FROM THE PRESIDENT Clare Rosen

The High Holidays are coming very soon! Erev Rosh Hashanah is Monday evening, September 6th.

This past year has challenged most of us in profound ways. Many Jews take time during the current month of Elul, the Hebrew month preceding Rosh Hashanah, to reflect and evaluate themselves in preparation for the High Holidays.

We continue this self-reflection on Rosh Hashanah by asking ourselves several questions as we look back at the past year's events. Have we adapted, changed, grown, or got stuck? Would we have changed anything if we had a do-over? What will we look like or become over the next year?

These are private self-reflections, yet sharing your reflections on your relationship with CSI can help us do better in the New Year, 5782.

As we all search our hearts in personal ways, my hope is that we as a congregation will grow close together in the New Year.

L'shana tova,

CSI Community Organic Farm

Regenerative Agriculture Rooted in Jewish Tradition

This has been a very busy month for the farm team as veggies and fruit go from baby plants to full harvesting. Where does all the food go?

Our farm stand is open (typically Tuesdays - watch email for days and times) and the produce could not be fresher. Sweet Grass restaurant in Tarrytown has been a big purchaser of our produce so please be sure and check out their menu. We are continuing our tradition of donating loads of produce to local food banks in Ossining as well.

There are a few people that we need to acknowledge for their super efforts in keeping the farm functioning, productive, clean and safe...

First and foremost, our farm manager, David Levitt. He has done an outstanding job managing the various tasks and is an excellent problem solver as new challenges arise. It seems like every other day there is something (large or small) surprising that happens at the farm. His attention to detail and his commitment are obvious when you tour the fields. Bravo David!

John Chambal, who very creatively and quickly moves all of our harvest - either into sales to local restaurants or into yummy recipes of his own - all available for sale at the farm stand. His aesthetic sense allows for an appetizing display of our products and professionally boxed deliveries to the local chefs. This includes beautiful fresh flower arrangements. Excellent!

Westchester Tree Life has been generous over the years helping to keep us safe as we enjoy the farm space under the canopy of mature oak trees. They have supplied us with loads and loads (unlimited) of wood chips and various machinery to split logs and spread the chips - all donated. Thank you to Bill Davies and Co.!!

Aaron Stern and Sons have been attending the grape vines with diligence and detail. They have lately been trying various schemes to net and protect the 2021 batch of ripening grapes from the birds. I know they would welcome some volunteer help, so please reach out to Aaron if you can lend him a hand (typically on Sunday mornings). sternab@aol.com

Jill Greenstein has been the face of the Community Garden from the beginning of our farming venture. She humbly manages a lovely farm in her own backyard and is always happy to share knowledge gleaned from her years of growing experience. Any questions: jillgreenstein9@gmail.com Thank you Jill!!

Fred and Lois Schulman have never stopped supporting and believing in this tremendous project that makes our synagogue unique and helps us stand out and unique in the greater New York area (and beyond?). They are always ready to listen and advise, help out with the many hare-brained schemes that we might dream up....even offering some of their own alternative ideas to challenge us to be better and more inclusive. Yasher Koach Fred and Lois and todah rabah.

..... and about the wine.....

56 gallons of wine (over 200 bottles) were bottled, corked, capsuled and labeled on August 1 in an assembly line in the CSI kitchen. They will be for sale in time for the High Holidays! It will be interesting to taste the difference between the first bottling (at Passover) and this one.

We will email everyone with ordering information.

Hope to see you at the farm and feel free to contact me with any general questions.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

SISTERHOOD 2021-2022

Dear All,

Hope you are well and enjoying the summer weather. It has certainly been quite a year! Nothing could have prepared us for a pandemic and a year on Zoom. From the beginning when we gathered virtually for our Pesach Sunday Brunch and Poetry Party to the year-end event featuring The Word Mavens, I hope you enjoyed our times together. Thank you for zooming in with your smiling faces. Sisterhood women are engaged, thoughtful and caring. You are committed to Sisterhood and CSI. Thank you all! Thank you to the Sisterhood Board— Annleah, Beth, Cheryl, Jill, Marion, Sharon O and Sharon R— for your dedication to Sisterhood.

Here's a little flashback of what else we did: Sisterhood Havdalah services, Trivia Night, Welcome Back Sisterhood Concert with Lisa Stein, Celebrating the 19th Amendment with Rep. Nita Lowey, Membership "No-Dinner" with author Susan Rudnick, Coloring and Camaraderie, and a concert with performer Lisa Yves for Mishloach Manot participants and then finally we saw each other in person at our Membership Appreciation Lunch on the farm.

But wait, there's more! The Sisterhood Book Club, under the guidance of Roberta Bar-Levav and Susan Thrope ,met 4 times and will meet next on Sunday, October 3rd at 4:00 PM. Thank you Roberta and Susan.

And that's not all. Matanah, the Gift Shop of CSI, remained open for virtual shopping and personal appointments. There were even Virtual Shopping Nights for Hanukkah and Passover. Thank you Jill, Marion and Sharon O.

And despite the restrictions of Covid, Margery Kirsch orchestrated a successful Mishloach Manot fundraiser. Thank you Margie.

Are you still reading? Thank you to all who participated in the "Honey from the Heart" fundraiser. Your support of Sisterhood fundraisers enables us to fund the improvement and beautification projects that are not included in the CSI budget.
