Dear Friends,

I scroll and click through The Forward (www.forward.com) and find articles on Israeli President Reuven Rivlin’s concern about anti-Arab sentiment among Israeli Jews, on the French prime minister’s commitment to fight anti-Semitism, and on the merging of two major Jewish publishing houses.

An editorial calls for tough diplomacy in the nuclear talks with Iran. A columnist opines about what it means to “love Israel.”

I toggle over to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency (www.jta.org) and read about LGBT inclusion in Orthodox congregations and about a meeting between Rome’s chief rabbi and Pope Francis. The JTA links to other sites as well, including Kveller, Jewniverse, My Jewish Learning, and The Nosher.

So much to read, so little time! I sometimes wish I could spend full days plowing through newspapers while indulging in a bottomless cup of coffee and an “everything” bagel, buttered. This would be a little taste of heaven, despite the inevitability of imbibing anxiety-inducing stories.

Leading a well-rounded Jewish life requires keeping abreast of Jewish news. It is no less important than Torah, tzedekah, prayer, and Israel engagement.

Happily, our people are expressive; they publish in abundance. A universe of Jewish news sources emanate from all corners of the Jewish world. They focus on a wide variety of stories and express the full spectrum of perspectives.

(I read papers that are liberal and conservative. It’s important to do so. Reading opinions that diverge from your own may yield new insights.)

I encourage you to find a couple of papers or magazines and subscribe to them. Many are non-profits, including the Forward and the JTA. They run on tight budgets. We are lucky they exist, and they deserve our support. May 3 is World Press Freedom Day. This year, honor this special day by supporting the Jewish press.

In friendship,
Rabbi Jeffrey Weill
The Religious Education Committee would like to extend a hearty thank you to our 2015 Purim Carnival Sponsors and Donors for their generous contributions. We would also like to thank the volunteers and our Religious School parents who worked so hard to make our event a success.

Special thanks to everyone who joined us at the North Shore Center for the Performing Arts to see “The Property (A Lyric Opera Production).” We would also like to thank our congregants and friends who joined us at the Lyric Opera House to see “Carousel.” We appreciate your support, and proceeds from these events will benefit the EHNTJC Religious School.

BAR/BAT MITZVAH FAMILY EDUCATION
Our Dalet/Hey students’ participated in their final class with Rabbi Weill on Sunday, April 12th. We look forward to supporting our students in their upcoming simchas!

“THE HISTORY OF CHICAGO MAGIC” SUNDAY, JUNE 4th (Save the Date)
"The History of Chicago Magic" as performed by well-known Producer, Director and Chicago Magician, Lee Levin. Mr. Levin was recently showcased and contributed to the new bestselling book, "Now You See Them, Now You Don't” detailing the stories of the magicians and the magic venues of Chicago. Mr. Levin's unique presentation of Close-up magic "Chicago style" showcasing the places and history through magic and the unique place Chicago has in history with the invention of this performing art is not to be missed. This evening performance will benefit the EHNTJC Religious School.

UPCOMING RELIGIOUS SCHOOL ACTIVITIES
On Tuesday, May 5th, Ms. Cindy Iglitzen-Socianu, Area Director Upper Midwest/Greater Chicagoland of Magen David Odom, will meet with students (and parents) to discuss our upcoming “Red Bag of Courage Tzedakah Project.” Our students are excited about this project, and we look forward to its success in the coming year.

The Religious School Graduation will be held on Friday, May 15th during Erev Shabbat Service at 8:00 pm.

The Religious School “End of Year Picnic” will be held at Devonshire Park, on Sunday, May 17th from 11:00 – 2:00pm.

SISTERHOOD CORNER—May, 2015

Evelyn Lowenthal, Sisterhood President       Judy Arkin, Editor (kjarkin99@comcast.net)

From the President’s Desk...

I began writing this message from the Central Great Lakes Region Spring Conference of Women for Conservative Judaism, which our Sisterhood is affiliated with, held in Cincinnati, Ohio earlier this week. Idelle Peaceman and I had the opportunity to visit with other attendees and gather great ideas that I hope to use for our 2015-2016 Sisterhood year which begins on July 1st.

It was a pleasure to see such a great turnout for our Celebrate Israel Luncheon held on April 22nd. Thank you to all those who attended and helped with our set-up, serving and clean-up, and a special thank you to Joanne Stein for her wonderful and informative program on Golda Meir.

Please join us on Saturday morning, May 9th at 9:30 a.m. for Sisterhood Shabbat as our women will once again be leading the services and sponsoring the Kiddush Luncheon. We invite you and your friends to attend!

Sisterhood will finish our 2014-2015 year with our Culminating Luncheon and Installation of our Officers and Board on Wednesday, June 10th, with a catered/ plated luncheon. Charles Troy will present a musical program to top-off our event. Invitations are in the mail—the cost is once again $36 for Sisterhood members and $40 for guests.

B’Shalom! Evelyn Lowenthal

BOOK CLUB TO DISCUSS

by Isaac Bashevis Singer

The next meeting of the Sisterhood Book Club will be on Wednesday, May 13th at 10:30 a.m. at the synagogue.

After the Chmielnicki massacres of the seventeenth century, in which his wife and three children were murdered, Jacob was sold as a slave to pagan peasant farmers. Throughout his years of slavery, he struggled to maintain his Jewish heritage. While in captivity he falls in love with Wanda, his master’s daughter. Even after he is ransomed, he finds he can’t live without her, and the two escape together to a distant Jewish community. Racked by his consciousness of sin in taking a Gentile wife and by the difficulties of concealing her identity, Jacob nonetheless stands firm as the violence of the era threatens to destroy the ill-fated couple.

Please join us for a lively discussion!
Refreshments will be served.

RSVP to one of our Book Club Chairs:
- Dorothy Lipstadt (847)673-3525
- Elaine Lampert (847)537-1240
- Judith-Rae Ross (847)673-7728

Next up.... “The Mathematician’s Shiva” by Stuart Rojstaczer on July 8th.

Torah Fund

This year’s Torah Fund pin depicts Mishpachah—Family. Receive the 5775 pin as our gift to you in recognition of donations of $180 or more (Benefactor $180, Guardian $300, Associate Patron $600, Patron $1200). In choosing mishpachah as the theme for the 5775 Torah Fund pin, we are acknowledging both the sanctity that comes with being one big family and the complexity of our families and relationships.

There is no one kind of Jewish family in the world today. Our families are diverse and this pin is something to be worn proudly by women in all stages and kinds of family life: married, partnered, single, widowed, LGBT, straight, mothers, aunts, sisters and daughters. And as we support the programs of the Jewish Theological Seminary, the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies, and the Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies, we proclaim that we as women in all walks of life are proudly shaping the future of the big, 3000 year-old Jewish family.

Your Torah Fund contribution strengthens and perpetuates Conservative/Masorati Judaism throughout the world. It’s not too late to participate in this year’s Torah Fund drive! Any amount would be greatly appreciated. Please make your check payable to EHNTJC Sisterhood Torah Fund and send it to the synagogue office—ATTN: Sisterhood Torah Fund. For more information, please contact our Torah Fund Chair, Julie Weill at (847)914-0564, or Sisterhood President, Evie Lowenthal at (847)673-2505.

Our Distinguished Jewish Women—Past and Present:

Bess Meyerson

First and Only Jewish Miss America by Joanne Stein

In 1945 a Jewish girl from the Bronx was named Miss America. Five feet, ten inches tall, and an accomplished pianist, Bess was thrilled to have won. However, she found her victory bittersweet.

While competing in the New York City contest prior to her Miss America victory, officials had urged her to change her Jewish sounding name—which she refused to do.

During a World War II bond tour, she was denied admittance to a country club reception when the sponsor learned she was Jewish, and a tour of veterans’ hospitals was cancelled when some of the wounded men’s parents raised objections.

The result was that during her year as Miss America, she made many speeches for the Anti-Defamation League; she wanted to do her part to speak out against bigotry and prejudice.

Bess Meyerson had a distinguished career in television, journalism and public service. She was a commentator for the Tournament of Roses Parade and for the Miss America Pageant for many years.

In 1969 she became New York City’s Commissioner of Consumer Affairs, and through her efforts, NYC adopted some of the most stringent consumer protection laws in the United States.

She became a syndicated columnist, a newspaper and magazine writer, and a reporter for CBS News. Three U.S. presidents – Johnson, Ford and Carter – appointed her to commissions on important world issues.

Bess Meyerson was married and divorced twice and had one daughter. In 1988 she was put on trial on charges involving her companion’s divorce case but was acquitted on all counts.

She died at the age of 90 in December, 2014, having been honored by many Jewish organizations throughout her life.

Knitting Project

Sisterhood is making shawls for breast cancer patients. The office has copies of the instructions. If you would like more information, feel free to call Idelle Peaceman at (847)254-7745. No time limit—have fun doing this!
MEN'S CLUB BRIEFS
Our Yom HaShoah Program Has Grown

Last year Men's Club initiated a Yellow Candle mailing to all congregant families as a way to preserve and honor the memory of our kinsmen lost in the Holocaust. We were gratified by the number of families that participated by sending us a donation in their memory. This year we continued the Yellow Candle remembrance and we also sponsored a Yom HaShoah service that featured a timely presentation by Charlotte Bonelli, Director of the AJC Archive & Record Center. Donations which we continue to receive will be donated to EHNTJC, as they were last year.

We Moved Into A New Term

April 29th was the occasion of our second annual dinner for paid-up members. In addition to a hearty meal prepared by our cooks, we held a brief business meeting at which time the membership elected the officers and trustees who will guide the club through the 2015-2016 term.

With the meal and business out of the way, we were treated to an insider's view of the National Football League by retired NFL referee Jerry Markbreit. His career in the NFL spanned 33 years.

Important Programs Coming Up

Watch for our bulletins on May and June events and programs. They will include a Free Movie Nite, a presentation by congregant Howard Romanek on Judaism and sports, and our second annual Men's Club Shabbat and Kiddush lunch sponsored and prepared by our members.

Tentative Program Schedule (May-June)

May 4   Board Meeting
May 20  Program to be announced
June 1   Board Meeting
June 17 Presentation on Sports and Judaism by Howard Romanek
June 27 Men's Club Shabbat. Save the date and join us for the Shabbat service and Kiddush lunch.
EHNTJC SOCIAL ACTION CORNER
Ruth Siegel, Chair

In March several members of EHNTJC participated in the packing and delivery of Passover food for Maot Chitim. Our March 22 program, Report on Anti-Semitism by Amy Stoken, Regional Director of the American Jewish Committee, was also very well attended and informative.

EHNTJC SOCIAL ACTION UPCOMING EVENTS

- Our next CLOTHING/TEXTILE DRIVE is scheduled for the week of June 8th. Bring your clean clothes, sheets, towels etc. – even those with stains, minor tears, or just worn out. Everything we collect is repurposed AND EHNTJC is paid based on the weight of our collection. A triple win event – good for clearing clutter from our homes; good for the environment; good for our Congregation. (If you know of or belong to other not-for-profit organizations that may be interested in similar textile drives please let me know as we can also receive a referral fee.)

- A SUSTAINABLE FARMING - ENVIRONMENTAL PROGRAM DAY is planned for Sunday May 31. We will have an informative program at EHNTJC in the morning and in the afternoon there will be a visit to a family friendly sustainable farm where visitors can learn more and even participate in farming activities. Watch for details soon.

- UPTOWN CAFE service dates are scheduled for June 28 and July 19. We will be asking for volunteers to sign up soon so save the dates if you are interested in participating in this service activity.

- MAOT CHITIM Rosh Hashanah packing will take place on August 23 with delivery on August 30 - save the dates and watch for details of the location in late July or early August.

As we are making efforts to increase our range of programs and activities we are hoping that others would like to join our Committee. If you are interested in being part of our group, please let the office know.

In Loving Memory

If you wish to honor the memory of a dear one, a most fitting, traditional and dignified remembrance is through a memorial plaque.

Each memorial plaque, bearing the name and yahrzeit date, is mounted in the Memorial Alcove in our chapel. On the day of the yahrzeit, your loved one’s name is listed on a tablet in the chapel alcove.

For more information or to order a plaque, contact Bill Gerber in the synagogue office.

HERE’S A GREAT WAY TO HELP THE SYNAGOGUE AND IT’S SO EASY!!

If you shop at Jewel, purchase our $100 Jewel cards. You get full value and the synagogue gets money back for each card sold. Jewel cards can be acquired from Bill Gerber in the synagogue office.

EHNTJC offers heartfelt condolences to...

Gary Gruen and Al Gruen on the loss of wife and daughter-in-law, Karen Gruen.

Norm & Rosalie Persky on the loss of his uncle, Seymour Persky.

Sharon & Jay Zite and Stacy Zite-Bard on the loss of their grandson and son, Aiden.

Debbie (Stewart) Reich, Stephanie (Casey) Jensen, Jeffrey (Valerie) Reich, Michael (Jessica) Reich, Meredith (Benjamin) Kramer, on the loss of sister and aunt, Judie Stevenson.

May G-d comfort them among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

In Loving Memory

If you wish to honor the memory of a dear one, a most fitting, traditional and dignified remembrance is through a memorial plaque.

Each memorial plaque, bearing the name and yahrzeit date, is mounted in the Memorial Alcove in our chapel. On the day of the yahrzeit, your loved one’s name is listed on a tablet in the chapel alcove.

Why was Mitzvah Memorial Funerals entrusted to direct more than 600 funerals in our first 3 1/2 years in business?

We provide compassionate professional service and significant savings – usually $2,000-$5,000 less than Jewish funeral homes in Chicago with chapels charge for the same or similar services and casket.

If you have prepaid funeral services with one of our competitors you can switch to us. In most cases we will refund you or your family $2,000-$5,000.
