Regarding the snow forecast for this weekend, an announcement regarding Religious School on Sunday, January 13th will be made no later than Saturday evening. In the event that school is cancelled, the Praying with our Feet program will be rescheduled for Sunday, January 20th. For more information, please contact Alison Litvin.

Tuesday, January 22nd, 9:00 AM: Please consider donating your time and joining the Mitzvah Corp from 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM to volunteer with Feedmore. For more information, contact Sandy Weiner.

Saturday, January 26th, 7:00 PM: The Adult Education Committee invites everyone to the next Spiritual Nosh at the home of Dana and Jason Gwaltney. Congregant Dr. Bruce Rubin, a master magician, will discuss the contributions of Jewish magicians, and teach all attendees a magic trick or two. The evening will include a Havdalah service and a vegetarian dairy potluck dinner. Today is the last day to RSVP! Click here to register online or contact the office to reserve your own magic kit.

Every Saturday, 9:00 AM: Join Rabbi Hal for Tour D'Torah, a Torah study group that meets every Saturday before services. Join us for in depth discussions as the Sfat Emet, a 20th century Hasidic commentary on Torah, leads us through Torah, the spiritual quest, and moral living.

If you would like to sponsor Oneg or Kiddush, please contact Marilyn Wiener at 804 740-6856 or mbwiener48@yahoo.com.

Wednesday, January 9th-13th: Interested in Israeli Cinema? The Weinstein JCC is excited to present the 2019 Israeli Film Festival, taking place January 9th-13th with a new film showing each day. Films include An Israeli Love Story, The Essential Link, Shelter, and The Cakemaker. General Admission is $10, but an All Films Pass is available for $35. Discounted prices are available to JCC members, and each screening includes concessions. Click here to read more about each film and the event. Visit the JCC's website to purchase your tickets.

Thursday, January 17th, 7:00 - 9:00 PM: The Friendship Circle of Virginia and the Jewish Community Federation of Richmond welcome noted inclusion expert, Shelly Christensen, for a town-hall style discussion and panel on the "Inclusion Temperature" in our community. The panel will include professionals in the field, along with persons with disabilities and families dealing with these issues in our community. This is a chance to share your views, learn from others, and grow together as a community. Shelly will be signing copies of her book, and refreshments will be served. Click here to register. Contact Sara Rosenbaum at the Federation, or Sarah Kranz-Ciment with Friendship Circle.

Sunday, January 20th-21st, 11:30 AM - 7:30 PM: Join the Richmond Jewish community for the 12th annual Richmond Jewish Food Festival, taking place at the Weinstein JCC. Featuring a variety of Jewish dishes, live music from Jewish artists and local children's choirs, and a shuk filled with all sorts of goods and services from a large selection of vendors, you won't want to miss this delicious event. Admission is free, and you can view the menu here. For more information, please visit the Festival's website.

Wednesday, February 6th, 8:00 AM - 2:00 PM: The annual JCRC Virginia Jewish Advocacy Day is an opportunity to come together and make your voice heard. Join members of Jewish communities from all across the state to meet with elected officials, including Governor Ralph Northam and Lt. Governor Justin Fairfax. Speak up and represent our Jewish community to share and discuss the what matters most to us. Click here to see the JCRC'S 2019 VA Legislative Priorities. The event will take place at the Suntrust Building at 919 E. Main Street, and a kosher lunch will be served. Since downtown parking is limited, there will be a shuttle bus available. The bus will leave the Weinstein JCC at 7:45 AM. For more information about the event, please contact Andrew Fishman at the Federation. Click here to register; the deadline for registration February 2nd.
