B'nai Mitzvah Overview

B'nai Mitzvah dates are handled by the Rabbi's Administrative Assistant, Kevin Warren. The B'nai Mitzvah tutoring is arranged by Arnie Rotenberg, the Director of Congregational Jewish Living. All financial matters are managed by Josh Cooper-Ginsburg, Director of Administration and Operations.

During the year preceding the Bar/Bat/B Mitzvah, students and their families are asked to attend the Path to Bar/Bat/B-Mitzvah sessions where they receive important information about the B'nai Mitzvah process as well as helping each child connect to stories, prayers, and ritual objects from another time—to find their place in the chain of tradition. Alongside honoring the past, a new story unfolds. The journey is both wonderful and challenging.

On Sunday mornings during Gates Quest, seventh grade students learn the prayers associated with Friday evening and Saturday morning services. B'nai Mitzvah tutoring begins approximately 4-6 months prior to the Bar/Bat/B/ Mitzvah date where they will learn their Torah and Haftarah portion and continue to practice the prayers. Six weeks prior to the date, the student and family meet with the Rabbi and work on their D'var Torah or speech.

The family and photographer will have access to the sanctuary at 9:00 am for flash photos. BAR/BAT/B MITZVAH USHERING INSTRUCTIONS

We are pleased to learn that you have accepted the honor of being an usher at this Sabbath morning service. You have the responsibility of representing both the host family and Congregation Gates of Heaven, as you welcome worshipers to our synagogue.

Kindly plan to arrive by 10:15 am and join the other ushers inside the main Sanctuary doors (leave the doors closed). You will hand out copies of the Bible at the Sanctuary entrance. Please do not open the doors to the Sanctuary until you are prepared and instructed to do so by the Rabbi, usually at 10:30 am

When you open the doors, please invite the people in the lobby to enter and take their seats. Service pamphlets are in a basket at the door. Each person should receive one along with a copy of the Bible upon entering.

The service begins promptly at 10:45 am. Please follow the service in the prayer book, found in the pews, and as latecomers arrive, inform them of the correct page.

If people arrive with young children, please direct them to sit on the right side of the aisle, near a door. If a child becomes noisy or unruly, you will need to inform the parent(s) that the child should be taken into the lobby, to avoid disturbing the service. Please tell the parent(s) that the Service can be heard through the speakers in the lobby, so that they can remove the child and keep up with the service.

By 11:15 am. Most of the latecomers should have arrived, and you can sit with the congregation. If you do notice any newcomers, please provide them with a copy of the Bible. If anyone arrives after the Torah service, they won't need the Bible in their pew. (Also, continue to be "on duty" in case of disruptive children.)

On behalf of the congregation, thank you for your participation in enabling us to worship together.

Sincerely yours,

The Congregation Gates of Heaven Ritual Committee
