

Town of Pelham Public Library,
PJ Library[®], and the Pelham Jewish Center Present:

Sharing & Caring with Friends, Stories & Songs

*Fun Folk Tales,
What is Hanukkah? and More!*

Friday, December 3 • 3:30-4:00pm
All are welcome!

For more information contact the Pelham Public Library at (914) 738-1234.

A special event for children in PreK-3rd grade and their adults. Enjoy delightful tales, hands-on activities, songs, and more about Jewish culture, heritage, and history. Open to all, and a great place to meet neighbors and form friendships.

This event will be held outdoors. Please bring a blanket to create social distancing squares. In case of inclement weather, please call ahead. No registration: first come, first serve.

TOWN OF PELHAM
PUBLIC LIBRARY

530 Colonial Avenue, Pelham, New York 10803