

Our legacy donors are dedicated and committed individuals, just like you, who want to ensure the continued vitality and vibrancy of Jewish life far into the future. They have benefitted from the fruits planted by the generations who came before and are willing to sow seeds for the future generations by affirming that our congregation always will be a special place that empowers Jewish families to live and interact in a warm and welcoming manner. Please join us as we build on our past by looking forward to the future. - validating and empowering each soul who enters through the Gates of Heaven as he or she engages in the heart of Jewish life.
