

Congregation Beth Shalom

COVID-19 Food Procedures

Effective Date March 8, 2022

The following requirements must be observed for all food served and consumed at Congregation Beth Shalom or any venue sponsored by Congregation Beth Shalom. In the event these requirements conflict with those from any public health authority, or more strict requirements provided by owners of the venue, the requirements of the public health authorities or the venue owner shall govern.

- Serving of any food requires either: 1) individual packaging or 2) served in a buffet line by someone who is up to date with their COVID-19 vaccines, gloved, and masked person to serve/dispense the food or 3) pre-plated restaurant style.
- The meal event must be held with physical distancing of seating locations.
- Only food approved and prepared under the auspices of the Va'ad of Delaware can be served in the kitchen, social hall, minyan kitchen and atrium.
- When possible, consume all food outdoors.
- Personal consumption of Kosher/ hechshered or dairy/ vegetarian food may be eaten in other areas of the building, including Klub KEF, Hebrew school classrooms and the library.
- Non-Kosher food may be consumed by staff in their offices.
- If someone is serving a to-go package that is not hechshered, it may be served on tables that are covered, between the atrium doorways or outside along the walkway.
