QUESTION: Should a mourner change his seat in Shul on Shabbat, or should he remain in his regular seat?

ANSWER: The entire question is dependent on the issue of displaying public mourning on Shabbat. The Shulhan Arukh (Yoreh Deah 385:3) notes that one should not display mourning in public on Shabbat. Based on this comment, the Beit Yosef (Yoreh Deah 393) concludes that one should not move his seat on Shabbat. The Rama, however, disagrees and permits one to move his seat on Shabbat. Rabbi Moshe Feinstein, Z”L, supported this practice (Igrot Moshe, Yoreh Deah, volume 1, 257). The Gesher HaChayim, however, is more ambivalent about the topic and leaves it to each community to decide their custom.

The Pnei Baruch on the laws of mourning (chapter 22, foot note 12) comments that if one is a prominent person and everyone would realize he has moved seats (e.g. the Rabbi of a Shul) in such a case he should remain in his regular seat. It is interesting to note that the Taz (Orah Hayim 526) and Rabbi Akiva Eger (Yoreh Deah 393) both state that one should move his seat only if he moved to the new seat before Shabbat began. Thus, it is possible, that one who frequents a given Shul only on Shabbat morning and did not change his seat before Shabbat began should not change his seat on Shabbat day. In light of the above discussion it is the policy of our Shul that a mourner should remain in his regular seat on Shabbat.

Shabbat Shalom!
Young Israel of Century City’s New Siddur Campaign

January 2019
Kislev 5779

Dear Members,

Over the past number of years our Shul has used the Artscroll RCA Siddur that was published back in the 1980’s. That Siddur is no longer being printed and has now been replaced by the newly released RCA-Koren Avodat Halev Siddur.

RCA-Koren’s Avodat HaLev Siddur, reflects years of research, has the endorsement of many Halakhic authorities including Rav Hershel Schachter and Rav Gedaliah Schwartz, is truly a magnificent Siddur, and reflects our community’s Hashkafa.

The NEW RCA-Koren Avodat Halev is a full Siddur for Weekday, Shabbat, Festivals and Holidays, and includes the following features among many others:
- Full contemporary, yet accurate translation
- An entirely new commentary utilizing a wide range of rabbinic as well as academic sources
- Additional prayers for life cycle events, and the observance of Yom HaShoah, Yom HaAtzmaut, and Yom Yerushalayim
- The entire book of Psalms, in Hebrew and English
- Supplementary essays by leading contemporary rabbinic leaders
- Inclusive of men’s and women’s Tefilot
- Detailed on-page halakhic instructions approved by recognized authorities

Search “Koren Publishers Siddur Avodat HaLev” for more information and to view the Siddur.

With a very generous gift from Avi & Zahava Ryzman, our Shul was able to purchase this new Siddur that will eventually replace all the Artscroll Siddurim in the Shul (many of which are torn and missing pages and need to be placed in the Geniza).

Each volume is now available for dedication at $45 a volume. If you wish to dedicate a Siddur, or multiple Siddurim, please fill out the order form below and return it to the Shul office with payment so that we can process your order and insert the dedication label/s.

With warmest regards and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Elazar Muskin, Rabbi
