Dear Friends:

We do not merely go to services or attend services on the High Holy Days. We ascend them. For each High Holy Day service, from beginning to end, is a madrega, a step on an ascending climb.

Selichot is the first step. Selichot’s melodies, liturgy, and learning establish a contemplative mood, enabling us to internalize the kavannah necessary for the upcoming ten days of awe.

Those days begin with the next step, Erev Rosh Hashanah. I encourage you to come to services after dinner. The Erev Rosh Hashanah service is imbued with a thrilling feeling that a new year -- a renewal for the entire universe - has just begun.

The two days of Rosh Hashanah are our next step in our climb. We are now fully immersed in the High Holy Days process, celebrating harat olam - the birthday of the world -- while also seriously examining the state of that world and the conditions of our own souls. The keening shofar on Rosh Hashanah pierces our souls, preparing us for the next step, Kol Nidrei and Yom Kippur day.

This is a day -- THE DAY -- of profound awe. We sink into a welter of humility and contrition as our fasting bodies weaken, the gates slowly close, the book shuts, and judgment looms. Remembering our loved ones during Yizkor also reminds us of our own mortality. And then, alas, the final service, the last step, Neilah. We conclude this long climb with a shofar blast not of awe but of victory. We have concluded an arduous climb; we’ve reached the top. And we are safe, purified, renewed, and ready to stride forward into 5778.

Friends, each step is integral to this great drama. Let us join hands and climb together.

L’Shana Tova,
Rabbi Jeffrey Weill
Greetings,

I am endlessly amazed at how fast the High Holidays sneak up on me every year. You would think that I would now be a bit less surprised after leading High Holiday services for the past 24 years (13 here at EHNTJC...Happy Bar-Mitzvah year to us!) And yet it still takes me off guard. This year particularly as our family moved our NY residence to a lovely home in NJ earlier this summer.

Our new backyard sits in the shade of a beautiful old maple tree. For the first few weeks Sam and I would occasionally head outside and pick up the seedpods, also known as “helicopters.” We would toss handfuls of them in the air and enjoy the twisting cascade of swirling green as it rained down around us.

Sadly, this joy was short-lived. Those seedpods are sticky, and they get EVERYWHERE! Needless to say, it didn’t take long for these beautiful helicopters to feel more like a pest on our walkway and house, than a beauty of the natural world. This was one issue I did not have to deal with in New York City.

City life comes with many conveniences but also many challenges. Suburban life comes with many different conveniences as well as a challenge that I had not encountered in over 5 years: YARD WORK! I actually missed doing it! I missed the satisfaction of sitting down to a hearty meal following an afternoon of manual labor. I missed working with soil. Really, I missed feeling connected with the Earth.

While I felt quite satisfied working on the property over the summer this “helicopter” infestation convinced me that it was time to make my next lawn care tool purchase early this year. So, I added a blower/vac/chipper to my little arsenal and began blowing, vacuuming and chipping those pesky helicopters into oblivion.

I have heard this type of chore dubbed “idiot’s delight” and these sorts of jobs excite the OCD in me to no end. Therefore, it should come as no surprise that looking back over the entire patio and walkway after removing those green spinners felt immensely gratifying to me. And still, within 48 hours, more of those little seedpods had fallen, covering the walkway in green. I was so glad to have my new tool and realized this was to be an ongoing battle and I needed to be properly armed.

This is much like the holiday season that has once again overtaken us. We are endowed by G-d with a beautiful clean “lawn of life” set before us. Through our own actions, the actions of others, or perhaps even matters beyond our control, that beautiful gift regularly ends up littered with “seedpods.” But G-d has given us our “leaf-blower” in this cycle and it is Teshuva/Repentance. Teshuva has the power to return our “lawn of life” to the pristine state in which we received it.

As the New Year begins, let’s make sure to greet the King of Kings on Rosh Hashanah and pray for the most powerful leaf blower He will give us so we can clean the “helicopters” from our life’s yard on Yom Kippur. May we all be able to look back over our “lawn of life” and be gratified with a good year’s work!

This is my prayer and my blessing for us all in 5778!

On behalf of Heather, Adina and Samuel, I wish you all a Shana Tovah Um’tuka/A Good and Sweet Year!

Warm regards,

Cantor Benjamin Warschawski
A Message from Ed Cohen, EHNTJC President

Good Yontiff.

As we enter the High Holidays, the holidays of Rosh Hashanah, our Jewish New Year and Yom Kippur the Day of Atonement, I wish you the best, a happy and healthy new year, from myself and my family.

As we look forward to the coming Rosh Hashanah holiday we are reminded that the holiday commemorates the creation of the world and marks the beginning of the Days of Awe, a 10-day period of introspection and repentance that culminates in the Yom Kippur holiday, our Day of Atonement.

For Rosh Hashanah, I will share eight interesting facts to remember:

1. IT IS THE JEWISH NEW YEAR - The phrase Rosh Hashanah literally translates to "Head of the Year." Rosh Hashanah occurs on the first and second days of the Hebrew month of Tishrei.

2. ROSH HASHANAH IS ALSO KNOWN AS JUDGMENT DAY - Jewish tradition teaches that Rosh Hashanah is also the Day of Judgment. On Rosh Hashanah, God is said to inscribe the fate of every person for the upcoming year in the Book of Life or the Book of Death. The verdict is not final until Yom Kippur. Rosh Hashanah marks the beginning of the Ten Days of Awe, during which Jews reflect upon their actions over the past year and seek forgiveness for their transgressions in hopes of influencing God's final judgment.

3. IT IS A DAY OF TESHUVAH (REPTENCE) AND FORGIVENESS - A critical part of Rosh Hashanah is making amends for sins and seeking forgiveness. Teshuva is the process by which we atone on Rosh Hashanah and throughout the Ten Days of Awe. We are required to seek forgiveness from people that they may have wronged over the past year before seeking forgiveness from God.

4. MITZVAH OF THE SHOFAR - The essential mitzvah of Rosh Hashanah is to hear the sounding of the shofar. There are several different shofar calls used on Rosh Hashanah. The tekiah is one long blast. The teruah is nine short blasts. The shevarim is three blasts. And the tekiah gedolah is a single long blast, much longer than the plain tekiah.

5. EATING APPLES AND HONEY IS TRADITION - There are many Rosh Hashanah food customs but the most common is the dipping of apples into honey, which is meant to signify our wishes for a sweet new year.

6. ROSH HASHANAH'S FESTIVE MEAL (SEUDAT YOM TOV) - A festive meal shared with family and friends to celebrate the New Year is central to the Rosh Hashanah holiday. A special round loaf of challah, which symbolizes the cycle of time, is generally served and dipped in honey with a special prayer for a sweet new year. Other foods may also be traditional, but they vary widely depending on local customs and family traditions.

7. THE TRADITIONAL GREETING: "L'Shana Tovah" - The traditional Rosh Hashanah greeting "L'Shana Tovah" or simply "Shana Tovah," you can also use "L'Shana Tovah u' Metukah," wishing someone a "good and sweet year."

8. THE CUSTOM OF TASHLICH - On Rosh Hashanah, many Jews may follow a custom called tashlich ("casting off") in which they walk to a naturally flowing body of water such as a river or stream, recite several prayers, reflect upon their sins over the past year and symbolically cast them off by throwing their sins into the water (usually by throwing pieces of bread into the stream).

We will observe tashlich with a special tashlich service for our congregants to perform the ceremony together on September 21st at 3:30 p.m. at Emily Oaks Nature Center, 4650 Brummel Street, Skokie.

Shana tovah u'metukah" - a good and sweet year!!

Ed Cohen
From our house to your home. From our congregational families to each other, we wish one another a healthy and meaningful New Year. May we be inscribed for the coming year. L’Shanah Tovah Tikatavu!

SISTERHOOD CORNER—-September, 2017

Judy Frank, President (judy@tcscorp.com) Diane Rosenfeld, Editor (raynesd@aol.com)

From the President’s Desk...

Late last month I returned from my first Women’s League Sisterhood Convention, along with Evie Lowenthal, and I am still on a high. I feel excited, enthusiastic, connected and ready to begin the New Year! The theme for this year’s convention was “A Bold New Outlook” WLCJ 100 years. The convention was quite an experience that words can barely describe. It was four jam-packed days, almost 450 “sisters”, brilliant scholars, the heads of all five Conservative/Masorti Rabbinical institutions, speakers, authors, Judaic art projects, panel discussions, networking, learning and sharing, installations, social action, programs on Israel, a History Hop, tefilot, and lots of ruach. It was also the celebration of Torah Fund’s 75th birthday.

I am very proud that our Sisterhood received the “Jewels in the Crown Award”. This award was given to those sisterhoods that had outstanding programs over the last three years. Thank you to our wonderful board for making this happen.

Wishing each and every one of you L’shanah Tovah 5778!

B’Shalom! Judy Frank

“Rosh Hashanah—Why Isn’t It Called Re’Sheet Hashanah?”
by Dr. Esther Javetz
Education Vice-President

“Re’sheet Hashanah” (=beginning of the year) would make sense; but we are using a word from the same root, Rosh (=head). What is the connection between Rosh and our kind of beginning of the year activities?

Everything we do is starting from our Rosh:
1.) Reviewing our activities and their results from the last year.
2.) Asking ourselves to feel guilty for actions that were not the best.
3.) Making plans for the New Year.
4.) Bringing ourselves to the synagogue to ask forgiveness from people and from G-d to avoid punishment.

It all starts from our Rosh, and guides our actions. Rosh Hashanah is not a biblical holiday, but it was later established by the Rabbis. A relevant quote from the Rabbis is: “Sof Maase Be’Machshava Techila” (a deed is just the last step of a thought that came earlier).

Our tradition is guiding us to be thoughtful and purposeful, and not to waste time as things just happen to us...let us all try to use our Rosh to benefit ourselves and our community.

Shanah Tova!

TORAH FUND 2017-2018

Mah Tovu—which means “how good”—is a phrase that originates in the Torah, in Numbers chapter 24:5. Quoted in our prayer book, it forms the basis of the opening prayer sung when we enter the synagogue.

The full phrase is Mah tovu ohalecha Yaakov, mishk’notecha Yisrael. “How goodly are your tents, O Jacob, your dwellings O Israel!” It is a spontaneous exclamation of joy, said when gazing at the nation of Israel dwelling in peace and mutual respect.

As we celebrate the beginning of the 100th year of Women’s League for Conservative Judaism and the end of the 75th year of the Torah Fund Campaign of Kindness, we count our many blessings as individuals within the community of Israel. We are blessed in our synagogues with the depth of learning, prayer and acts of kindness that bind us together, thoughtful and learned communal leaders; with our children, grandchildren who give us reason to smile, and with the friends and family—also our Women’s League sisters lending us strong support. Mah Tovu, how good are all of these blessings in our lives!

This year’s pin features the number 100, and as such is a treasured keepsake of the Women’s League centennial, to be worn with pride. For a gift of $180 or more to Torah Fund, you may proudly wear the pin.

Please contact Torah Fund Chair, Evie Lowenthal at (847)673-2505 or eviel@prodigy.net for more information.

BOOK CLUB TO DISCUSS

"Kirk and Anne: Letters of Love, Laughter and a Lifetime in Hollywood"

The next meeting of the Sisterhood Book Club will be on Wednesday—September 6th at 10:30 a.m. at the synagogue.

Film legend Kirk Douglas and Anne Buydens, his wife of nearly sixty-three years, look back on a lifetime filled with drama both on and off the screen. Sharing priceless correspondence with each other as well as the celebrities and world leaders they called friends, "Kirk and Anne" is a candid portrayal of the pleasures and pitfalls of a Hollywood life lived in the public eye.

Compiled from Anne's private archive of letters and photographs, this is an intimate glimpse into the Douglasses' courtship and marriage set against the backdrop of Kirk's screen triumphs, including The Vikings, Lust for Life, Paths of Glory, and Spartacus. The letters themselves, as well as Kirk and Anne's vivid descriptions of their experiences, reveal remarkable insight and anecdotes about the legendary figures they knew so well, including Lauren Bacall, Frank Sinatra, Burt Lancaster, Elizabeth Taylor, John Wayne, the Kennedys, and the Reagans.

Filled with photos from film sets, private moments, and public events, "Kirk and Anne" details the adventurous, oftentimes comic, and poignant reality behind the glamour of a Hollywood life—as only a couple of sixty-two years (and counting) could tell it.

Please join us for a lively discussion!
Refreshments will be served.

MEN’S CLUB BRIEFS

Our Selichot Speaker Is . . .

Rabbi Yehoshua Karsh. By popular demand, Rabbi Karsh is making a return visit to address the congregation. He is a teacher who inspires with humor, warmth and wisdom. And of course, following his sage words, Men’s Club is sponsoring the dessert reception.

We Make 3 Women Honorary Members

For the past few years 3 women have regularly volunteered their time and talents to insure the success of various Men’s Club programs. Men’s Club has long appreciated their efforts. One member facetiously suggested we recognize their contributions by doubling their salary. But twice nothing is still nothing. So we decided to make these women honorary members of EHNTJC Men’s Club:

Esther Manewith — Esther has professionally prepared news releases about our events and furnished them to media outlets in the surrounding communities. This has greatly extended the reach of our messages well beyond the walls of EHNTJC.

Sandra Kaiz — Sandy is the longest serving member of our food committee. She has not only purchased, prepared and served the food at our meal related programs, she has even stayed afterward to bus the tables and clean and secure the kitchen.

Davida Grossman — Davida’s role complemented Sandy’s work. Once the food was served, where else to enjoy it but at a table beautifully decorated by Davida. Her centerpieces are always creative and totally appropriate to the occasion. They truly represent much thought and loving preparation.

Tentative Program Schedule (Sept.-Oct.)

Oct. 2 Board Meeting

Cantor’s Concert, Huge Success
The Cantor’s Concert was a huge success. Over 300 guests enjoyed “Songs From the Heart”. Cantor Benjamin Warschawski was superb. The atmosphere was electric and the music and songs were wonderful. The audience enjoyed guest artist, Steven Matuszewski and pianist, David Richards.

I want to thank all our attendees, sponsors, benefactors and patrons for their support. I also appreciate everyone who volunteered and helped make the evening go smoothly. I especially wish to thank Jeanette Sigler and Debbie Reich for all they did to make the event so outstanding. Jeanette did the set-up and worked with the caterers to see that the desserts were delicious and displayed beautifully. Debbie did the decorations, invitations, program and the bookkeeping. They both went out of their way to insure that the event was successful.

Honey 2017
A big thank you to Marsha Brody and her committee for working diligently on this year’s honey fundraiser. We surpassed the 2016 sales.

Exciting New Event on November 11, 2017
We are fortunate that Carla and Allan Price are underwriting a musical production entitled “Blacklisted”. The show is about the McCarthy era. The performers are extremely talented and the music is terrific. The evening will be long remembered and something that you will not want to miss. Mark your calendars now. Invitations will be out soon.

The ARK High Holiday Food Drive
“And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corner of your field... You shall leave them for the poor and the stranger...”
Leviticus 19:9

For over 30,000 Chicagoland Jews, the Yom Kippur fast is not always a voluntary activity. Please help us end the shame and pain of hunger. During Rosh Hashanah, bags will be distributed for you to fill with non-perishable kosher food items and toiletries and return to Ezra-Habonim, the Niles Township Jewish Congregation on Yom Kippur. These items will be donated to The ARK for distribution to Chicagoland Jews in need.

The ARK is a non-profit, community funded social service agency with a mission to create a safety net for the needy by providing vital human services, and to build bridges between volunteers and those in need. The ARK opened in 1971 as a small, fre medical clinic staffed entirely by volunteers and serving a small elderly population on Chicago’s North Side. As the ARK’s supporters became aware of the extent of the community’s need, services were continually added. Today, The ARK provides an array of medical, legal and social services including food; medial, dental, and optometry care; prescription medication; mental health treatment and programming; job counseling; transitional housing; clothing and household goods; legal aid; rent and utility assistance; and more.

BLACKLISTED
SONGS McCarthy Didn’t Want You To Hear

In the post-World War II years, thousands of famous American singers and songwriters were denied the opportunity to make artistic contributions, accused by Senator Joseph McCarthy’s Committee on Un-American Activities to be communists or sympathizers. They were silenced.

Now you can hear Chicago’s finest cabaret talent perform a concert of songs written or made famous by blacklisted artists such as Leonard Bernstein, Yip Harburg, Lena Horne, Burl Ives, Zero Mostel, Paul Robeson, Pete Seeger, and more!

In Loving Memory

If you wish to honor the memory of a dear one, a most fitting, traditional and dignified remembrance is through a memorial plaque. Each memorial plaque, bearing the name and yahrzeit date, is mounted in the Memorial Alcove in our chapel.

On the day of the yahrzeit, your loved one’s name is listed on a tablet in the chapel alcove.

For more information or to order a plaque, contact Bill Gerber in the synagogue office.

The following memorial plaques have recently been dedicated in the chapel:

Rivka Angelus
by Debbie Callif

Barbara Ann Gilbert
by Howard Gilbert

Alfred Glück
by Veronika Urban

Anne Muskat
by Melvin and Henely Kramer

Samuel Nemtzow
by Charlotte Nemtzow

Lisa Michelle Ruttenberg
by Charlotte Ruttenberg z”l

May G-d comfort them among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

I switched my father’s pre-paid funeral from a Chicago Jewish funeral home with chapels to Mitzvah Memorial Funerals and saved over $2600.

I hadn’t heard of Mitzvah Memorial Funerals when I pre-arranged Dad’s funeral and accidentally called them when he passed. They explained they didn’t have the overhead funeral homes with chapels have thus using them for a graveside service would be far less expensive without sacrificing the quality of service or merchandise that I had arranged. They also explained that the insurance policy I set up for my father was easily transferable and I would be refunded the difference.

I used Mitzvah and couldn’t have been more satisfied. The service was beautiful and the casket, which was $850 less than the same one I had chosen, was actually nicer as it was finished.

It’s easy not to be concerned with money when you lose a loved one, but spending thousands more for a funeral home with chapels when I wasn’t using the chapel would have only made this difficult time much more difficult.
