פרשת וַיֵּצֵא תשפ"א

Dear Readers,

We hope that last week you enjoyed making your Family Tree and researching the source of your name, and also filling in the other Family Tree, with some of the members of Avraham's family.

Did you find your way to a well?

In this week's Parsha, we are reminded that Hashem is giving the Land of Israel to Yaakov and the generations after him and that these generations shall be as many as the dust of the earth, gaining strength westward, eastward, northward and southward. And through Yaakov shall be blessed, all the families of the earth.

Find Parsha words in this week's Word find and help Yaakov find the way to his Yeshivah. Also, enjoy Parsha themed Challah baking - maybe make 12 Bulkas: one for each of the 12 tribes.

Do you know which symbol represents which tribe? Which of Yaakov's children belong to which mother?

Remember to daven daily!

Keep posted for our Mega minibytes Chanukah edition-we are getting closer.....

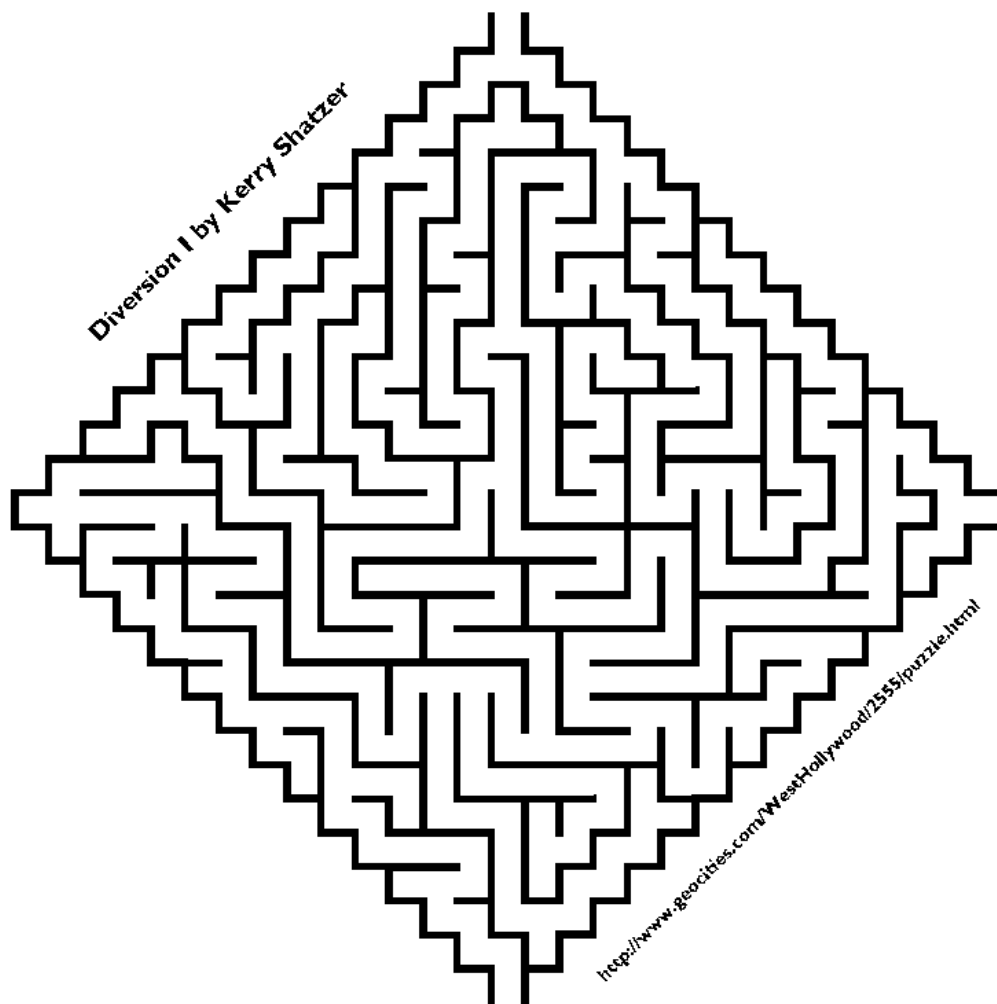

Shabbat Shalom

BAKE YAAKOV'S LADDER!

The Midrash tells us that Yaakov rested on 12 stones.
These 12 stones are like the 12 tribes.
Do you know the name of each tribe?
