrating a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, and you have questions about the Jewish status of your child(ren), please arrange a meeting with Rabbi Grife. We will be very happy to answer all questions and we look forward to celebrating many simchas together!
