KIDDUSH CO-SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

Kiddush co-sponsorships at $250 each help our Shul cover the expense of those Shabbatot without a main sponsor and are a nice way to commemorate or celebrate an occasion.

We encourage you to consider this option.

Our program is supported this week by:
• Elisa & Alan Schoenfeld & Family in honor of the 60th Birthday of their brother and uncle, Steven Oppenheim.

Halakhic Corner

Q: What is the correct way to answer Amen?
A: There are many Halachot one should be familiar with regarding the answering of Amen. Rav Yosef Karo and Rav Moshe Isserles (O”C 125/8) outline many of these issues at the end of the Hilchot Shemoneh Esreh. For example, Rav Isserles rules that one should not recite an Amen Chatuda referring to a situation when a person responds Amen without fully hearing the end of the Bracha. It is only appropriate to respond Amen after clearly hearing every word in each Bracha. The Rama also cautions a person from saying an Amen Yetomah – literally an orphaned Amen, which refers to a case in which the person responding Amen does not know what Bracha he or she is responding to. For example, if a person walks into Shul and the congregation is responding Amen, a person should not join the congregation and answer Amen. Similarly, a person should not wait too long to answer Amen to a Bracha; the Amen should be clearly linked to the Bracha just recited.
Additionally, Rav Yosef Karo rules that a person should not elongate the word Amen for too long, lest the proper sound of the word get distorted.

PLEASE HELP US LOCATE THE OWNERS OF NUMEROUS TALIT BAGS AND TALITOT

As we were leaving our old building before the tear-down, our very caring and diligent member, Ron Kaminker, rescued every single talit bag and other such forgotten items from the coat room and Shul, took them home, logged and photographed them. He then had the Shul office email blast the pictures with a request that people come and claim their belongings. Some did; many didn’t. Returning lost items to their owners is a big mitzvah – please look carefully and see if you can recognize anything. You have the pictures in your email folder.

LOST & FORGOTTEN ITEMS IN OUR COAT ROOM

There are still numerous unclaimed items in our Coat Room that have sat there month after month – sad and forgotten. There are a couple of exquisite little girl sweaters, a Yavneh basketball sweatshirt, and several suit coats, one overcoat, etc.

We will be donating ALL unmarked and unclaimed items on Friday, February 1, 2019

We strongly advise all our members to write names into items of clothing or put business or index cards into your pockets. Suit jackets and outerwear many times look very similar, and people often walk off with someone else’s stuff with no way of knowing whose it is.

You can help yourself by clearly marking all your items.

Young Israel of Century City’s New Siddur Campaign

January 2019
Kislev 5779

Dear Members,

Over the past number of years our Shul has used the Artscroll RCA Siddur that was published back in the 1980’s. That Siddur is no longer being printed and has now been replaced by the newly released RCA-Koren Avodat Halev Siddur.

RCA-Koren’s Avodat HaLev Siddur, reflects years of research, has the endorsement of many Halakhic authorities including Rav Hershel Schachter and Rav Gedaliah Schwartz, is truly a magnificent Siddur, and reflects our community’s Hashkafa.

The NEW RCA-Koren Avodat Halev is a full Siddur for Weekday, Shabbat, Festivals and Holidays, and includes the following features among many others:
- Full contemporary, yet accurate translation
- An entirely new commentary utilizing a wide range of rabbinic as well as academic sources
- Additional prayers for life cycle events, and the observance of Yom HaShoah, Yom HaAtzmaut, and Yom Yerushalayim
- The entire book of Psalms, in Hebrew and English
- Supplementary essays by leading contemporary rabbinic leaders
- Inclusive of men’s and women’s Tefillot
- Detailed on-page halakhic instructions approved by recognized authorities

Search “Koren Publishers Siddur Avodat HaLev” for more information and to view the Siddur

With a very generous gift from Avi & Zahava Ryzman, our Shul was able to purchase this new Siddur that will eventually replace all the Artscroll Siddurim in the Shul (many of which are torn and missing pages and need to be placed in the Geniza).

Each volume is now available for dedication at $45 a volume. If you wish to dedicate a Siddur, or multiple Siddurim, please fill out the order form below and return it to the Shul office with payment so that we can process your order and insert the dedication label/s.

With warmest regards and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Elazar Muskin, Rabbi

Benny Friedman is one of the most popular Jewish singers today. He rose to prominence in 2009 on the contemporary Jewish religious music scene with his first album. His biggest hit to date is the song Ivi Anochi (I am a Jew).

Friedman was born in St. Paul, Minnesota, where his father, Rabbi Manis Friedman, was a Chabad Shaliach. His uncle is the Jewish singing superstar Avraham Fried. At age 15 he traveled to Israel to study in the Lubavitcher yeshiva in Safad. He earned rabbinic ordination and worked as a Chabad Shaliach in Tucson, Arizona for several years. He married in 2009 and resides in Brooklyn.

Friedman trained for four years with voice coach Seth Riggs in California. During that time, he created a show called “Judaism: The Song and the Story”, which toured the West Coast for several years. His second album, Yesh Tikvah: Dawn of Moshiach made a splash in the Orthodox Jewish world with its title track, “Yesh Tikvah”.
