Monday, March 23rd, 7:30 PM-8:30 PM, Adult Education Event - Pesach in a time of Emergency

Because of current circumstances, Pesach is going to look a lot different this year.

Join an honest conversation about how we are all going to do Pesach this year. This is a new experience for us all, so Rabbi Hal will be offering some answers, but will also looking to hear from you as to what changes you will be making as well as what you will need to make your own Seders. Rabbi Hal will also offer possible leniencies in Pesach prep and observance that are available because of our present situation.

Tuesday, March 24th, 10:00 AM-11:00 AM, Ask the Rabbi

Let's take advantage of our down time at home and just talk! Join us for an open discussion about anything that's on your mind. What questions do you have for Rabbi Hal? You can email Rabbi Hal in advance.

Monday, March 30th, 7:30 PM-9:00 PM, Adult Education Event – Secrets of the Seder

Our rescheduled lunch-and-learn. Tune in to learn the origins of the Seder and its components. Why do we eat these foods? Where do the four questions come from? Where do the four children come from? How many plagues were there? Why do we welcome Elijah? Discover the answer to these questions, and many more, as Rabbi Hal takes us on a journey through the Haggadah, the Torah, the Mishnah, the Talmud, and more.
