YOUNG ISRAEL
of
OAK PARK
Peter Weiss Center

A family shul...

...and a shul family

YIOP comes together as a community of Orthodox Zionist Jews committed to prayer, study, and social interaction. We engage in these to further our spiritual growth, both individually and as a community, bringing us closer to G-d.

YIOP offers the intimacy of close friendships and the breadth of all-inclusive programming.

When we first moved to Oak Park 2.5 years ago, we were taken aback at what the community had to offer, relative to our preconceived notions.

IN THAT VEIN, YIOP BOASTS:

- MULTIPLE DAILY MINYANIM
- MULTIPLE DAILY SHIURIM
- WEEKLY YOUTH GROUPS
- YOUTH PROGRAMMING
- ADULT SOCIAL PROGRAMMING
- YOUNG PROFESSIONAL SOCIAL PROGRAMMING
- CHESED OPPORTUNITIES

We're thrilled that you're interested to learn more, and we invite you to get a snapshot of what YIOP is all about in the coming pages.

- Rabbi Shaya Katz

EXCITING GROWTH @ YIOP

*In the last 3 years, 56 Member
(Units) have joined YIOP
Of those, 19 are Young Professionals (under 40)

...including roughly 50 children under Bar & Bat Mitzvah!

Davening plays a vital role in our Avodat Hashem. With multiple minyanim a day, often in conjunction with Torah-learning, it forms the structure of our daily routine @ YIOP

Davening @ YIOP is meaningful but efficient. We aim to finish Shabbos morning in less than 2 hours, and we have a fleishig kiddush to follow every week (except on Pesach)

YOUNG ISRAEL OF OAK PARK

At YIOP, we use the Hebrew-English Artsroll Stone Chumash and Siddur, as well as the Koren Siddur
