Nafshenu's Mission

Nafshenu seeks to reclaim and reimagine Judaism in an ever changing modern world. We believe that Judaism can and must be relevant and spiritual, provide inspirational learning, build organic community, and be a powerful voice for social change.

Nafshenu is a dynamic local Jewish community that exists to nurture each soul to:

- Develop a healthy spiritual life
- Connect through engaging and experiential learning opportunities
- Fulfill the Jewish mandate to pursue social justice; and
- Create an organic and authentic community connecting souls to each other.

In order to accomplish our vision, Nafshenu is different than the traditional model of Jewish life; it is the kind of community that recognizes the power that Judaism has to transform our lives – it is in the uncomfortable moments of life when we grow the most. We are a community of seekers: each one of us is on our own journey bringing our own gifts and our own sacred stories.

We are a community that acknowledges that there are multiple access points to Jewish life and each person is welcome, without judgment. Among us are believers and doubters, those with years of Jewish learning and those who just beginning, social justice activists and those looking to find their own voice. We are comprised of different backgrounds but come together as one community.
