

LEGACY STORYTELLING WORKSHOP
Sponsored by Life & Legacy Society

Every person has a story - and that story matters! Sharing our stories with our families and others around us can be a powerful way to discover what matters most to us, to share who we are, and to encourage others in their own lives.

Our sukkah has open walls and open doors, and this encourages us to welcome as many people as we can. We invite family, friends, neighbors, and community to rejoice, eat, and share what we have with each other. If there were no barriers of distance or time, who would you invite into your sukkah?

Join us for a Legacy Storytelling workshop facilitated by Kat Koppett on Thursday, September 23 from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm, (in person or virtually) as we begin to discover the stories of who we are and who has helped guide us on our Jewish journey. Please RSVP to Paula at lifeandlegacy@cgoh.org.

Temple member, Kat Koppett is the founder of Koppett, a consulting and training company specializing in the use of improvisation and storytelling to enhance individual and group performance, and the co-director of The Mopco Improv Theatre. Her book Training to Imagine: Practical Improvisational Theatre Techniques to Enhance Creativity, Teamwork, Leadership and Learning was published in 2001 by Stylus Publishing, Inc.