PARSHA MATTERS - by Rabbi Sammy Bergman

SIFTING THROUGH THE VOICES

The truckers' protests taking place in Ottawa have dominated our news cycle. While the last two years had already provided no shortage of social unrest, the global popularity of the trucker's cause, and the disruption the convoy has created in the daily lives of innocent makes the current predicament particularly polarizing. One struggles to determine how to process what is happening.

A scene from this week's parsha may help to provide some perspective. After forty days and forty nights of learning the Torah directly from Hashem, Moshe descended from Har Sinai knowing that the Jewish nation had constructed the Golden Calf and proclaimed a holiday to celebrate. On his way down from the mountain he encountered Yehoshua. Yehoshua heard the ecstatic voices from the Jews' celebrations and exclaimed: "There is a battle cry in the camp!". As Rashi understands it, Moshe responded: "The voices are not cries of victory or cries of defeat, but rather the voices of blasphemy and cursing that distresses the soul that hears them" (Shemot 32:17:18, Rashi ibid). The midrash in Kohelet Rabbah 9:11 embellishes upon Moshe's response to Yehoshua:

אָמַר לוֹ מֹשֶׁה, יְהוֹשֻׁעַ, אָדָם שֶׁעָתִיד לְהִנָּהִיג שְׁרָרָה עַל שֵׁשׁ מֵאוֹת רִבּוֹא אֵינוֹ יוֹדֵעַ לְהַבְחִין בֵּין קוֹל לְקוֹל.

Moshe said to him, Yehoshua, a person who is destined to take up a position of authority over six hundred thousand people, can't distinguish between voices?

According to the midrash, Moshe criticized Yehoshua for hearing the voices of his people without carefully discerning the cause of their unrest. Moshe taught Yehoshua that one who occupies a position of authority can't simply listen to "noise". Rather, when disrupted by the cacophony of a community's outcry, a leader must "distinguish between voices". He must discriminate between those voicing legitimate pain, fear or frustration and the sound of childish kvetching and attention seeking.

Those who paint the protestors in Ottawa with broad strokes demonstrate the incapability of "distinguishing between voices". Any movement that achieves such prominence certainly consists of many different types of people with different motivations. When we encounter a communal outcry, we should be careful to discern the fruitful expressions of problems which need to be addressed from the childish disruptions which must be ignored or silenced if necessary. May we take inspiration and learn to sift through voices we hear so that we can deal with our interpersonal challenges peacefully and effectively.

- The Teen Minyan will not take place this Shabbat.
- Yechezkel and Mining Maimonides Shiurim with Rabbi Bergman will not take place this coming Monday (Family Day). They will resume on Feb. 28.

To ensure that all members have the opportunity to participate in the Senior Rabbi Probah Shabbatot, the Downstairs Minyan and Prof. Novak's Shiur will not take place on the next 2 Shabbatot, February 26 and March 5.

SENIOR RABBI SEARCH COMMITTEE

Rabbi Ian Lichter

RABBI IAN LICHTER has served as the Assistant Rabbi at the Great Neck Synagogue in Long Island, New York, since 2010. He received his rabbinic ordination from RIETS, Yeshiva University, and earned his Master's degree in Education & Administration from Azrieli Graduate School.

At GNS, Rabbi Lichter strives to provide for a diverse and vibrant community by fully immersing himself in the spiritual and physical well-being of his congregation. He provides both inspiring and practical drashot, shiurim and Divrei Torah for his shul as well as a caring and compassionate ear for his congregants. He is especially proud of the work he has done to revitalize the Beit Midrash Minyan, where he speaks every Shabbat. Rabbi Lichter has been integrally involved in the rabbinic decision making, fundraising & overall leadership of the shul.

From 2006-08, Rabbi Lichter was rabbinic intern under Rabbi Menachem Penner at the Young Israel of Holliswood, and Assistant Rabbi at Congregation Shomrei Torah in Fairlawn, NJ under Rabbi Benjamin Yudin from 2008-10. Additionally, he has taught subjects ranging from Talmud & Chumash to English and History at North Shore Hebrew Academy's Middle School and High School, and Yeshivat Kol Yaakov in Great Neck.

Rabbi Lichter and his wife Katie have together undertaken to bring a dynamic spirit of warmth, Torah growth and care to their community. Katie is a graduate of Queens College with a degree in nutrition and a Master's in Early Childhood Education from American College of Education. She teaches kindergarten in North Shore Hebrew Academy. They have four children, Zechariah (15), Yonina (14), Gavi, (12) and Yaffa (10).

SENIOR RABBI
SEARCH COMMITTEE

Rabbi Yitzi Genack

RABBI YITZI GENACK is Associate Rabbi of the Riverdale Jewish Center in New York, where he started as an intern in 2010. Rabbi Genack is passionate about people and Torah, and he finds great satisfaction in teaching and counseling.

Rabbi Genack is deeply engaged with Riverdale's diverse families and individuals. He coordinates the attention and assistance given to those who have been isolated during Covid, especially the elderly. Rabbi Genack also cherishes the close relationships he has developed with the youth in Riverdale. He has worked to expand and develop Saturday Night Learning and Friday evening Kinder Minyan programs.

Rabbi Genack has introduced innovative programs bringing together people for Torah study through technology and social media. The RJC Q&A WhatsApp group has hundreds of active participants and answers thousands of questions a year. Rabbi Genack also hosted a weekly parsha podcast, "Drasha Deconstructed," which teaches the parsha while giving a behind the scenes look at the process of the crafting of a professional drasha.

Rabbi Genack earned his BA in mathematics at Yeshiva College, Semicha from RIETS and an MA in Medieval Jewish History at Yeshiva University. Rabbi Genack was awarded a Wexner Fellowship from Yeshiva University's Kollel Elyon. During that four year fellowship, Rabbi Genack pursued intensive Talmudic and Halachic study and advanced pastoral training.

Rabbi Genack is also an eighth-grade Rebbe at the Rosenbaum Yeshiva of North Jersey. In this role he sees the unique opportunity to influence two communities at multiple levels. He also focuses on the intersection between modern middle school education and the community shul dynamic. In the classroom he often gives examples from his real life experience in pastoral care, psak and teaching a diverse community. Rabbi Genack also serves as a member of the executive board of the Rabbinical Council of America.

Shoshana Genack enjoys hosting Shabbat meals, organizing women's learning opportunities, counseling, supporting and making friends with the wonderful members of the community. Shoshana is an outpatient dietician and diabetes educator at New York Presbyterian. Rabbi Yitzi and Shoshana Genack have five boys and are excited to meet the Shaarei Shomayim community to experience its warmth and vibrancy first-hand.

I LOVE שערי שמים SHAAREI SHOMAYIM

Dear Members,

In the next 2 weeks, we will be welcoming Rabbi Ian Lichter and Rabbi Yitzi Genack and their families to our shul for Probahs as part of our search to hire a new Senior Rabbi. We will be putting together a welcome package for the incoming candidates describing the reasons why you and your families admire our shul. In a sentence or two, we invite you to express why you love Shaarei Shomayim. On each of the Probah Shabbatot we will be printing a special issue of Shabbat Matters where your words of welcome and appreciation for our shul will be included.

Please go to https://www.shomayim.org/form/iloveshsh and complete the sentence "I love Shaarei Shomayim because..." no later than Monday, Feb. 21. Please feel free to ask all members of your family to respond. If you don't wish your name to be included, please indicate it on the form and we will just include your comment. Our goal is to get full participation in this exciting initiative and showcase to each of the Rabbis the warm and welcoming community that we are all part of. Our community and its members are what makes our shul such a remarkable and unique place - we are all blessed to be part of it!

Special thanks to our Board Member Jesse Tepperman for overseeing this project.

Thank you,

Robin Gofine
President
