FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

The Moral Foundation of Our World

How many times have you done something and then wondered why you did it? How many times have you done something knowing full well why you did it but were unwilling to admit to others why you did it? In the second scenario, were you able to come up with a feasible rationale for your behavior that had nothing to do with why you actually did it? (Have you given up on this article already? If so, please nevertheless stick with me for just a little while longer.)

I never believed that my intuition was stronger than my reasoning. It is the age-old dilemma of whether to follow your heart or your brain. If we choose to follow our heart for completely irrational reasons, we can usually come up with a reason for behaving that way. In The Righteous Mind, Jonathan Haidt refers to this phenomenon, stating, “[M]oral reasoning is sometimes a post hoc fabrication.” In this important book he lays out many approaches to looking at how we have developed as a society in general and the role individuals play in shaping the values and morals of any given society.

After a long discussion of whether morals are universal or particular to a specific culture and time, and after an even longer discussion about whether morals are something we are born with, i.e., the nativist’s approach, or whether they are learned, the empiricist’s approach, he gives us what he believes are the six morals that guide society. (If you are going to read this book and want to skip to this part, he lays it out beautifully on page 146.)

Simply put, and in far shorter form, here are the six morals that Haidt asserts are foundational to society. I have taken the liberty of selecting the Jewish language relating to each of the six.

1. Care/Harm

לֹא־תִקֹּם וְלֹא־תִטַּר אֶת־בְּנֵי עַמְּךָ וְאֶהְרַת לְרַעַךְ כְּמוֹךְ אֲנִי יְיָ:

You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against members of your people. Love your fellow [Israelite] as yourself: I am יהוה. (Leviticus 19:18)

When asked what is the essence of the Torah, Hillel reminded the potential student that “love your neighbor as yourself” is the foundation of our entire tradition; the rest is commentary. Until we learn to get along, to care for each other, conflict will continue to seize the day.

2. Fairness/Cheating

לֹא־תַעֲנֶה בְּרַעַךְ עֵד שָׁקֶר:

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. (Exodus 20:13)

The language we use has power. Lying is one of the great abuses of language. Trust is the basis of an honest and deep relationship, the kind of relationship that serves the greater good.

3. Loyalty/Betrayal

וַיֵּדַעְתָּ כִּי־יְהוָה אֱלֹהֶיךָ הוּא הָאֱלֹהִים הָאֵל הַנָּאֶמְן שְׁמֵר הַבְּרִית וְהַחֲסֵד
לְאַהֲבָיו וְלִשְׁמֵרֵי מִצְוֹתָי לְאֵלֶיךָ דָּוָר:

Know, therefore, that only your God יהוה is God, the steadfast God, who keeps the divine covenant faithfully to the thousandth generation of those who love [God] and keep the divine commandments, (Deuteronomy 7:9)

When we find ourselves connected to others, we recognize that sometimes we must trust them to make good decisions even if we disagree with them. Showing others that we stand by them, that we will not turn on them, strengthens the fabric of our connections to others.

4. Authority/Subversion

וַיֹּאמֶר שְׁמוּאֵל הִחֲפֹץ לַיהוָה בְּעֹלֹת וּזְבָחִים כְּשֹׁמֵעַ בְּקוֹל יְהוָה הֲנֵה
שֹׁמֵעַ מִזְבֵּחַ טוֹב לְהִקְשִׁיב מִחֲלֵב אֵילִים:

But Samuel said: “Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obedience to the LORD’s command? Surely, obedience is better than sacrifice, compliance than the fat of rams. (I Samuel 15:22)

Recognizing that there is a force greater than we is one of the core elements in Alcoholics Anonymous and found in one of the great conundrums of our tradition. We have control, free will, but we also understand the role God plays in our lives. “The beginning of wisdom is awe of the God.”(Proverbs 9:10)

5. Sanctity/Degradation

וְקָרָא זֶה אֶל־זֶה וְאָמַר קְדוֹשׁ א קְדוֹשׁ קְדוֹשׁ יְהוָה צְבָאוֹת מְלֵא כָל־הָאָרֶץ כְּבוֹדוֹ:

And one would call to the other, “Holy, holy, holy! The LORD of Hosts! His presence fills all the earth!” (Isaiah 6:3)

Everyone divides up the world. Good and bad. Clean and dirty. Pure and impure. We do it with objects and we do it with people and, for the more enlightened, we do it with behavior. We know people whom we think of as angels and those whom we believe to be demons.

6. Liberty/Oppression

וְקִדַּשְׁתֶּם אֶת שַׁבַּת הַחֲמִשִּׁים שָׁנָה וְקִרְאתֶם דְּרוֹר בְּאָרֶץ לְכָל־נַפְשָׁהּ
יִגְדַּל הוּא תְהִיָּה לָכֶם וְשַׁבְתֶּם אִישׁ אֶל־אֶחָדָתוֹ וְאִישׁ אֶל־מִשְׁפַּחְתּוֹ
תִּשְׁבּוּ:

And you shall hallow the fiftieth year. You shall proclaim liberty throughout the land for all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you; each of you shall return to your holding and each of you shall return to your family. (Leviticus 25:10)

It is written on the Liberty Bell and may very well be the idea that instigated the founding of America. “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.”

The difficulty of this list is not who came up with the list (though I think you know where I stand on this). The trickiness of this list is not in deciding whether it is comprehensive or would you add other items to it. The challenge is to live lives of integrity, lives that better our world.

CANTOR

I am not really a morning person. I love sleep too much. When my alarm goes off in the morning, all I want to do is stay in bed, just another 15 minutes...30 minutes...an hour. Every week, after Kiddush on Shabbat, I go home and take a long nap, sometimes for three or four hours.

Yet when I do get up early, I am always glad that I did. I like the cool, crisp air of the morning, the rituals of getting up, making coffee and starting the day, and the feeling of possibility that the morning brings. As it says in Psalm 30, ba-erev yalin bechi v'laboker rinah - one may lie down crying at night, but wake in the morning with joyful song.

The morning prayers of Shabbat are also my favorite. I enjoy the prayers of pesukei d'zimra and shaharit, when we prepare ourselves to pray, and warm up our voices and our souls. We need to get ready as we move towards the Amidah, the central prayer of the service, when we speak to God personally (or use the time for silent contemplation).

One prayer that always stands out for me is El Adon, which is part of the Yotzer Or blessing, the first blessing before the Shema. El Adon literally means “God, the Master” and is an ancient pilyut (liturgical poem) believed to have been written between the second and fourth centuries in Israel. It is one of the oldest prayers that we still use today. It is an homage to God for creating the celestial bodies - the sun, moon and stars. Its third paragraph reads:

Mishpacha Service

For Families with Children Who are 6 and Younger

Saturday, January 28th @ 10:30 AM
(please note date change!)

Let's celebrate Tu B'Shevat, the birthday of the trees!

Saturday, February 11th @ 10:30 AM

Come celebrate Shabbat and learn about our Torah.

We unroll the torah to see what it looks like inside.

Each child will make an edible Torah!

CANTOR cont'd from pg. 3

How good are the lights that our God created -
Fashioned with understanding, intelligence and insight;
Endowed with the strength and power
To have dominion over earthly realms

Fully luminous, they gleam brightly radiating splendor throughout the world
Happy as they go forth, joyous on their return, they accomplish, with awe, the will of their creator

The heavenly lights not only do the will of their Creator, but they also offer praise and glorify God through song and through the shining of their light.

Like Ashrei, El Adon is an alphabetic acrostic, with the beginning letter of each line moving from Alef to Tav. It is attributed to a group of ancient Jewish mystics, who predated Kabbalah by 500 years. They are known as the yordei merkavah, the riders on the chariot. The focus of this group, which are also the major themes of El Adon, are the story of creation, and the story of Ezekiel's vision of God's chariot, carried in the air by four celestial beings.

According to Rabbi Jeffrey Hoffman, a professor of liturgy at Hebrew Union College, "El Adon is the reaction of a poetic soul to the daily rising of the sun, extolling God's creative power, and celebrating the heavenly lights and angels". What I like most about El Adon is the beautiful poetry and depth of the words. They paint a vivid picture of the divine order of the universe, personifying the sun, moon and stars so that we can imagine them almost as human beings, praising God just as we do when we pray.

PRESIDENT' MESSAGE

At the end of October, Leslie and I went on a vacation with five other couples to Hawaii. We did the typical stuff....going to Pearl Harbor, walking up the Diamond Head crater, visiting the Polynesian Cultural Center and Road to Hanna and, above all, relaxing on the beautiful beaches on Maui. The other couples with whom we went were all friends we had met at GHC. If it were not for GHC, the conduit for us meeting these people, we may have gone to Hawaii all by ourselves. How boring! Not to mention, GHC was hardly even brought up on this vacation. We just enjoyed the location and basked in our friendship. This was at least the fifth trip we have taken together and to say that we still like each other would be an understatement!

Leslie and I are quite fortunate to have the friends whom we have met at of GHC. We actually have two completely separate groups of close friends that originated there. Our first group of friends developed when our children were around the same ages and went through either the Early Childhood Center or Religious School together. For various reasons, that group no longer belongs to GHC. When they all left, we were faced with the choice of staying to ourselves, or opening ourselves up to meeting new people. How lucky we were (or should I say are), that we developed friendships with a completely new set of friends. Regardless of the group, we have not only enjoyed Simchas together, but also comforted each other in sad times.

Meeting people and socially bonding does not come automatically. Unfortunately, sometimes you need to work on it. For those who do know us, some of you may or may not believe this, but Leslie has always been more outgoing than I. There is no question that at the beginning of our relationship with GHC, she was the one who reached out to many people. I was left with no choice but to join in, and, honestly, eventually I felt comfortable and it has been an extremely rewarding and positive life experience ever since. I do not know how you feel. However, I implore you, wherever you are in your association with GHC, try stepping out of that box and get more involved. It will take some time and effort, but I assure you, you will meet others who will become your good, if not best, friends, just as Leslie and I did.

Keep smiling and, as winter approaches, be careful!

Jeff Liss, President

DEADLINE: JANUARY 20, 2023

OUR SCHOOLS

Our doors are open, our kids are smiling, and we are growing! As our schools continue to expand, we are always looking for new partners to bring their expertise, personal experience, and joy to our religious school and ECC!

Does your family have a story it would like to share about its Jewish journey or history? Do you have a connection to Israel about which you would like to tell our students? Do you have a special talent or skill to share? A favorite, easy, family recipe that you would like to make with our students one day? Our students do mitzvah projects all the time. Do you work in a non-profit or Jewish organization?

Our schools have already partnered with many people and groups within GHC – our Sisterhood; Green Team; Social Action & Tikkun Olam; Adult Education and Cultural Affairs; and, Caring Community Committees; as well as with groups outside GHC, like Midnight Run; PJ Library; Young Judea Sprout Westchester; and, others.

We appreciate your ideas for programming, as well as your time, as little or as much as you can spare! We will take care of logistics, supplies, communication with families, teacher supervision, etc. You simply show up (whether in person or over Zoom) to have fun and leave our students with a meaningful, fun, Jewish experience. We each have a place at GHC, and we would love to have one of your places be in our schools. Please contact me to chat about any ideas you have!

Our ECC is bustling, and we are happy to announce that registration for 2023-2024 is now open! The application can be emailed; we may also put it on our website. Even before our official registration period began, we had new families signing up! Please keep telling your neighbors and friends about our Early Childhood Center at GHC! As our three-year-olds say, it is the most fun place to build, paint, play, eat and have fun!

Warmly,
Amy

CARING COMMUNITY

Whether you are new to GHC or have been a member for a long time, there are probably some people you know better than others, and some people you do not know at all. You may have times when you're super busy, times when you are busy but could help out with something that does not take much time, and times when you would really welcome an opportunity to do something new or worthwhile. All of the above describes me. If it describes you too, I hope you will join me in being a Caring Community volunteer.

Different people participate in GHC's Caring Community in different ways. The way that I participate is mostly by being on the list of Caring Community volunteers and responding from time to time when our wonderful chairperson, Sheila Greenwald, sends out an email explaining a need and asking for someone to help with it.

Most of the time when I am helping, it is by bringing someone a soup and challah. When someone in the GHC community experiences the death of a loved one, the Caring Community is there to provide support in several different ways. I volunteer in the weeks after the Shiva period is over. We want people to know that we are still thinking of them and still here for them as their mourning process continues.

Sheila sends an email telling the volunteers the identity of the bereaved, where the person lives, and asking for someone to bring that person a soup and challah. When I can do it, I email Sheila back and let her know. If someone else has not already offered to do it, Sheila gives me the bereaved's contact information, and I call. I explain who I am, that I am calling for the GHC Caring Community and why, offer condolences, and offer to bring them a soup and challah. If they accept, we agree on a time that works

CARING COMMUNITY cont'd from pg. 7

Scarsdale (and am later reimbursed by GHC, from donations to the Caring Community), put them in a gift bag with a card from the Caring Community, and bring it to the person.

Sometimes when I bring someone a soup and challah, our interaction is short. The person thanks me, I offer my condolences personally on behalf of GHC and leave, knowing that I have helped by showing our community's ongoing support and sympathy.

Other times, the person invites me into his or her home, and we sit and talk for a bit. It does not have to be someone whom I knew well before. In fact, it is usually someone whose home I have never been to before. When we are sitting and talking, I get to know the person better. Even though the occasion for our conversation is sad, it feels good to be making this kind of connection, getting to know another member of our community.

I hope you will join me in doing this, or in volunteering in some other way, as a member of GHC's Caring Community. To me, it is our human connections with one another that make GHC so special. To get started, all you need to do is email Sheila Greenwald, sheilagreenwald.sg@gmail.com

GREEN TEAM

The Green Team has a busy calendar !

In October, we hosted a very successful Reverse Tashlich (clean up) on the South County Trailway, next to the Saw Mill River. This was done in cooperation with Groundwork Hudson Valley/Saw Mill River Coalition. Approximately 30 people were in attendance, including Rabbi Stein and Religious School Director Amy Kessler. There was a lot of enthusiasm for being outside and doing something related to the Earth and linking it to Judaism. We are looking forward to making other connections and creating outdoor programming for the Spring.

On January 28th, we will sponsor a Finish Strong with Rabbinic Intern Sara Birnbaum. This will precede Green Shabbat by one week, which will take place on February 4th. The Green Team is looking for participants and volunteers for Green Shabbat, including Torah readers. Please get in touch with Green Team chair Enid Lotstein at Greening@ghcnyc.org.

The Green Team is always looking for ideas and partners to join us on individual and larger projects. Consider joining us for a meeting.

Enid Lotstein PhD, Greening@ghcnyc.org

DELICIOUS KNISHES!

SUNDAY, JANUARY 22, 2 pm

JOIN SISTERHOOD AT GHC TO LEARN HOW TO CREATE A DELICIOUS KNISH!

All are welcome to join this in-person, hands-on workshop and learn how to prepare delicious knishes. The class will be led by local Chef Kate Sonders Solomon who is known throughout Westchester for her creative cooking classes. All ingredients will be supplied, just bring your enthusiasm and your appetite for a knish!

Cost: TBD (check GHC News for updates)

RSVP by Sunday, Jan. 15 to Allyn at Sisterhood@ghcnv.org

Sisterhood GHC is a member of Women's League for Conservative Judaism

Soak the chickpeas: Place the chickpeas in a bowl, cover with 4 inches of water, cover and soak on the counter for 10 to 12 hours, in the refrigerator for 24 hours. Drain and rinse the chickpeas.

Make the stew: In a medium saucepan, keep the broth at a simmer, covered, over very low heat until ready to use. In a large (6- or 8-quart), wide-bottomed soup pot with a tight-fitting lid, heat the grapeseed oil over medium heat. Add the carrots and onions and cook, turning occasionally, until the outer parts of the carrots and the onions caramelize, 6 minutes total. Add the celery root and celery and cook until the vegetables soften, 5 minutes. Add the chickpeas, stir in the brown sugar, cover and cook until the vegetables release liquid, 5 minutes. While the vegetables cook, tie the dill, parsley, and cilantro into a bundle with kitchen twine.

Stir in the paprika, salt, pepper, cinnamon, mace and turmeric. Cook for 1 minute. Add the tomato paste and cook, stirring, until absorbed, 2 minutes. Add the pumpkin, zucchini and herb bundle. Add 3 cups of the simmering broth just to cover. Bring to a boil over medium high heat, reduce the heat to a medium-low, cover and simmer until the vegetables soften slightly, 15 minutes.

Uncover, then add the rest of the broth to the pot. Nestle the cabbage, tomatoes and potatoes into the pot; return to a vigorous boil; reduce the heat to a simmer again; cover; and cook until the potatoes are tender, 40 minutes.

While the soup is cooking, make the couscous. To serve, remove and discard the herb bundle, mound the couscous into bowls, and top with some of the vegetables and broth.

CEMETERY PLOTS

For GHC Members: Seven Cemetery Plots for Sale in Sharon Gardens

I am pleased to be organizing a lottery for GHC Members to allocate seven plots in the GHC section of Sharon Gardens.

Please read carefully the following two descriptions on availability:

Four plots are available in the GHC section. This means that you will be surrounded by people who were at one time members of GHC.

Two plots will be sold together, for a couple. Depending on the requests received, the other two will either be sold separately or together.

Three plots are available in an unaffiliated section of Sharon Gardens. It is a very nice area of the cemetery, but you will be buried in a section of Jews not affiliated with GHC or any other synagogue.

The sale price for each will be $1,800 per grave. As the deed holder, you or your family member will be entitled to put up a footstone, but not a headstone.

To participate in the lottery, please contact me:

Bruce Segall, GHC Cemetery Chair
bruce.segall@gmail.com (914) 980-4703 (Cell)

Please indicate whether you would like a plot of two, a single plot, in either the group of four or the group of three or the group of four only.

Thank you for your patience, as we continue to have very limited availability. Do not hesitate to contact me if you have questions.

SAVE THE DATES FOR THESE UPCOMING SPECIAL EVENTS

PURIM CARNIVAL: SUNDAY, MARCH 5, 10:30 AM

Yes, GHC's amazing carnival (the best carnival West of Shushan!) is back and we're so excited!!!! Get ready for games, fun food, entertainment, bouncy castle and slide, prizes, costumes and fun galore! For additional information, or to volunteer, please contact Leslie at VPMembership@ghcny.org or Robin at ExecVP@ghcny.org

JOURNAL EVENT HONORING OUTGOING PRESIDENT JEFF LISS: SUNDAY, MAY 21, 6:00 PM, AT GHC

It is no joke that Jeff Liss has done an outstanding job as GHC President! Join your GHC friends and guests to honor Jeff for his many contributions to GHC these past 2 years! We will be soliciting ads for the Journal, so start thinking now of advertisers and supporters for this special Journal. The Journal is GHC's biggest, most important fundraiser. The celebration on May 21 will include a delicious dinner, some entertainment and a chance to socialize with other GHCers, and probably some jokes! For additional information or to volunteer, please contact David Luftig at VPFundraising@ghcny.org.

MEMBERSHIP

Friends are the family you choose

Choose the GHC family. We are here to celebrate your simchas and triumphs. We are here to support you through difficult times. We are here on ordinary days. Like all families, we laugh, cry, become angry and forgive. We need you and I suspect that you need us. Recently, after attending a Bar Mitzvah, a member commented on how wonderful our Shabbat service is. He is right, our service is joyful, warm and continually changing. Each week, Rabbi and Cantor bring us insight, new tunes, and thoughts to ponder. Join us for Hawaiian Shabbat on January 7th and Simcha Shabbat on February 25th !

Each week, our students in both the Early Childhood Center and Religious School learn, laugh, sing and make new discoveries. Some of you may be thinking: "I do not care about services and my kids graduated long ago. What does GHC have for me?" I am glad you asked!!! Do you like to eat? (Who does not?) We had a fabulous Hanukkah Dinner! Read all about it further in this article. We will have the Superbowl Shabbat Dinner on February 4th! Do you like to learn and make new discoveries? Rabbi Stein leads many interesting classes. Check out the class, "In the Beginning" in which we have learned that the stories about our ancestors are much more interesting than we were taught as children. There is sex, adultery, lying, marital triumphs and betrayals, sibling rivalry and more! Are you a member of the "sandwiched generation", with an elderly parent? Join us for "Whine and Wine" (As I said, we share our difficult challenges.) Are you an avid reader who enjoys discussing books? Join our Book Club. In November, many of us spent a fun Sunday morning learning Israeli dancing. If there is an interest, we will bring the teacher back for another fun day. What interests do you have? Tell Rabbi, Jeff, Robin, Amy or me and we will see if we can plan an activity around your interests.

Our Hanukkah Dinner was a huge success!!! On December 11th, 140 people filled our synagogue with enthusiasm, laughter and creativity! Cantor and her students entertained us with joyful songs. Rabbi taught us about lighting the Hanukkiyah. Thank you to our students and faculty who made our colorful centerpieces and decorations. The delicious dinner was catered by Epstein's Deli in Hartsdale. Adults and kids enjoyed the many games, including Knock Hockey, Giant Checkers, Jenga and Ping Pong. We had creative dreidels made by Keren Sheinberg, Benjamin Wolkoff, Lara Gofshteyn and Eitan Gofshteyn. Laughter could be heard as folks took selfies at the photo booth. The highlight of the evening was the menorah Building. Using recycled materials, clever artisans made unique Menorahs!

Creations included a unicorn Menorah, a tubular Menorah, a bottle cap Menorah, a Menorah made from bottles and a cardboard sculpture, with flames at the top. The masterpieces will be on display through Hanukkah and perhaps a few weeks later. Thank you to all who helped with planning, buying, schlepping, creating, and serving. You all brought joy to GHC and proved that we are one big family.

Leslie Liss

BAR MITZVAH

Henry Kozlowski
Vaera

Henry entered the world on January 12th, 2010. Since he was an infant, he has always marched to the beat of his own drummer. Anyone who knows him can attest to his humor, questioning spirit and (often surprising) knowledge of random facts. Although his teachers often state that he is rarely easy, at the same time they all praise his desire to learn and the way he really thinks about what he is taught rather than just accepting it on blind faith.

Henry is currently a 7th grader. Since beginning middle school, he has really begun to shine and he is very proud of making the honor roll for the past year and a half. He has an 11 year-old sister, with whom he gets along on rare occasions. He enjoys playing Dungeons and Dragons, football and video games.

Henry has always shown an affinity for animals, especially cats of which he has three: Bowzer, Skittles and Delilah. For his Mitzvah project, he is planning to volunteer at Paws Crossed Animal Rescue, where he is hopeful he will be able to make a difference in the lives of animals waiting for their permanent homes. Being able to cuddle with as many cats as possible is just a happy bonus.

The family invites the entire congregation to share in their Simcha and the Kiddush following services on January 21, 2023.

ZAIDA AT GHC SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 10 am

Meet film documentarian Sophie Parens in-person at GHC and view Sophie's acclaimed, award-winning documentary ZAIDA!

Zaida tells the story of Sophie's grandfather Henri Parens who escaped from the Holocaust at the age of 12 and went on to become a globally recognized psychoanalyst, dedicating his life's work to the prevention of prejudice. Zaida has been shown at the Museum of Jewish Heritage in NYC, the 2022 Jacob Burns Jewish Film Festival and other prestigious film festivals around the country.

After the showing of the documentary Sophie will be leading a discussion and Q&A session. The documentary (approximately ½ hour long) and Q&A will be able to be viewed virtually as well. Check GHC News closer to the event for the Zoom link.

A light breakfast will be provided.
Cost: $10/person

RSVP by Wednesday, February 8 to Allyn at Sisterhood@ghcnyc.org

Social Action/Tikkun Olam (SATO) THE MIDNIGHT RUN

The MIDNIGHT RUN is supported by a group of synagogues, churches, and schools that provide food and clothing to the street homeless in New York City. Members of our synagogue have been involved with this project for nearly twenty years through our Social Action/Tikkun Olam (SATO) Committee.

Volunteers are needed for a variety of activities and would not be expected to work for each run. GHC schedules a MIDNIGHT RUN once each month and it is an excellent opportunity for members to get involved. This is truly a project that is significant to members of all ages. Our nursery and religious school aged children have been involved in preparing the sandwich bags. Our post B'nai Mitzvah students have joined the adult members of the congregation on actual trips into the city to distribute the food and clothing to the street homeless. Our seniors have been instrumental in providing soup and sandwich bags necessary for the run.

If you have not taken advantage of this important social action opportunity to become involved in the MIDNIGHT RUN, do so now.

If you would like more information about this worthwhile project, please contact Adam Bass via email at: adamjoelbass@gmail.com

If you would like to participate, please check one or more services below and mail the form below to:

SISTERHOOD

Happy 2023 to all! 2022 was a busy year for Sisterhood and 2023 promises to be just as busy. We were so pleased that we were able to return to in-person events and to bring people together to socialize, learn, feel inspired, have fun and develop friendships.

Speaking of fun, on Sunday, November 13, Sisterhood, Membership and Adult Ed/Cultural Affairs joined together to hold an Israeli Folk Dancing Class with experienced (and patient!) instructor Leng Tan. Leng's passion for Israeli Folk Dancing showed through and the class, which numbered over 30, adults, along with Religious School students, finished with huge enthusiasm for Israeli Folk Dancing, and a desire to learn more at additional classes we may have in the future.

On Sunday, December 5, we held our annual Sisterhood Hanukkah Mini-Mart, which was tremendously successful. In keeping with our tagline, SHOP GHC FOR EVERYTHING HANUKKAH, we brought in a wide variety of Hanukkah items - traditional, decorative, crafts and novelty. Thank you to all the adults and children who stopped by our pop-up shop in the GHC atrium (wonderful to bring it indoors again!) and purchased Hanukkah items for themselves and others. Appreciation goes to Arlene Krawitz, Enid Lotstein, Robin Rosenberg, Nancy Sklar and Sharon Weiss for all their help in setting up and running the Mini-Mart.

We never get tired of celebrating Hanukkah! On Monday, December 19, Sisterhood held a Hanukkah event with a yummy dinner of Israeli food and latkes, candle lighting and singing with Cantor May. Included was a mitzvah project we worked on together, which will be donated to a nursing/rehab center to help brighten the days of the residents there. It is always such a pleasure to get together in person with old friends and new ones and to socialize with one another.

Who does not like a delicious knish? On Sunday, January 22, at 2PM, we will be holding a knish baking class at GHC with our wonderful local Chef, Kate Solomon. In this class you will learn how to bake your own knishes right in your kitchen. More details to follow in GHC News.

On Sunday, February 12, at 10AM, we will have a showing at GHC of the award-winning documentary ZAIDA by Sophie Parens, about the life of her grandfather, Henri Parens. Henri Parens escaped from the Holocaust at the age of 12 and went on to become a globally recognized psychoanalyst dedicated to the prevention of prejudice. ZAIDA has been shown at the Museum of Jewish Heritage in NYC, at the Jacob Burns Jewish Film Festival and at other film festivals around the country. Sophie Parens who is a Westchester resident, will be attending in person to lead a discussion and Q&A about her documentary. A Zoom link will be set up for those who cannot attend in person.

Believe it or not, Purim is coming up soon and the GHC Shalach Manot drive is beginning! Look for information about Shalach Manot in GHC News or on the GHC website. Sisterhood's Shalach Manot bags are full of nut-free treats, including hamantaschen. And, once again we will taking requests, in advance, for a gluten-free Shalach Manot bag. Just send an e-mail to me at Sisterhood@ghcny.org and let me know if you want your items to be gluten-free. Please support the Shalach Manot program and GHC by becoming a sponsor and donating at the level that works best for you. The deadline for sending in your order form is February 23. You will be able to pick up your bag at GHC on Sunday, March 5, from 10:00AM to 1:00PM or at the Megilah reading, on Monday, March 6.

If you have not already purchased your 2023 Mah Jongg cards, please do so as the deadline for making your purchase is January 20. Prices are $14 for a regular-type size card and $15 for the large-type card. GHC benefits from the sale. Please note that the prices are set by the National Mah Jongg League, not Sisterhood. Order as many cards as you choose, for yourself and/or for your Mah Jongg group. Or you may even use your card to play Mah Jongg on the website www.realmahjongg.com, which enables you to play online against the computer, your friends or other members of an online group. Your 2023 cards can be ordered from Iris Sherman by e-mailing mahjonggcard@ghcny.org or going to the Mah Jongg page on the GHC website www.ghcny.org/mahjongg. Payments can be made either by mailing a check to the Synagogue, payable to Sisterhood GHC, or with a credit card on the www.ghcny.org website.

Wishing you all a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year 2023!

Allyn Salpeter, Sisterhood GHC President

Dear Greenburgh Hebrew Center,

For many years, your congregation has shown continuous generosity towards our school community. We are a community where many families deal with food insecurity and many other deficiencies. In this post-pandemic world, our families lack more basic needs than ever. I am so thankful to be partnered with such a caring group of individuals like you. Your Thanksgiving contributions allowed us to provide food for 23 families helping close to 100 people enjoy a delicious meal.

Thank you again for your support!

Sincerely,

Mark Ametrano
