The vision of this congregation shall be to establish and maintain an institution that creates an all-embracing egalitarian participatory Conservative synagogue that serves as a Jewish spiritual, cultural, and educational center for children, adults and families. The synagogue will foster Jewish identity and values, promote the observance of Jewish traditions and enhance the spiritual growth of our members; to create a comfortable social environment for our members; to involve the congregation in issues of Jewish concern and interest.

It's hard to believe that the fall Jewish Holidays are so late this year. (Actually, they aren't late – see last month's column!) The extra month has given us time to prepare and get into the rhythm of things before Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and Sukkot arrive. As always, we have a busy High Holy Day season upon us, with meaningful and moving services and festive events over the next few weeks.

My sermon topics for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are as follows:

- Rosh Hashanah, First Day: Imagine
- Rosh Hashanah, Second Day: When is God?
- Erev Yom Kippur: The Four Children
- Yom Kippur: Let's Argue!
- Yom Kippur Study Session (4:00 PM): Psalm 27 – Faith and Doubt in our search for God

Sukkot begins on Sunday, October 13th at sundown. This year, in lieu of a Sukkah Hop with several locations, I would like to extend an invitation to the entire congregation to my Sukkah on Saturday, October 19th at 7:30pm, to celebrate our festive fall holiday.

We conclude our High Holy Days with the celebration of Simchat Torah on Sunday, October 20th at 5 PM, and Monday, October 21st at 10:00 AM, where we will dance with our Torah Scrolls, conclude the Torah and begin it anew. Our evening on October 20th is shaping up to be a wonderful event with our religious school kids and families, and we will be joined by some Muslim colleagues and friends as we showcase one of our more celebratory rituals.

Finally (and a bit selfishly), I have a special birthday at the end of October, and my parents are sponsoring a special Kiddush luncheon for that occasion on Saturday, October 26th after Shabbat services. You are all invited. Please RSVP.

I am excited about my fourth High Holy Day season at Or Atid. I hope to connect with you as we begin the year anew. The beginning of each year is always filled with possibility.

May 5780 bring blessings of health, peace, and renewal to you, Congregation Or Atid, the Jewish People, the United States, and the world. Shanah Tovah!

High Holy Days at Congregation Or Atid – All Are Welcome

Congregation Or Atid, an egalitarian, progressive Conservative synagogue, invites you to join us for our uplifting, participatory High Holiday services and weekly Shabbat services. We are a small, diverse congregation that welcomes all Jews to our community, including interfaith and LGBTQ families. All are welcome to attend our High Holiday Services. If you are new to the area, or have never attended our High Holiday services, we welcome you to join us. If you are a returning non-member guest, we are happy to have you join us again, and we suggest a contribution to our Congregation to help offset administrative and security expenses. Engaging children's services will be conducted and babysitting will be available.

Given the need for tightened security at Jewish institutions, we ask that all non-members, whether new or joining us again, make reservations in advance by contacting our office at 804 740-4747 or visiting www.oratid.org so we will know to expect you. Please bring a valid ID to present on your arrival at the synagogue.

Breaking the Fast after close of Yom Kippur services

Traditionally, members attending Minchah, Ne'ilah and Ma'ariv services break their fast with honey cake and juice. This year we're providing a more substantial "break-fast" (i.e., bagels, lox, kugel, egg and tuna salads, etc), along with casual seating in the Kiddush room, Parlor and Library, rather than in the sanctuary. As always, knowing how many to prepare for is key to having enough food but not preparing to excess. RSVP by Thursday, October 3rd by visiting our website, weekly Highlights email or call the office at 804 740-4747.

Donations to help cover expenses are always welcome, so please consider making a small contribution if you plan to attend. Contact the office if you have questions or require additional information.

LOOK WHO'S GOING

From April 21st-30th, 2020, Congregation Or Atid is excited to join the Jewish Community Federation of Richmond's 85th Anniversary to Mission to Israel, A Sherry Rose Mission, will take the Richmond Jewish community on a transformational journey across Israel. This unforgettable trip in partnership with Richmond synagogues as well as agencies will be a community-wide experience of a lifetime. With different interest tracks of your choosing and dynamic programs, perfect for first time visitors or Israeli travel pro's participants will be treated to amazing sights from the Western Wall to the innovation of Start-up Nation to exciting thought leaders and experts while staying in top rated hotels. Join us as we travel across Israel as a community.

Contact Amanda Braun (804 545-8621 or ABraun@JewishRichmond.org) to learn more.

All Mission Participants will be invited to participate in the 2021JCFR annual Campaign

Sherry Rose Memorial Mission Fund of RJF and JCFR are providing a substantial subsidy for the cost of this trip.

Turn that extra tax refund around and help Or Atid

Almost everyone who filed a Virginia tax return last year will be getting an extra refund this October. That $110 (or $220 for joint filers) is found money and a great opportunity for you to dedicate a Siddur or Chumash www.oratid.org (Support Or Atid tab Prayer Book dropdown), sponsor a Kiddush www.oratid.org (Support Or Atid tab Oneg/Kiddush dropdown) or donate to our endowment fund www.rjfoundation.org (COA Endowment dropdown) and support Congregation Or Atid.

Don't pass up this great opportunity to help make a difference in our Congregational community.

What is the Social Action and Justice Committee? As defined in our Constitution:

“This committee is charged with developing and implementing congregational activities designed to support the value of Tikkun Olam. These activities may include, but are not limited to: visiting the sick, providing assistance to congregants and their families, organizing programs to promote awareness of social issues, and participating in interfaith activities that support fundamental Jewish values.”

Which activities will you support in 2019 - 2020?

Corners of Our Fields

As we prepare to fast on Yom Kippur, it is time to start filling bags with non-perishable, unopened food items (NO GLASS JARS) for FeedMore, Central Virginia’s core hunger-relief organization. Drop off boxes are located inside our main entry doors

FeedMore Backpack Program

During the 2018 – 2019 school year we helped fill 5000 weekend bags for hungry children in the Greater Metro Richmond community. FeedMore greatly appreciates our volunteers and the time we have contributed. We are looking forward to resuming our work when the Backpack Program starts up again in this fall. Dates to be determined.

Beth Sholom Food Pantry – We have been contacted on behalf of Beth Sholom Woods, an apartment building for low income seniors and those with a disability, to join with all the Jewish organizations in the Greater Richmond and Tri-Cities area to provide donation to their Food Pantry. SAJC has agreed to provide non-food donations, including Laundry Detergent (PODS for HD machines preferred), Soap, Dish Soap, Tooth Paste, Cleaning Products, and Paper Items (Toilet Paper, Paper Towels, Napkins) on a quarterly schedule.

Our Shepherds Way Christmas Morning Breakfast – Our Shepherds Way provides breakfast to people without homes in the city throughout the year. We would shop for and provide the ingredients before Christmas. We would arrive to serve breakfast and distribute clothes, emergency food and toiletries Christmas morning.

Doorways – The Doorways organization provides housing for patients and their family members being treated at MCV. We will provide Sunday brunch to family members a few times during the year. We will need shoppers, cooks and servers the day of brunch. We can prepare breakfast onsite or bring from home. Older children are welcome to participate with their parents.

Or Atid Social Action needs your support to meet our goals. Please let us know how you would like to participate in these activities. Sandy Weiner 804 513-6153 sandybethweiner@gmail.com or Merle Kahn 804 363-4584 kahnms@comcast.net
