Saturdays, 9:00 AM: Join Rabbi Hal for Tour D'Torah, a Torah study group that meets every Saturday before services. This year we are studying the Sfat Emet, an early 20th century Hasidic commentary on the Torah. The Sfat Emet uses the weekly Torah portion as a way of teaching about our inner spiritual lives and encountering God in all of our experiences. Join us for in depth discussions as the Sfat Emet leads us through Torah, the spiritual quest, and moral living.

Saturday, November 10th, 10:00 AM: Join the 6th and 7th grade students from the Helen and Sam Kornblau Religious School as they participate in this morning's Shabbat service.

Sunday, November 11th, 10:30 AM: Ways and Means Committee is excited to announce that Congregation Or Atid will be hosting a showing of the movie, Big Sonia, at the Bow Tie Cinema, located at 1301 N. Boulevard. Following the movie, there will be a talkback discussion that will focus on what the movie can teach us about injustice, tolerance, and inclusivity within our own community. Tickets are $15 and include popcorn and a drink, and student discounts are available. Visit our website for more information, and click here to order your tickets. Today is the last day to order your tickets.

To allow Religious School Parents the opportunity to see the film, we will be extending school pick-up time for interested families. Please contact Alison if you are interested in registering your child.

Friday, November 16th, 6:15 PM: Thanksgiving Shabbat!

Join us for a Thanksgiving-inspired dinner, substituting chicken for turkey, as we gather together for an evening at Or Atid. Like the early Pilgrims, we encourage you to invite a guest (or two!) to our meal. You must RSVP, to the office or via our website, by tomorrow, Friday, November 9th. Click Here to RSVP.

Sunday, December 2nd, 10:00 AM: Families all over Richmond are invited to join Or Atid students at the RCJE Hannukah Carnival. Taking place at the Weinstein JCC, there will be Hannukah-themed games, crafts, and activities for kids of all ages. Our teachers will be running these booths, and we look forward to seeing you there! Please note, to allow teachers and families to attend the event, there will be no classes on this day. For more information, contact Sara Rosenbaum at the Jewish Federation at 804 545-8629.

If you would like to sponsor Oneg or Kiddush, please contact Marilyn Wiener at 804 740-6856 or mbwiener48@yahoo.com.

Monday, November 26th, 6:00 PM: In recent years, there has been a resurgence of interest in the Jewish deli menu; Restaurateurs are deliberately making American Jewish food fit for the 21st century, emphasizing sustainability, local produce, and a nostalgic longing for family and communal histories. Join Professor Rachel B. Gross for a talk on "The Jewish Deli Revival: Buying and Selling American Jewish Nostalgia" at the VCU College of Humanities and Sciences, in the Academic Learning Commons, Room 1107. Explore how a revitalized deli cuisine connects American Jews to their culture and community.
