Blessed are You, our God, who has created
Us to reflect
Your infinite splendor

For You have put eternity into our hearts,
The gift to see with the eye of memory,
And implanted within us a vision of life everlasting.

Rabbi Shira Milgrom

Life is precious. We should not defer to tomorrow, the love we can give or receive today. Yom Kippur and this Memorial booklet is a powerful reminder of the values and stories of our loved ones. We are blessed to have had our loved ones in our lives and to have been loved by them. All the love they shared with us is ours to keep, to nurture and to share with others.

Our Memorial booklet is not just a listing of names, it is a touchstone which enables us to remember the past and shape our future. What did our loved ones share with us in life? What do we remember of them? What values were important to them and have become important to us? What kind of strength and courage do we gain from the memories of our loved ones which help us achieve our goals and dreams?

While their passing leaves us sad because they are no longer here, their memories give us the strength to face the year to come. May their memories be a blessing to us always.

Rabbi Aaron Gaber
Malachi 3:16–18 says, “Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD gave attention and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the LORD and who esteem His name.

Remembrance of Names

Because our beloved departed have enshrined themselves deeply in our hearts—because their lives were a benediction to all of us—because through the nobility of their living and the quality of their character, they inspired us to live worthily and nobly—the dead, whose souls we commemorate today shall not glide swiftly into the depths of oblivion. We shall hold them long in cherished and consecrated memory.

We inscribe their names in this, our Memorial Book, as a token of our everlasting love and affection.

A Heritage of Memories

May the memories which we cherish
And lovingly now recall
Inspire us so to live
That we too may bequeath
A heritage of precious memories
To those whom we shall leave behind.

In tribute to our departed
May we enrich the lives we touch.
May we share and preserve the faith
Which our mourners will now affirm,
As they rise to sanctify God’s name
In the hallowed words of the Kaddish.
The Domain of Memory

Memory is a master artist,
painting indelible pictures
upon the mind's canvas.

Time piffers our years,
our hopes, even our griefs.

But it cannot cross the threshold
which leads to the domain of memory.

Here we resuscitate the past.

Here we gather once more
water lilies that died,
but have come to life again
in the pool of remembrance.

Alexander A. Steinback
If life is sensed as a surprise, as a gift, defying explanation, then death ceases to be a radical, absolute negation of what life stands for.

For both life and death are aspects of a greater mystery, the mystery of being, the mystery of creation. Over and above the preciousness of particular existence stands the marvel of its being related to the infinite mystery of being or creation.

Death, then, is not simply man's coming to an end. It is also entering a beginning.

Lord, what are we humans, that you have regard for us, Mere mortals, that You take account of us? We are like a breath, Our days are like a fleeting shadow.

Teach us to number our days, That we may attain a heart of wisdom. The Lord redeems the lives of God's servants; And those who trust in God shall not feel forsaken.

Biblical verses

Eternal God, in whose eyes a thousand years are but as yesterday, in whose hands are the souls of the living and the dead, in Your sight every soul is precious.

O Lord, from whom we come and to whom we return, strengthen us as we now remember our loved ones who have been reunited with You. Be with us as we consecrate this hour to the memory of our departed.

I have set the Lord before me always, God is at my right hand; I shall not fail.

Therefore my heart rejoices, my whole being exults, And my body rests secure.

(Psalm 16:8-9)

Though they are gone from us we are grateful for the blessings they brought and were to us. Now, by giving to others the love which our departed gave to us, we can partly repay the debt we owe them.

We are sustained and comforted by the thought that the goodness which they brought into our lives remains an enduring blessing which we can bequeath to our descendants.

We can still serve our departed by serving You. We can show our devotion to them by our devotion to those ideals which they cherished.

O God of Love, make us worthy of the love we have received by teaching us to love You with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our might, and to spread the light of Your divine love on all whose lives touch ours.

Give us strength to live honorably and, when our time comes, to die serenely, cheered by the confidence that You will not permit our lives to be wasted, but will bring all our worthy strivings to fulfillment.

Amen.

EYL MALEY RAHAMIM—Prayer for the departed:

Merciful God, who dwells on high and in our hearts, grant perfect peace to the souls of our dearly beloved who have gone to their eternal rest. Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

God makes me lie down in green pastures,

And leads me beside the still waters.

God revives my spirit-and guides me in paths of righteousness, for the sake of God's name.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for You are with me.

Your rod and Your staff comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my foes.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

We Remember Them, by Sylvan Kamens & Rabbi Jack Riemer

At the rising sun and at its going down; We remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter; We remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring; We remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer; We remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn; We remember them.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends; We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength; We remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart; We remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make; We remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share; We remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs; We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as We remember them.
