MEMORIES WHICH ILLUMINATE OUR LIVES

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine even in the darkest night and illumine our path . . .

Hannah Senesh

MEMORY'S MEANING

The meaning of our memories lies not only in what we remember, but in how.

Each of us lives in a place that allows those whom we miss to be present in the on-going experiences of our lives.

We know our goal is not to erase memory, nor to suppress it.

Judaism teaches us our purpose – to make use of our memories for a better understanding of ourselves and a deeper quality for our lives.

The people and events that we remember teach us values. They motivate our capacities to act on behalf of others. They are the well from which we draw empathy and caring.

Our memories can serve as a model for our own hopes, for our commitments to a world in which all people can share love in their lives.

Our ability to express that dream, to believe in a bright future, is rooted in the memories of those loved ones whose lives continue to influence us today.

In their memory we pray that our recollections and love inspire us, comfort us, and always remain a blessing.

יי, מה אדם ותדעהו, בן-אנוש ותחשבהו.
 אדם להכל דמה, ימיו כצל עובר.
 בבקר יציץ וחלף, לערב ימולל ויבש.
 תשב אנוש עד דכא, ותאמר שובו בני אדם.
 שובה יי עד מתי, והנחם על עבדיך.

There is a time for everything:

there is a time for all things under the sun

a time to be born and a time to die

a time to laugh and a time to cry

a time to dance and a time to mourn

a time to seek and a time to lose a time to forget and a time to remember.

This day in sacred convocation, we remember those who gave us lives.

This day we remember those who enriched our life with love and with beauty, with kindness and compassion, with thoughtfulness and understanding.

This day we renew the bonds that bind us to those who have gone the way of all the earth.

Teach us to use all of our days, O Lord,

That we may attain a heart of wisdom.

Grant us of Your love in the morning,

That we may joyously sing all our days.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought,

In memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth with love and toward peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing. This day we lovingly recall those whose lives endure as a blessing.

שִׁוִּיתִי יְהוָה לְנִגְדִי תַמִּיד כִּי מִיָּמִינִי בֵּל-אֲמוֹט:
 לִכֹּן שִׁמְחָה לִבִּי וִיגֵל כְּבוֹדִי אֶף-בְּשָׂרִי יִשְׁכֵּן לְבָטָח:

We Remember Them

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

*At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

*At the beginning of the year and at its end,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

*When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.*

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

*When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

Sylvan Kamens and Jack Riemer

ADDITIONAL MEDITATION

At this sacred hour, I am aware of souls through whom I have come to know of grace and love. All the wisdom, beauty, and affection that has enriched my life is the garnered fruits of my communion with others.

Many of those to whom I owe so much are alive with me today; I pray that I may be able to reward their goodness and their devotion to me by acts of love and loyalty.

But others have passed forever from my midst, leaving me a heritage of tender memories which now fills my mind.

I recall today beloved parents who watched over me, nursed me, guided me and sacrificed for me.

or...

I lovingly call to mind my wife or my husband with whom I was truly united – in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows.

or...

I remember my brother(s) and my sister(s), who grew up together with me, sharing the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities, bound to us by a heritage of family tradition and by years of comradeship and love.

or...

I call to mind my child(ren), entrusted to my care all too briefly, taken from me before they reached the years of maturity and fulfillment, to whom I gave my loving care and from whom I received a trust which enriched my life to this day.

or...

I recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced my life, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage, or support me.

Though they are gone from me, I am grateful for the blessings they brought and were to me. Now, by giving to others the love which my departed gave to me, I can partly repay the debt I owe them.

I am sustained and comforted by the thought that the goodness which they brought into my life remains an enduring blessing which I can bequeath to my descendants.

I can show my devotion to them by my devotion to those ideals which they cherished.

God, make me worthy of the love I have received by teaching me to love You with all my heart and with all my soul and with all my might, and to spread the light of Your Divine love on all whose lives touch mine.

Give me strength to live honorably and cheered by the confidence that You will not permit my life to be wasted, but will bring all my worthy strivings to fulfillment.

Amen.

The rabbi reads aloud, in memory of congregants who died during the past year.

We lovingly recall the members of our congregation who have passed away since we gathered in this sanctuary last Yom Kippur. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones in the year gone by be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values expressed through the lives of those no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall:

(names are read)

May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

PRAYER IN MEMORY OF THE MARTYRS OF OUR PEOPLE

יִזְכֹּר אֱלֹהִים נַשְׁמוֹת כָּל-אֶחָיוּ בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל שֶׁמָּסְרוּ
נַפְשָׁם עַל-קְדוּשַׁת הַשֵּׁם. אֲנֵנוּ יִשְׁמַע בְּחַיֵּינוּ הַזֶּה

מְנוּחָתָם כְּבוֹד. שְׂבַע שְׁמֵחוֹת אֶת-פָּנֶיךָ נְעִימוֹת בְּיָמֶיךָ נָצַח. אָמֵן.

May God remember the souls of our brothers and sisters, martyrs of our People, who gave their lives for the sanctification of God's name and the honor of Israel.

May their bravery, dedication and purity be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. And may they rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

Let us stand silent in memory of our dearly beloved sons and daughters who gave their lives for the liberation of our Homeland and the security of our People. They gave us all they had. They poured out their very lifeblood for the freedom of Israel, even as the living waters quench the thirst of the arid soil. Not in monuments of stones or trees shall their memories be preserved, but in the reverence and pride which will, until the end of time, fill the hearts of our People when their memory is recalled.

-David Ben Gurion

In Hebrew the word for our inner being, our soul, is neshama. Literally it means "breathing." For that which breathes life feels, grows and moves through the marvelous opportunities and challenges of each day. So, in a sense, with the departure of one's soul comes the absence of breath. Yet, just as we share the air we must all breathe, so, too, can we share in honoring the gentle souls who this Service recalls. This will occur with every new breath we take, with every gesture that recalls their own. Perhaps in that way we can find for our own lives the inner being of purpose and delight with which they lived.

PSALM 23

יְיָ רֹעִי לֹא אֲחַסֵּר.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

בְּנֵאֻת דְּשָׂא יִרְבֵּיצֵנִי,

God gives me repose in green meadows.

עַל מֵי מְנוּחֹת יְנַהֲלֵנִי. נַפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבָב,

God leads me beside the still waters to revive my spirit.

יְנַחֲנֵנִי בַּמַּעֲגָלִי-צֶדֶק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.

God guides me on the right path, for that is His nature.

גַּם כִּי אֵלֶךְ בְּגִיא צִלְמוֹת

לֹא אִירָא רָע כִּי אַתָּה עִמָּדִי,

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no harm, for You are with me.

שִׁבְטְךָ וּמַשְׁעֲנֶתְךָ הֵמָּה יְנַחֲמֵנִי.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי שִׁלְחַן נֹגֵד צָרָרִי,

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes.

דִּשְׁנֹת בַּשֶּׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי, כּוֹסִי רוּיָה.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

אֵךְ טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל-יְמֵי חַיִּי,

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life.

וְשָׁכַתִּי בְּבֵית יְיָ לְאֲרֹךְ יָמִים.

And I shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

Yahrzeit

Yahrzeit is observed on each anniversary of the day of death according to the Hebrew calendar.

One who is not certain of the day when a relative died should select an appropriate date on which to observe yahrzeit each year.

A candle should burn in the home during the twenty-four hour period of yahrzeit, sunset to sunset, starting on the evening preceding the day. Light symbolizes the soul, as it is written in the Book of Proverbs: "The soul of man is the light of the Lord."

When the yahrzeit coincides with Shabbat or a Festival, the yahrzeit candle should be lit before the candle lighting for the day.

It is appropriate to fulfill some mitzvah in honor of the dead on this day. This could consist of study, acting as ba-al tefillah in the synagogue, or contributing to some worthy cause in memory of the deceased. It is also appropriate for family and friends to gather on the yahrzeit for the purpose of recalling various aspects of an event in the life of the dead, perpetuating his or her memory in a warm and intimate atmosphere.

Mourners Kaddish is recited at all services on the yahrzeit, from evening services on the night before through afternoon services on the day itself. On Shabbat before the yahrzeit one should receive an aliyah, at synagogue services and perhaps recite the haftarah as well.

One who is unable to recite Mourner's Kaddish on the day of yahrzeit may do so at the evening service following the day of yahrzeit.
