High Holy Days 5782

New Machzor

Beginning on S'lichot (Saturday August 28) this year, we are pleased to introduce to our Beth El community the machzor (High Holy Day prayerbook) of the Reform Movement, Mishkan HaNefesh. These beautiful books will feel familiar to those of us who have enjoyed using Congregation Beth El's draft Machzor Ha-Makom in recent years, including both the layout and some of the beloved English readings to which we have grown accustomed. And of course we will also grapple with the mixed feelings that come with something new. We hope you will consider joining our Beth El clergy in exploring the new machzorim in the weeks leading up to Rosh Hashanah; see a full list of our Elul offerings here. For those joining us on Zoom for the High Holy Days we will be sharing digital copies of the liturgy for use during each service. If you will be joining us remotely and wish to order your own copy of the the new machzorim you may do so directly through the CCAR Press website. Kindle users are invited to download the machzorim to your Kindle app for use either in the sanctuary in person or remotely. (Note that the user experience on the Kindle app used on a tablet may be better than on a Kindle device.)

You are invited to keep your copy of Beth El's draft Machzor Ha-Makom, or to return it to the synagogue front office during business hours Monday-Friday, at your convenience.
