Prepare Your Heart for the High Holy Days with these Special Events for Elul

Outdoor Shofar Blowing Gatherings

During the Hebrew month of Elul, join us to hear the sounds of the Shofar to open our hearts to teshuvah and change

Tuesday, August 30, 5:00 pm – Temple Sinai front steps
Thursday, September 8, 5:00 pm – Arnold Arboretum, Roslindale on top of Peter's Hill (enter from Mendem St.; make a left to follow the road up to Peter's Hill)
Sunday, September 11, 10:00 a.m. – 1st Day of Religious School Picnic, Lars Anderson Park
Wednesday, September 14, 5:00 p.m. – Rose Garden, Browne Street Playground, Brookline
Sunday, September 18, 9:30 a.m. – Jamaica Plain, Jamaica Plain Boat House
Thursday, September 22, 5:00 p.m. – Griggs Park, Brookline

Adult Learning for Elul

“Opening Our Hearts: An Exploration of the High Holy Days”

Sunday, September 18, 11:10 a.m. – with Rabbi Talia Stein
In Weintraub Community Room and on Zoom

“A New Start for the New Year”

Study with Rabbi Vogel, with Optional Immersion in the Mikveh

Thursday, September 15, 5:00 p.m. – at Mayyim Hayyim in West Newton
Join Rabbi Andy Vogel for study outdoors on the grounds of Boston’s beautiful community mikveh about Teshuvah, with an optional opportunity to immerse in the water after class.
RSVP to Rabbi Vogel: rabbivogel@sinaibrookline.org

Singing Circle for Elul

Sunday, September 11, 12:30 p.m. - Larz Anderson Park
Learn new melodies and re-acquaint yourself with familiar ones, both for Shabbat and the High Holy Day period, with Rabbi Vogel. Bring a picnic lunch!