

TheBA Bulletin

The newsletter of Congregation B'nai Amoona

Summer 2023

Three years ago, my bulletin article posed the question, "what will we learn about ourselves when we emerge from the pandemic?" While COVID is here to stay, we have certainly emerged from where we were in spring of 2020. So what did I learn?

I learned how much I need to be with actual people. I don't mind video conferencing. It's a wonderful tool when necessary. It allows people to stay connected. It allowed families across the country to mourn loved ones together. Our family had incredibly meaningful Shiva gatherings for my brother, Ken, over Zoom. They were, perhaps even more meaningful than if they had been in person.

But I learned that, eventually, I was much healthier, and a bit less anxious, if I stayed off of social media and Zoom classes and focused on seeing people in person. I know this is not possible for everyone and I'm so glad we have the technology that can keep people engaged in community and learning over video. Perhaps, as a musician, the practical need to be in the same room with people to make music factored into the equation of what I needed. I never liked the choirs with everyone spliced together into a video and I liked it even less when it was a necessity. It is such a gift to be able to sing with people in person and play music with others in real time.

Our Shabbat morning services and daily Minyanim are affirmations of life. Our monthly Shabbat Song Circles are celebrations of beauty and healing. The sound of 15-30 voices swirling around the air in the Mendelson Family Library, restores my soul. Last time we met, we shared our thoughts about a selection of a passage by Shalom Noah Berzovsky from our beautiful Siddur Lev Shalem.

"On Shabbat, we enter this world of gentleness, of appreciation, of welcome. We join in community . . . of people finding each other."

It is so healing to find one another; to just sit and be, in song and in silence, in prayer and in laughter. After emerging, I seek out these opportunities even more than before. I am more aware of what is healthy for me and what is not.

While this article is coming out after the final Shabbat Song Circle of the season, I look forward to Shabbat Zimrah on June 10. Like Shabbat Shirah, we will have a nosh at 8:30 am and then a beautiful service filled with opportunities for song and for silence. What a wonderful opportunity to find each other once again.

With great love and blessing,

If you are not yet a sponsor for our annual "From Play to Pray Fundraiser" please consider a one-time sponsorship to help us reach our goal. These additional funds are necessary for balancing our budget and ensuring our fiscal viability. We are so very close!

We are most grateful to our current sponsors who have supported our fundraiser at a variety of levels. With special thanks to our supporters (as of May 1, 2023):

What's Happening in the LRECC

What a year!

At the LRECC it's been a busy 10 months! Our school's foundation is built on the amazing, committed and engaging teachers that lead the children each day. Their love and commitment to the children is what has made this year a success.

It is bittersweet that we say L'hitraot to this year's Panda Pre-K class as they head to their next academic adventures. Many of these kiddos have been with us since they were infants in the Parparim room. Regardless of when they started, it has been an honor to watch them grow and develop into the amazing humans they are today! We know they have the best still yet to come and we wish them well.

Our school is continuing to grow. This school year we welcomed 20 new families to our community. With that said, we are looking to hire new teachers and add to our sub list! If you or someone you know may be interested, please reach out.

The Meyer Kranzberg Learning Center

My grandmother died two years ago. She was the last of my grandparents. Each of them left an indelible mark on my life. From each of them, in their own way, I learned so much. Through stories shared and experiences I had with each of them, I began to hear about their lives “before” I even existed. Their accomplishments. Their impact. Their choices. Their values.

When I first came to B'nai Amoona, I was informed that the Religious School was named MKLC. Only after my first week did I learn what those initials meant. The Meyer Kranzberg Learning Center. Upon hearing this I asked the question, “Who is/was Meyer Kranzberg?” I was not raised at B'nai Amoona and the name Kranzberg to me brought to mind philanthropy in the community. It was associated with Federation, the Day School, and the Art Community in the St. Louis Community.

Once I asked the question, my lessons began! In St. Louis the name Kranzberg is often associated with giving. With righteous acts. With the understanding that it is important to do the work and support that which is good for the community. I also learned that the Kranzberg family was multi-generational. The Meyer Kranzberg of MKLC was a man with great knowledge. He was a charismatic person. He was a man who understood the importance of the Jewish Community and Synagogue life. He was also a man with - what my grandmother would call - a bit of chutzpah!

Were it not for Meyer Kranzberg, I am confident that B'nai Amoona and our Kehillah, our community, would not exist. Mr. Kranzberg was the Vice President of B'nai Amoona when the decision was made to buy land and begin the move of B'nai Amoona to Trinity. He was the chairman of the Capital Campaign, and without his leadership and belief in this move, it may never have occurred. Ken Kranzberg, Meyer's son, delayed his Bar Mitzvah by one month so as to be the first Bar Mitzvah in Trinity's Sanctuary.

Once my listening campaign began, it was apparent that there was much more to his life at the Synagogue. His Presidency was from 1951 to 1955. During those years many important decisions were made for the Congregation. Mr. Kranzberg was responsible for ensuring that a President's term had limits. His tenure included a time when the Executive Director demanded a raise just before the High Holidays, and threatened to leave if it was not granted. Mr. Kranzberg was a man of integrity and did not like this threatening behavior. He did not grant the raise, and the Executive Director left immediately. This left Mr. Kranzberg with the responsibility of ensuring that the High Holy Days went off without a hitch. When the Cantor no longer wanted to be the one opening the synagogue for business every day, Mr Kranzberg told him to give him the keys and someone else would replace his job! This convinced the Cantor to continue his responsibilities until he retired. He was also the one who hired Burt Grossman as well as brought Ted Fisher into the synagogue to soon assume a leadership position. One of the greatest triumphs of all was when Mr. Meyer Kranzberg went to Chicago and convinced our beloved Rabbi Lipnick (z"l), that we needed him in St. Louis and that he must come back to B'nai Amoona. When Mr Kranzberg talked, the great Rabbi listened and returned.

Meyer Kranzberg and his legacy is felt throughout our community. He was a man who was easy going until he saw injustices and then he became strong willed in his fight and ideals. His life was one of sacrifice, determination, hope, and persistence. He said what he was going to do, and then followed through. This was his life until he died on his 72nd Birthday.

For all this, and so much more, Kenneth Kranzberg, Meyer Kranzberg's son, wanted to dedicate a valuable entity of B'nai Amoona to his father. This is why we are all able to learn, grow, and benefit from the Meyer Kranzberg Learning Center at B'nai Amoona. May his life continue to bless us with a love of Jewish learning and joy. May we recognize, L'dor V'Dor, the generations that came before and may we continue to remember them in our hearts and minds. May we continue to learn from our parents, grandparents, and great grandparents. Without our foremothers and forefathers, without Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah or Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the Jewish community that embraces us today would not exist.

May we learn from Ken Kranzberg that it is important for each of us to remember the gifts of those who came before us and find ways to keep the memories of their parents alive. To Meyer Kranzberg I will continue to say thank you!

The Art Gallery at B'nai Amoona

The Art Gallery at B'nai Amoona is concluding its first season which has been exceedingly successful. There were 13 artists represented. We began with our own Obbie Price (z"l) whose watercolors were a real delight and a hit with our congregation and all of those who saw them. The other artists that have been represented this first season were Gary Kodner, Mark Witzling, Tsila Schwartz, Mark Koritz, Lenore Pepper, Jill Nassau, Jonathan Levy, Dganit Moreno, Bob Denlow, David Capes, Neshama Roash, and Sandy Kaplan. Our preschool artists exhibited during the Hanukkah season and the fourth-grade students at the SMJCS exhibited their remarkable art as well. Our most recent artist reception attracted more than one hundred people, most of whom were not B'nai Amoona members, thus giving B'nai Amoona a presence in the community that it might not otherwise have. The cost of the art hanging systems, enhanced lighting installations, reception expenses, and publicity have amounted to several thousand dollars, all of which was funded by donations and art sales. There has been no cost to the operating budget.

The art committee, composed of Carole Simon, a long-time docent of the St. Louis Art Museum, Sandy Kaplan, a prominent ceramic sculptor, Rachel Bray Spezia, a graphic artist, Jan Baron, and Lester Goldman are greatly indebted to Jeff Singer for his vision and support, and also to our professional office staff, Anita Kraus, Gail Armstrong, and Vickie Shuchart. We are also much indebted to Beth Saltzman who, with Chris Whitaker, provided the sumptuous reception buffets and Karen Noss, who enhanced our receptions with her beautiful harp playing. The committee is very thankful for the help of Norwood Janitorial Services who assisted our artists in installing their art for each exhibit. Our current exhibit of fine art photographs and ceramic sculptures will conclude on June 9th. This summer the children artists of Ramot Amoona and B'nai Ami will be displaying their work. The committee is already hard at work planning our next season of exhibits.

B'NAI AMOONA SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood has had some great programs this Spring. Here's a recap:

- Everyone helped share the love of Purim by supporting our main fundraiser, "Sisterhood is Loved Beyond Measure." We hope you all enjoyed the creative gift bags and a big thank you to our hardworking co-chairs, Missy Korenblat-Hanin and Tracey Singer, as well as all their volunteers.
- On Sunday morning March 12th over 40 women came together to tour the new Kaplan Feldman Holocaust Museum. Everyone was moved by the beautiful exhibits, and we highly recommend you visit. Thank you to our education co-chairs Karyn Fine, Sylvia Manewith and Faith Waxman as well as Barb Hoffman for her added support.
- We had a wonderful Passover Mimouna program with our programming co-chairs Rachel Persellin-Armoza, Marci Boyer, and Lori Kabrun-Berry. Everything was delicious and we had fun dancing! Thank you to Nathalie and Naomi Scharf for sharing their family traditions of this Moroccan custom.

Our last program of the spring was The Conversation Project with Rabbi Jessica Shafirin. We learned how to approach having those difficult conversations regarding advance directives, living wills and other topics.

If you're not a current member, it's not too late to join the fun. Visit bnaiamoona.com/sisterhood.

Wishing everyone an amazing, fun, and safe summer!

Minyan Matters

Mazel Tov and Siman Tov...

On Minyanaire Shabbat, April 8, 2023, Sheryl and Larry Zigler were named B'nai Amoona's "2023 Minyanaires of the Year."

For over two decades, the Ziglers, longtime members of B'nai Amoona, dedicate themselves to being present for the Friday morning Minyan. They join other daily Minyanaires and are counted as part of the necessary 10 adult men and women needed to recite Kaddish for those in mourning or marking the Yahrzeit for a loved one.

If you are already a Minyanaire, thank you for continuing to support our daily Minyanim Services! If you have been thinking of becoming a Minyanaire, now is the time to contact us at minyan@bnaiamoona.com and we will be in touch. It's easy! You choose the day and time according to your schedule. Your participation is vital to our efforts to grow the BA tradition of providing Minyanim twice a day throughout the year.

No prior skills are needed. If you need help, we are here to familiarize you with the Weekday Siddur and the Service. You'll be welcomed with open arms and will enjoy the mutual friendship with longtime Minyanaires.

Let us know if you would like to become a Zoom Angel, a Greeter, or a Food Angel. These Minyanaires welcome everyone to the Minyan each day and help set up the "Kibbitz and Nosh" after services... there's something for everyone!!!
