Dear Chaverim,

Summer greetings! With Shavuot on Memorial Day weekend, we just finished another cycle of the school year and the Jewish spring holidays. We shared sad and joyous occasions this past year - saying goodbye to some of our dear members as they passed and celebrating new beginnings with baby namings and weddings.

For me as your rabbi it is a tremendous blessing and honor to share life's journey with you in its ups and downs. And I always hope that I can be there for you to either hold you and comfort your pain or increase your joy!

But I do not only want to share those low or peak moments with you, rather I enjoy the day-to-day and the week-to-week celebrations as we navigate through life. So I want to tell you about a few newer initiatives that made a difference for me this year.

Thanks to Joanie Charnow and Nora Elias from our preschool, and our collaboration with Marci Lewis, we brought in PJ library events and activities for our young families several times this past year including Kabbalat Shabbat and holiday programs for our little ones. We will continue our collaboration next year and hope to put together a regular Tot Shabbat.

Thanks to our active Hebrew school and teen parents, we've started the new Dorot Shabbat series. We just dipped our toes in the water with some holidays, Shabbatot, and two teen Havdalah evenings, but now we are in full planning mode for an alternative Shabbat and holiday experience in the coming school year with family-friendly services empowering parents and teens to become leaders and having fun being together at Shul.

We've also started a "Travel" Shabbat initiative, in which our community members open their houses for a Kabbalat Shabbat celebration, inviting their friends, families, and I to come and bring Friday night services to the evening. We shared a few of them that were a true delight for all. Potluck makes it easier on the hosts, and we spent the evenings singing, sharing stories, and eating together. It doesn't matter if we are just a small group of 8, for example (as not every living room hosts 30 people), or a large group - the essence is to celebrate Shabbat together personally!

BJE's Myra Shindler, Mayor Kate Gallego, Daniel Stein Kokin, and Rabbi Nitzan Stein Kokin at the AZ Jewish Historical Society's Annual Meeting.

We all grew a little closer as we shared the evenings. If you'd like me to come to your house for a Kabbalat Shabbat - please let me know - we are happy to help create such a joyful evening together, in a way that works for you! I will be back from vacation in the second half of July and would love to celebrate Shabbat with you.

"Shabbat at the Rabbi's house" is similar - just that everything happens at my house - so let me know, the next time you'd like to visit with the Stein-Kokins for a Shabbat or holiday!

I've also tremendously enjoyed our Be'er HaTorah study throughout the year with our intense discussions in which we bring our intellect and our personal reading to the text on Shabbat afternoon—another way to share ourselves.

Being Jewish in its essence, means belonging to a family, a "tribe," a community that goes through life together. Life happens in the big and small moments of honest sharing and authentic encounters with our fellow human beings.

I am always aspiring to bring us together and, at the same time, create more opportunities and spaces for people to meet, find their new peers, or deepen a connection. I am excited about all the further steps we took this year in this direction and tremendously grateful for all our well-established initiatives like our never-idle daily minyan and Shabbat service leaders and our robust education and social action teams creating the vibrancy we enjoy at Beth El.

While I am leaving on vacation to get some rest, reconnect with my family and friends in Germany, and recharge, I am already excited and looking forward to the beginning of a new school year at Beth El in August.

Enjoy your summer!

Audrey Wolff
President

Dear Friends,

As I embark on my second year as President, I am filled with a profound sense of gratitude and responsibility in meeting the needs of our community. What type of community are we? Here are some of the words that our board used to describe Beth El: family, warmth, holiness, spiritual prayer, belonging, tradition, home, egalitarian, celebrating, holidays, heimish, engaging, belonging, connecting, kindness, and tikkun olam.

These words sustain us and, for me, emphasize how much belonging to Beth El matters. This is where we can make a difference, practicing our Judaism and building Jewish friendships and connections that will move us forward.

Last Shabbat, Shavuot, and Anniversary Shabbat, these words were put into action. Our congregation gathered for the Aufruf of Roberta Harmon, our Youth and Community Engagement Coordinator, and Seth Freed. We wish them much joy and naches as they begin their new life together.

Marriage is not only a bond between two people but also the bringing together of two families and their communities. No book exemplifies these values more than the Book of Ruth. The Book of Ruth, with its poignant tale of loyalty, love, and redemption, reminds us that our strength lies in embracing individuals from all walks of life, the value of family unity, and the Jewish faith. The words of Ruth resonate. "Wherever you go, I will go; wherever you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God."

Here at Beth El, we strive to live these values through social action, holding traditional and alternative services, both in person and online, and continuing to work on acceptance for all who seek ways to express and learn about Judaism while also ensuring that our physical space is welcoming to meet the physical needs of all of our congregants.

Our goal is that from the moment one steps through our doors, they are embraced by a warm environment.

where we can honor the unique perspectives and experiences each individual brings.

As the hot summer months approach, I ask that each of us commit to doing at least one thing at Beth El over the summer. Commit to joining a minyan, check out our Learning to Lead page on our website, call the shul and see who might want an extra call, visit, or meal, have coffee in the Be'er, enroll in the JFCS Senior Camp, join Wendy Rozov for book club, or Chai Tea, help out in our building, prepare a meal, or attend one of our many social programs. Or, create your own activity, and we'll help in the planning! Most importantly, stay healthy and be in touch!

Let Beth El people be your people.

United for Ukraine

".....you were once strangers...."

The devastation and destruction of the war in Ukraine continues into its second year, with thousands of Ukrainians dead and wounded. Millions were forced to leave their homes in search of safety and security.

Many are fleeing to nearby countries in Europe, but an estimated 100,000 are seeking temporary refuge in the United States through the United 4 Ukraine humanitarian initiative.

In response, a group of members from Beth El Congregation and Temple Chai has committed to sponsoring a Ukrainian family's resettlement in the Valley.

We are asking you to join us.

Beth El and Temple Chai: Uniting To Help Ukraine is working with HIAS, Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society, through its Welcome Circle program, and has now created more than 100 circles across the United States to help.

HIAS has resettled refugees since 1881 and continues to rescue both Jews and non-Jews who are seeking safety from war or other life-threatening conditions.

The Welcome Circle assists newcomers in navigating their new environment, accessing government programs and social services, finding jobs and housing, and funding basic needs for an initial six-month period.

We have completed a Welcome Plan and submitted it to HIAS and are awaiting a match with a family coming to Phoenix. We are raising $35,000 to pay for the immediate needs for the newcomers, and we are asking for your help.

The Center for Jewish Philanthropy and the Jewish Community Foundation will receive donations, and Jewish Free Loan has offered to disburse them. The three communal organizations are 501(c)3 charitable organizations, ensuring that all contributions are tax-deductible and all expenses are carefully audited. Any funds not used by our Welcome Circle will be directed to assisting local refugee resettlement.

Dear Friends,

As we begin a new program year, I want to thank everyone who contributed to making this year so successful and engaging. Our staff and volunteers worked hard to create interesting, quality events. This year we added lay-led Ta Shma classes, enjoyed The 5th Quarter college marching band review, studied with Valley Beit Midrash, danced for Zoomdalah, sung in the round during Kabbalat

Shabbat, partied with PJ Library, played mahjong and other games together, made the world a better place through Tikkun Olam, and much more. Your engagement makes Beth El a vibrant, active community, so thank you to all who volunteered, coordinated, and participated in our programming this year.

We have some new ideas planned for the coming year and are excited to share them!

In August, a new concert series, Chamber in the Chapel, is being organized by Daniel Stein Kokin. Chamber in the Chapel will be small chamber-style concerts by classical musicians in small groups covering a variety of pieces. The first concert is planned for Thursday, August 17 in the evening. Details on the performers and ticket prices will be released shortly.

A new summer wellness program at Beth El is our Chair Yoga class on Thursdays at 11:00 am with Wendy Rozov. Stretch, breathe, and clear your mind as we enjoy this low-impact form of yoga that is adaptable to all ability levels. Water and healthy snacks will be provided. The cost is $18 per 4 sessions or $36 for all nine sessions from June 1 through July 27.

Please let us know if you have an idea for programming at Beth El. Our goal is to provide meaningful, educational, and fun events where you can create and build connections with others.

Thank you very much for your support and membership in Beth El Congregation. The 2023–2024 membership statements will be mailed to you in mid-June. We are here to help you participate in the community regardless of your financial situation. Please let me know if there is any way we can help you in this regard.

Happy Summer!

BETH EL WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The heat has arrived and the start of summer is approaching. The fiscal year of BEWL is drawing to a close on June 30. New membership forms will be mailed out very soon. Dues will remain at $36 for the year. We hope you will enroll or re-enroll, as so many of you have done for years. Without your support, we couldn't provide the programming that makes our sisterhood function as it should. Women who are new members of Beth El Congregation will be invited to become members of BEWL for the next year at no charge. Sharon Cohn will be reaching out to them very soon.

We are pleased to announce that BEWL has been awarded a 2023 WLCJ Jewels in the Crown Award for outstanding programming, social action and our commitment to Women's League for Conservative Judaism. The award will be presented at a luncheon during the WLCJ convention in July. BEWL has been presented with this award in the past and we will try to continue to merit this honor.

Yasher Koach to all the women of BEWL who participated in the Torah Fund Shabbat on May 12, 2023. Judy Zola and Sharon Cohn organized the Aliyahs, Torah readers and speakers for the morning. Bonnie Kluger, Audrey Wolff and I worked with Suzanne Fuchs to prepare the luncheon. We passed out a flower and candy to each woman who attended in honor of Mother's Day. Next year, we are planning a Torah Fund Tea, most likely at a tearoom outside of Beth El. Stay tuned for details and to see next year's beautiful Torah Fund pin.

BEWL organized a volunteer event at the Arizona Kosher Pantry on Sunday, May 21. It was wonderful to have the many helpful and eager hands of USYers join BEWL members, parents of USYers, and a few prospective synagogue members to pack meals for the homeless. We packed up at least 150 meals: meatloaf, salmon, and chicken that will be distributed to those in need, regardless of their religion. Beth El has a food donation box in the front lobby that goes to Ezras Cholim, but monetary donations are also needed for them to continue their work. Every month they distribute over 15,000 pounds of groceries, deliver 300 kosher meals, and operate a food pantry that is open five days a week to the public. Learn more at www.azkosherpantry.org. See some pictures of the volunteers at the AZ Kosher Pantry on page 12.

Dear Families,

For the last ten plus years, I have been privileged to be part of a community of families with children in which I've been proud to watch grow into successful young Jewish adults. With the friendship and support of top notch faculty, I've enjoyed every Sunday morning drive into work ready to share a few moments with each of them before they were off to their classrooms. I've greeted more children over the years than one can remember. I have immensely enjoyed my time at Beth El Talmud Torah and am very thankful for the many fond relationships I have formed here. However, all good things must come to an end, and it's with a whole and grateful heart that I am announcing my retirement as your Hebrew school director, effective following Yom Kippur, 2023.

During my remaining time here, I have assured those I work for and work with that I am happy to help transition to a new head of school. Beth El has my total support in assisting in this process.

Wishing you all my best and again thank you for allowing me the privilege of working with all of you, in your various roles, along the way.

I look forward to seeing you in August.

Dear Families,

May was a very busy and emotional month for me. Every year I say good-bye to our pre-k children but this year it was a little different. More than half of the class had been with us since they were infants others since they were toddlers or two. The impact of the last five years and how the pandemic effected our small children is challenging for not only the children but the parents and teachers too.

These kiddos have been through a lot; we all have been through a lot. They became a family, our preschool community family.

I have always told parents that from the first day, that I give them a tour when you are in our school; you are family. That is the best feeling a parent can have when dropping off their child.

Being a preschool teacher or Director for me was not about the money, it was about the importance of a job and the future of everything. Over the past thirty-plus years, things have changed. The students I taught are now doctors, scientists, have families or are still in school. I know my school made a difference in their lives, and they will also make a difference in other lives. The pandemic brought attention to the world many different things. One thing was that childcare workers are ESSENTIAL workers.

The Department of Economic Security gave preschools a Childcare Stabilization grant. This grant was to help us offer better pay to hire qualified teachers and buy supplies. They also devised other ways to help families pay for quality early education by raising the DES payments and more scholarships. People are starting to notice how important we are. The future begins with our young children; we must ensure they get what they need to grow and learn in a robust and healthy environment.

Our school, community, and all the families know they are in the best place possible for that to happen. June and July are what we call camp, it is a little different, but the learning and the comfort are the same. We will create a circus for the first five weeks and a fair for the last four. We will have water play and drama, art, and music, all taught by our talented Beth El Early Childhood Center staff.

Stay safe and cool. Enjoy every day to the fullest.
