Dear Friends,

We are in the midst of several Torah portions (with a one-week interruption) detailing the very specific instructions for building of the Mishkan, the portable tabernacle the Israelites carried through the wilderness.

Toward the beginning of those voluminous instructions, in the Torah portion Terumah, God says to Moses, “And they shall build me a holy place and I will dwell among them” (Exodus 25:8).

God says “dwell among them (the Israelites),” not “dwell in it (the Tabernacle)” because God cannot be captured; God cannot abide within any particular edifice.

But God can dwell within the souls of individuals and within the hearts of communities, provided they are receptive to God’s presence.

Here at EHNTJC our hearts and souls are receptive to God’s presence. We enter these walls with that sincere desire in mind. And we have been lucky in this regard, for over the last 15 years Cantor Benjamin Warschawski’s stellar voice and loving presence have inclined our hearts to the divine.

Cantor Warschawski has brought a hint of the divine to every service he has led here, from the grandest Hineni on the High Holy Days to the simplest Lecha Dodi on Friday evenings. His kavannah has brought kedusha – his intentionality and devotion have brought holiness into our midst.

Cantor Warschawski, on behalf of a grateful congregation, we thank you for the many ways you have made us receptive to God’s presence.

And, on my own behalf, I thank you, friend and partner.

(Don’t worry, friends, we text a lot.)

L’Shalom,

Rabbi Jeffrey Weill

7:00 p.m. Service

All are welcome!
Something is in the air. Something exciting continues to happen at EHNTJC.

The Purim Shpiel brings lots of excitement and crowds of people, filling our community with joy and laughter. Chai Noon - four wonderful shows - a new theme, cast, crew, and music. A big thank you to Ken Dermer and Shelley Sutker-Dermer!

Purimpalooza!! Erev Purim - Will you be there? Family Programming has been working very hard to make this an exciting evening. Make your plans today by reserving your spot for dinner, games, music and a family fun Megillah reading. Don’t forget to bring “Wacky Mac” or any other kosher pasta to use as a noisemaker to BOO Hamen! Then we will donate to The ARK. Come back the next day for a 9:30 a.m. Purim service with the full reading of the Megillah.

Rabbi’s new class, Torah this Week, is another reason to be excited. Stop in for this new class at 6:00 PM Mondays and the ongoing Land Beyond Torah class at 11:00 AM Thursdays. Our committees are hard at work, developing new and innovative programs that will excite you and make you smile.

Looking to our future, we will have a new cantor. We have and will continue to meet prospective cantor candidates. There are many cantors that have contacted us and want to join our community.

After 15 years, we bid farewell to Cantor Benjamin Warschawski. We wish him and his family the very best as they move forward with this new chapter in their lives.

Everyone has been banding together, giving us great strength. All of our events are well attended. Have you been to the Shul lately? If not, you’re missing out on extra fun, excitement, and smiles.

We are looking forward to the return of our snow birds and energy they will bring.

Thank you to everyone for your time, your participation, for bringing your smiles and excitement to our community.

Ed

From the President’s Desk...

I am really looking forward to the month of March! In our Sisterhood, we can call it the “Notorious RBG Month”. On Wednesday, March 4th, we will be going to the Holocaust Museum to view her exhibit on a docent-led tour, which many feel, is her book presented in true color. An on the following Wednesday, March 11th, we will be discussing that book (see below). We’re also seeing “Cooking with Bubbe” at the Skokie Theatre on Thursday, March 26th and Sunday, March 29th. Flyers for all of these events are in the lobby.

“Sisters Journeying Together” is the theme of the Women’s League Convention this year. The convention will take place at the Hyatt Regency in Schaumburg from Sunday, July 12th to Tuesday, July 14th. There will be many local people we know who are presenting at the convention. I hope that some of you will join me. If you are interested in going, please contact me as soon as possible. The Social Action Project for this year’s convention is making fleece blankets which will be donated to the Ark.

Looking forward to celebrating Purim and hope you will be attending this year’s Purim Shpiel. Hope to see you there.

Happy Purim! Judy Frank

BOOK CLUB TO DISCUSS

The next meeting of the Sisterhood Book Club will be on Wednesday, March 11th at 10:30 a.m. at the synagogue.

“The Notorious RBG: the Life and Times of Ruth Bader Ginsburg”
by Irin Carmon and Shana Knizhnik

Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg never asked for fame—she has only tried to make the world a little better and a little freer. But nearly a half-century into her career, something funny happened to the octogenarian—she won the internet. Across America, people who weren’t even born when Ginsburg first made her name as a feminist pioneer are tuxedoing themselves with her face, setting her famously searing dissents to music, and making viral videos in tribute.

“Notorious RBG”, inspired by the Tumblr that amused the Justice herself and brought to you by its founder and an award-winning feminist journalist, is more than just a love letter. It draws on intimate access to Ginsburg’s family members, close friends, colleagues, and clerks, as well an interview with the Justice herself. An original hybrid of reported narrative, annotated dissents, rare archival photos and documents, and illustrations, the book tells a never-before-told story of an unusual and transformative woman who transcends generational divides. As the country struggles with the unfinished business of gender equality and civil rights, Ginsburg stands as a testament to how far we can come with a little chutzpah.

Please join us for a lively discussion!
Refreshments will be served.

GIFT SHOP GAB - VOLUME THIRTY-SIX

The gift shop was open for the first time in many weeks at our lovely Sisterhood program led by Julie Weill. We had hoped for an enthusiastic response to our cozy winter items as well as some purchases with spring in mind—but our total sales were a disappointing $42.

That being said, I want to announce that in June, I will be giving up my role in running the gift shop. I’m very proud of our four-year project. We made good profits that contributed to the already successful Sisterhood. But my deepest appreciation and gratitude go to my wonderful, loyal, hard-working committee members. I was fortunate to have endless help, support and input from people who made the gift shop their priority. I will be happy to turn over my records and sources to the new leadership.

I thank the entire board for the chance to work on this project and wish you success in every future project. A special thanks to my co-chairs, Sandi Cowen and Adrienne Tanner.

Mary Todd Lincoln
by Diane Rosenfeld

We hope you will join us on Wednesday, May 6th for lunch and a one-woman performance by actress, Jessica Michna (see enclosed flyer). She will be portraying the character of Mary Todd Lincoln in an outstanding presentation titled “Preserve the Union”.

Abraham Lincoln was known to be a friend of the Jewish people and appointed several Jews to cabinet posts during his term as President. Just recently while I was at Rosenblum’s World of Judaica in Skokie, the book “Lincoln and the Jews” was prominently on display.
