AIPAC ISRAEL UPDATE May 31, 2019After Netanyahu Fails to Form Government, Israel to Hold New Election

After Prime Minister Netanyahu failed to form a governing coalition by the deadline, the Knesset voted Wednesday night to dissolve itself and hold an election once again, just seven weeks after the previous one, Haaretz reported. Israelis will return to the polls on September 17, two weeks before Netanyahu's pre-indictment hearing on a series of corruption charges against him on October 2 and 3. Coalition negotiations had been in a deadlock, caused by friction between Yisrael Beiteinu Chairman Avigdor Lieberman and the Hassidic faction of ultra-Orthodox party United Torah Judaism. At the source is the draft bill Lieberman submitted last term, which would require yeshiva students, who are currently exempt from Israel's otherwise mandatory conscription, to draft to the Israeli military. Lieberman's condition for joining the coalition was that the draft law pass as-is, whereas UTJ would not join if the law was not amended. Netanyahu failed to mediate between them before the deadline given to him by the president, making it impossible for him to form a coalition.

- CBH Profiles by Nancy Strong

November 2016 is when the member interview column began in the CBH Shabbos notes. My intention was to have members get to know the person who sits near them in addition to saying 'Good Shabbos'. I thank the more than 60 members who have volunteered to become a branch on this tree. Thank you to those who have taken the time to read these interviews and share their constructive criticisms. At this time I'm looking for 10 volunteers to be interviewed if this column is to continue. Please don't volunteer anyone other than yourself. You can let me know of your availability at nstrong50@verizon.net. All interviews are face to face and take at most one hour. It's been my pleasure to write about you and share your story.
