

Jews, God, and History (Not Necessarily in That Order)

Congregation Gates of Heaven Brotherhood is pleased to sponsor Jews, God, and History (Not Necessarily in That Order), a one-man, virtual show, via Zoom on Saturday, November 6 at 7:00 pm.

This performance is written and performed by Michael Takiff and directed by Tony nominee Brian Lane Green. Takiff is a writer, actor, comedian, singer, dancer, and historian who is known for his intelligent, original material and his theatrical presentation. For a trailer describing this show click here: <https://youtu.be/W5-fGF4hhaQ>

Religions date back to the Bronze Age, before science taught us that the reality of the universe doesn't match the stories told by the Bible. Yet we still practice the religions of our ancestors. How and why do we live with our traditions in the modern age?

Through comedy and drama, the show explores the big questions asked by people of all origins and beliefs: about God, spirituality, faith, reason, heritage, modernity. Aimed at mature audiences, Jews, God, and History is described as reverent and irreverent, comforting and maddening, funny and serious, epic and intimate; and perhaps unlike any show we've seen before.

Jews, God, and History is a 2-hour performance, including an intermission. Mr. Takiff will also take questions after the performance.

CGOH Brotherhood members will be sent an email with a Zoom link for use with their family; No registration is required.

All other Temple families can register to receive a complimentary Zoom link for an $8.00 donation to Brotherhood, Congregation Gates of Heaven. Click here to REGISTER or call the temple office at 518-374-8173.

We hope you will join us on Saturday, November 6, at 7:00 pm!
