Dear Friends,

There may be wisdom in confusion and dangerous arrogance in certainty. Yes, it’s a broad statement, but consider Purim.

Purim revels in confusion, for on Purim we jettison the usual restraints of knowledge, perspective and social convention. We allow ourselves, for instance, to parody our rabbis and teachers, which is unheard of (right?) during the rest of the year. On Purim we also bend our identities. We give ourselves license to become someone or something else. Manly men may dress as women, and vice versa. And on Purim one Talmudic sage permitted drinking “ad lo yada bein ‘arur Haman’ l’ ‘varuch Mordecai’ – until one no longer knows [the difference] between ‘cursed is Haman’ and ‘blessed is Mordecai’” (Mehillah 7b).

The Purim story itself teaches that, as smart as we may be, we never know what might happen. Who could have predicted that Haman would be impaled on the gallows built for Mordecai? Who could have predicted that the disaster plotted against the Jews would be visited upon our attackers? No matter what we know – or what we think we know – Purim reminds us not to be too confident. You never know what might happen. It’s a topsy-turvy world.

Much suffering comes from those who believe they know better and more than anyone else, from those who claim a monopoly on truth. Perhaps the greatest struggle of our day is the struggle against an Islamic fundamentalism that gives adherents license to steamroll over innocent lives. The “Islamic State” has unleashed of torrent of horrific violence throughout the Middle East, from Iraq to Egypt. And we dare not believe they will be content to stop there, for Purim also teaches us to be vigilant – even proactive – when it comes to defending ourselves and others against real evil.

Purim is more profound than we usually acknowledge. It contains messages about enemies, feminism, power, and the limits of our knowledge. But I would be remiss if I were not to close with the most important message of all: It’s Adar – increase joy – have fun!

Joyfully,
Rabbi Jeffrey Weill

P.S. More recent teaching, and even the Talmud itself, steps back from encouraging excessive drinking, which can be dangerous.

P.P.S. If you don’t yet have tickets for our excellent Purim Shpiel, “Li’l Orphan Esther”, you can – and absolutely should – get tickets at the door. (You can even come twice!)

The Minyonaire Chavorah would like to announce that we have been in existence for over 25 years. Naturally, only a few of the originals are still in the group. Unfortunately, many have passed on or left the synagogue. But, we have added many wonderful people who have been following the goal of the Chavorah, which is to help maintain the daily minyan. We also send in donations to the synagogue and many other Jewish organizations that need help. We are very fortunate to be able to do many things besides the above. We do socialize and friendships have been made from this Chavorah. We will continue to bring updates to you.

Our last meeting was held right after Rabbi Brief came home and after Erica’s funeral. The Chavorah ordered a rock for the wall where the Tree is hanging. It is now on the wall for everyone to see. Rabbi and the late Erica were founding members of the Chavorah.

Just added to our donation list is a portion of the new daily minyan siddurs was purchased by the Chavorah along with donations from other sources. We are very proud of ourselves for what we do.

From the President’s Desk...

It seems like only yesterday that we were looking forward to 2015 and Sisterhood’s upcoming programs. I am looking at my calendar tonight -- Tu B’Shevat was February 4th, Purim begins March 4th and Passover just four weeks later. Thank you to all who worked on, or supported, our Rosh Chodesh program, January Games Day and the cancelled Tu B’Shevat Bingo.

Spring will be coming (at least I hope!) soon and on Wednesday evening--March 18th, please join us for Sisterhood’s third annual Women’s Seder with Rebitzen Julie Weill. Flyers are out, so mark your calendars and please plan to attend. April 22nd is the date for our luncheon program celebrating Yom Ha’Atzma’ut---Israel Independence Day--featuring “The True Story of Golda Meir” presented by Joanne Stein. We have also started to compile a list of those of you who would like to participate in our May 9th Sisterhood Shabbat. Your suggestions and participation are always welcome as part of our Sisterhood and Congregational Mispachah.

B’shalom! Evelyn Lowenthal

BOOK CLUB TO DISCUSS

"THE INNOCENTS"
by Francesca Segal

The next meeting of the Sisterhood Book Club will be on Wednesday, March 11th at 10:30 a.m. at the synagogue.

Newly engaged and unhappily self-satisfied, 28-year-old Adam Newman is the prize catch of Temple Fortune, a small, tight-knit Jewish suburb of London. He has been dating Rachel Gilbert since they were both 16 and now, to the relief and happiness of the entire Gilbert family, they are finally to marry. To Adam, Rachel embodies the highest values of Temple Fortune; she is innocent, conventional, and entirely secure in her community. Marrying Rachel will cement Adam’s role in a warm, inclusive family he loves.

But as the vast machinery of the wedding gathers momentum, Adam feels the first faint touches of claustrophobia, and when Rachel’s younger cousin Ellie Schneider moves home from New York, she unsettles Adam more than he’d care to admit. Ellie offers a liberation that he hadn’t known existed. Adam finds himself questioning everything, suddenly torn between security and exhilaration, tradition and independence. What might he be missing by staying close to home?

Please join us for a lively discussion! Refreshments will be served.

OUR DISTINGUISHED JEWISH WOMEN—PAST AND PRESENT:

Sophie Tucker
by Joanne Stein

She was known as “The Last of the Red Hot Mammans,” and was born Sonya Kalish to a Jewish family from Ukraine. At a young age, she began singing for tips at her parent’s kosher restaurant in Hartford, Connecticut. In 1903, at 16, she eloped with a beer cart driver named Louis Tuck. (That’s where the name Tucker originated.) They had a son but the couple soon separated. Sophie left the baby with her family and moved to New York. She found work singing in cafes, and by age 22, she was appearing in the Ziegfeld Follies. Two of her most famous songs were My Yiddishe Mama and Some of These Days.

She toured England and even gave a command performance for King George V and Queen Mary in 1926. In London she had a sign put on the stage which read: “Welcome, Sophie Tucker, America’s Most Jewish Singer” - she never let her audiences forget she was Jewish. In the 1930s, she had her own radio show and later made appearances on many TV shows and on Broadway.

Sophie Tucker was known for tzedakah. She gave a great deal of money to Jewish causes. She endowed a chair at Brandeis University, dedicated and sponsored youth centers in Israel and established forests there as well.

She never retired but kept working until a few weeks before she died in 1966 at 82. Three thousand people attended her funeral at a Connecticut synagogue. At that time, the union hearse drivers were on strike but when they learned it was Sophie Tucker’s funeral, they called off the picketing in her honor.

This is what one critic said about her: “Sophie Tucker’s legacy exists in her generous contributions to charity, her influence on Jewish culture and women’s sexuality, and her role as a great entertainer.”

PESACH - PASSOVER 2015

The holiday of Pesach (Passover) is celebrated from the 15th to the 22nd of Nisan, which corresponds this year to Friday night, April 3rd for the first Seder and ending on Saturday night, April 11th.

Passover is the most widely celebrated Jewish holiday. It commemorates God’s freeing the Israelite slaves from bondage in Egypt and the beginning of Jewish nationhood in the land of Israel.

It is also one of the three Pilgrimage holidays (together with Sukkot and Shavuot), when Jews brought their first fruits to sacrifice in the Temple in Jerusalem.

The Hagaddah combines the historical past (the telling of the story of the liberation from slavery in Egypt), the present (everyone should feel as if he personally was liberated from slavery in Egypt) and the hope for the future (the ushering in of Elijah the Prophet, who will herald the Messianic Age and “Next Year in Jerusalem!”).

At the Seder, participants are supposed to lean on pillows and recline on chairs, in the style of free men of leisure. The food that most typifies the Seder is the matzah, a form of flat unleavened bread. Other Seder rituals are eating parsley which heralds the spring, and the eating of the bitter herbs and charoset to remind us of the slavery in Egypt. Four cups of wine are drunk at various points of the Seder and a fifth cup is put out for Elijah the Prophet.

The Seder plate is put out as a teaching tool for children and adults and to encourage the asking of questions about Passover and the Seder. On the Seder plate are six items: The ‘zeroah’ - a roasted shank bone or chicken neck to represent the Paschal lamb, “beitzah” - egg to represent the sacrifice in the Temple, “maror” - bitter herbs - romaine lettuce or horseradish to remind us of the bitterness of slavery in Egypt, “charoset” - a mixture of apples, nuts and wine resembling the mortar used by the Hebrew slaves to build the structures in Egypt, “karpass” - a non-bitter vegetable—usually parsley—to remind us of spring and “hazeret” - additional bitter herbs, usually romaine lettuce.

Happy Passover –
Happy Spring –
Chag Sameach!

KNITTING PROJECT

Sisterhood is making shawls for breast cancer patients. The yarn is available at Michael’s or any hobby store. The office has copies of the instructions. There is no time limit on how long it takes. It is a spare-time project. Have fun doing this!

I want to thank all of the people who have contributed to this knitting project—it has been appreciated by the cancer patients who receive them and by the group of people who distribute them!

In the coming months we will be featuring more films of interest. Watch for our flyers that detail each film event. And remember, admission and popcorn are free to all.

Yom HaShoah
On April 6th we will mail a Yom HaShoah candle to every family in the congregation, and on April 16th we will sponsor a Yom HaShoah Memorial Service to keep alive the memory of those we lost in the Holocaust. We were gratified by last year’s participation in our yellow candle program and look forward to even greater congregant participation this year. Watch for your candle.

Paid-up Membership Dinner
April 29th is the date of the Men’s Club membership dinner for all men who are paid-up members. After the dinner which will be prepared by our Men’s Club cooks, and a brief business meeting to elect a slate of officers and trustees for the next term, we will be addressed by Jerry Markbreit, former NFL official.

Mr. Markbreit served 10 years as a Big Ten official before joining the National Football League as a line judge in 1976. In just his second season, he was promoted to head referee. During his 33 year NFL career Mr. Markbreit was referee for 8 conference championships and 4 Super Bowls.

“The Rising Tide of Anti-Semitism”
by Amy Stoken,
Chicago Regional Director of American Jewish Committee,
March 22, 2015 at 6:30 p.m.

Over the past several months, and peaking over the summer during the conflict with Hamas, Jews in Europe have been increasingly targeted. Businesses and synagogues have been vandalized and damaged. Jewish citizens have been brutally attacked and murdered. Chants of “Death to the Jews” and “Gas the Jews” have become common place in rallies and protests against Israeli policy. In France alone, we have seen a 91% spike in anti-Semitic attacks in 2014, according to the Jewish Community Protective Service.

As we are making efforts to increase our range of programs and activities we are hoping that others would like to join our Committee. If you are interested in being part of our group, please let the office know.

In Loving Memory

If you wish to honor the memory of a dear one, a most fitting, traditional and dignified remembrance is through a memorial plaque.
Each memorial plaque, bearing the name and yahrzeit date, is mounted in the Memorial Alcove in our chapel. On the day of the yahrzeit, your loved one’s name is listed on a tablet in the chapel alcove.
For more information or to order a plaque, contact Bill Gerber in the synagogue office.
