Scroll of Remembrance

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He gives me repose in green meadows.
He leads me beside the still waters to revive my spirit.
He guides me on the right path, for that is His nature.
Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no harm, for You are with me.
Your staff and Your rod comfort me.
You prepare a banquet for me in the presences of my foes.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life.
And I shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever.*

Mourner's Kaddish

Hallowed and enhanced may He be throughout the world of His own creations. May He cause His sovereignty soon to be accepted, during our life and the life of all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May He Be praised throughout all time.

Glorified and celebrated, lauded and praised, acclaimed and honored, extolled and exalted may the Holy One be, far beyond all song and psalm, beyond all attributes which man can utter. And let us say: Amen.

He who brings peace to His universe will bring peace to us and to all the people Israel. And let us say: Amen.

In Loving and Perpetual Remembrance

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their spouses, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they left us, by precious memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day. In loving testimony to their lives we pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to them. May we prove ourselves worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which they blessed us. May these moments of meditation link us more strongly with their memory and with our entire families.
