MAZEL TOV TO SARAH CLAVER ON HER UPCOMING BAT MITZVAH!

May 12, 2018

Sarah, daughter of Bruce and Amy Claver, and sister to William, is in the 7th grade at Attea Middle School.

At school she participates in cross country, cheerleading, track & field, and gymnastics. She also enjoys reading, running in 5K events with her dad, fast roller coasters, and watching episodes of Friends and The Office.

Sarah has designated CJE Senior Life for her tzedakah contribution.

Thank you to Bruce & Amy Claver for sponsoring the Kiddush luncheon in honor of Sarah’s simcha.

...Anelyn & Brian Jablo for sponsoring and preparing the Filipino style Oneg Shabbat on April 13th.

Passover 20187 was a week away when Harriett, my beloved wife of 54+ years joined our relatives at Westlawn Cemetery. Her passing was extremely sad for Beth, Steve and myself.

To her legacy, I wish to thank the many friends, relatives and members of EHNTJC for their contributions in Harriett’s memory.

For the Farber Family, this has been our religious home and it continues at 4500 Dempster.

Joel Farber

We thank G-d, our family and synagogue family for the simcha of our 71st Anniversary and our 90th birthdays.

From the President’s Desk...

Our Sisterhood will be very busy during the month of May! On Thursday, May 3rd at 7:30 p.m., we welcome local author Renée Rosen (who has written several books about Chicago such as “White Collar Girl” and “What the Lady Wants”) to discuss her latest book, “Windy City Blues”. A special dessert reception will follow.

Sisterhood Shabbat will take place on Saturday, May 5th. We welcome everyone to join us as members of our Sisterhood lead the Shabbat morning service, followed by the Kiddush luncheon sponsored by the Sisterhood. The Torah Fund Luncheon will be on Wednesday, May 9th, with guest speaker Rabbi Kenneth Berger. Rabbi Berger grew up in West Rogers Park, and both he and his son are graduates of the Jewish Theological Seminary—just one of the institutions that the Torah Fund supports.

Our Culminating Luncheon will take place on Wednesday, June 6th. Musical entertainment will be provided by Liz Zoller Cohen. Invitations are in the mail!

Information on all of our programs and events can be found on the EHNTJC website at ehnt.org. Click on the ‘Community’ header and go to the Sisterhood section. You can also call the synagogue office at (847)675-4141 to make a reservation. We hope you will join us!

B’Shalom! Judy Frank

BOOK and AUTHOR RECEPTION
Thursday, May 3rd at 7:30 p.m.

Please join us as author Renée Rosen reviews her latest novel...

“Windy City Blues”

Renée Rosen’s latest book, “Windy City Blues” (February, 2017) was chosen by the Spertus Institute for Jewish Learning and Leadership as ‘One Book, One Community’. This marks the first time that an author who lives and works in Chicago was selected.

In “Windy City Blues”, Rosen knits a small crew of fictional characters into the real lives of noteworthy Chicagoans, following them from the 1930’s through the tumultuous decades that follow. Among the true-to-life figures gracing the book’s pages are musical icons Muddy Waters, Howlin’ Wolf, Etta James, and Chuck Berry, along with Leonard and Phil Chess of Chess Records. Readers will encounter the life of Jewish immigrants on Maxwell Street, the unregulated days of the recording industry and racial and religious discrimination. Each chapter is titled with the name of a song recorded at Chess Records.

Ms. Rosen will also have a selection of her previously published books for sale.

$10 for Sisterhood Members and $15 for Non-members and at the door.

GIFT SHOP GAB: VOLUME NINETEEN

The gift shop is doing well. Our new socks for both men and women have been a success. The men have been among our frequent customers!

We have reduced the prices of our Passover items hoping to encourage sales so that next year we can have a new selection.

We have two new vendors and will be stocking our display cases with unique items for all—especially with graduations, Mother’s Day and Father’s Day just around the corner.

Shavuot
by Dr. Esther Javetz
Education Vice-President

All Jewish holidays have several names because, throughout history, they accumulated several functions, and there is a name to each function.

1. In the book of Exodus, the giving of the Torah is described as in Nisan [first], Iyar [second], Sivan [third]. Therefore, the holiday is called “Matan Torah”. The giving of the Torah is related to dairy food.

2. In another place in Exodus and in Deuteronomy, the holiday is called Shavuot (weeks), because 7 weeks are to be counted from the beginning of the harvest (Pesach). There are 7 weeks in between the harvest of wheat and the harvest of barley.

3. Shavuot is also called “Hag Ha-Bikurim” (the holiday of first fruits), since we are commanded to bring the first fruits of the harvest (in this case grains) to the Temple. Shavuot is one of the three holidays when Jews went as pilgrims to the temple in Jerusalem.

4. Shavuot is the holiday that relates to harvest, so we remember the harvest rules of Leket and Peah, (Leviticus 19, 9) where part of the harvest is not taken by the owner of the field, but it is left for the poor and the stranger.

5. During Shavuot we read the story about Ruth who was both poor and a stranger, and came to pick up freebies from the field according to the local custom. Because Ruth was a model convert, Shavuot is also the holiday where we appreciate converts to Judaism.

In short, the holiday relates to our generosity to the poor, strangers and converts, and to obeying of Torah laws in general.

MOVIE NITE!

‘Everything Is Illuminated’

This is a tale of a young man and his quest to find the woman who saved his grandfather in a small Ukrainian town that was wiped off the map by the Nazi invasion. What starts out as a journey to piece together one family’s story under the most absurd circumstances turns into a surprisingly meaningful journey with a powerful series of revelations – the importance of remembrance, the perilous nature of secrets, the legacy of the Holocaust, the meaning of friendship and, most importantly, love.

Everything Is Illuminated is a 2005 biographical comedy-drama film, written and directed by Liv Schreiber and starring Elijah Wood and Eugene Hutz. It was adapted from the novel of the same name by Jonathan Safran Foer, and was the debut film of Liv Schreiber both as a director and as a screenwriter.

Men’s Club Shabbat

Saturday, June 16, 2018 at 9:30 a.m.

Just as we have for the past few years, Men’s Club will conduct the June 16th Shabbat Service. And just as we have in the past, Men’s Club members will take all of the parts in the service – we will serve as greeters; we will read parts in Hebrew and in English; we will come to the bima for the aliyyot; we will lift and bind the Torah and we will present the D’var Torah. And of course, we’ll sponsor the Kiddush lunch.

Ways & Means – Ada Rabinowitz, Chair

Our Family Needs You!
The Ways and Means Committee is happy that the Purim Shpiel was a huge success! Now we are embarking on our next activities. I am pleased to tell you that Rabbi Jeffrey Weill and Julie Weill are going to be the honorees for our next Ad Book. We are delighted that they have accepted this honor.

In August we will be presenting a wonderful concert featuring our own Cantor Benjamin Warschawski. I hope that you will join us for this extraordinary event. Mark your calendars for August 12, 2018.

Our annual Honey Sale will be before the High Holidays. This is a wonderful way to wish your family, friends and business associates a Happy New Year.

We will have our annual fundraiser in October and the Ad Book culminating dinner will be in November. When plans are finalized we will send out invitations for these events.

At this time I want to thank you for your support for all our projects. The funds raised at these events and activities help support our synagogue. I need not explain how important this support is to our congregation community.

We are a family and our family needs you.

Best wishes to you and yours,
Ada Rabinowitz, Ways and Means Chair

In Loving Memory

If you wish to honor the memory of a dear one, a most fitting, traditional and dignified remembrance is through a memorial plaque.

Each memorial plaque, bearing the name and yahrzeit date, is mounted in the Memorial Alcove in our chapel. On the day of the yahrzeit, your loved one’s name is listed on a tablet in the chapel alcove.

For more information or to order a plaque, contact Bill Gerber in the synagogue office.
