AIPAC ISRAEL UPDATE January 4, 2019*Islamic Jihad Tells Iran: We Will Create Second Front in Any Israel-Lebanon War

The Iranian-backed Palestinian militant group Islamic Jihad has committed to spark an escalation on the southern front if Israel enters a military conflict with Lebanon's Hezbollah on the north, said the Palestinian faction's leader, Ziad Nakhala, in an interview to the state-owned Iranian TV channel Al-Alam. According to Ynetnews, Islamic Jihad is the second largest military organization in Gaza. Although the group normally works in coordination with Hamas, it has recently subjugated itself almost completely to Iran, despite being a Sunni organization, and was the one that initiated a round of fighting on the southern border last October. "In the next confrontation with the occupation, the axis of resistance will operate from the north in Lebanon to the south in Gaza," said Nakhala. The interview was conducted Saturday following a series of meetings between Nakhala and Islamic Republic's top officials, including Iranian Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, President Hassan Rouhani and Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif. Nakhala arrived in Tehran accompanied by the terror group's two senior officials, Khaled Al-Batsh and Mohammed al-Hindi.

Judy Shatz

Judy is truly a member who we can call our lifelong learner. Having earned a BS online from Drexel, Judy is currently working towards her MS online from Drexel in Professional Studies. Judy has a close connection to Drexel since she has worked here for 37 years as an office assistant in the Steinbright Career Development Center. She assists students in the Co-op program. Life began for Judy at Lankenau Hospital. Her education began at Lamberton in her Overbrook Park neighborhood. Judy's parents valued education and decided to pay her tuition by sending her to Haverford High. Mrs. Blum was one of Judy's memorable high school teachers because of the interesting projects in English class. Judy remembers her parents talking about the good old days of Overbrook Park when it was farm land. Judy's home has several chapters of history since a Shatz has dwelled in this house for more than 70 years. She is the youngest of 3 girls and currently lives in her family's home with her sister Lois. Judy remembers the good shopping experiences she had on Haverford Ave. when there were multiple shoe stores, Halpren's Children's Shop, Berk's 5 and Dime, and Richard's Pharmacy. Judy has traveled to Tennessee to visit Graceland, NYC and the shore. There was also a trip to Chicago to attend a wrestling show. Judy was a fan of Bruno Sammartino. Judy leaves the cooking to Lois, but occasionally she cooks great scrambled eggs. Her favorite foods include fried chicken, filet mignon, and any kind of pasta dish. Favorite desserts include anything chocolate or cake with a significant icing such as strawberry shortcake. Judy exercises by taking long walks. Is it a wonder that she can have her cake and eat it too? Red and blue are her favorite colors. Judy likes to listen to oldies-the Carpenters, Elvis, the Beatles and Elton John. Her favorite TV shows also ring with nostalgia- Andy Griffith, MASH, Wild Wild West and Wonder Woman. Judy enjoys reading about British history and American history during the period of the founding fathers. Locally, Judy enjoys visiting the Constitution Center, Old City Philly and the Jewish Museum. Any new year's resolutions? "Sure, to further my education and to de-clutter my home". We wish Judy much success with both these goals.
