Save the Date: Friday, January 15th - David Cohen, Director of Jewish Community Relations for the Jewish Community Federation of Richmond will be speaking at Shabbat services "The Meaning of Jewish Advocacy in 2021".

Community Happenings

Meaningful Meals was started locally during the pandemic crisis to give back to the frontline workers supporting the Richmond Metro area. We are striving to reach deeper into our community, we joined Richmond Jewish Foundation (RJF) which now manages our funds and will allow us to treat your generosity as a charitable contribution. Unlike many endowments, we plan to use all our funds as quickly and as efficiently as possible.

The word has gotten out and our donors have increased exponentially. With more supporters, we can reach more frontline workers. We have provided meals to the staff of the Bon Secours Hospice House, to the critical care nurses at Chippenham hospital, and our plan for December is to thank the environmental services who clean at another local hospital.

A supporter, Louis Campbell, owner of Garnish, a local catering company, delivers our delicious meals for free and has generously set the price at a nominal cost of $10 each.

We invite you to join us to provide meals for more frontline workers. You can do this through the Richmond Jewish Foundation (RJF). A $100 donation will provide 10 meals. We hope you will consider donating $100 to Meaningful Meals, but we are delighted with any contribution. With your support, we can honor a multitude of frontline workers!

You can donate to Meaningful Meals in either of the following ways:

A check to Richmond Jewish Foundation with Meaningful Meals in the memo line, mailed to RJF, PO Box 17128, Richmond, VA 23226 or

Donate online at <https://www.rjfoundation.org/donors/donate/>

We plan to update you monthly on all scheduled meal deliveries. We are a TEAM. If you have a connection to frontline workers, please contact one of us, we would be delighted to hear from you. Please feel free to invite additional donors to join us. Thank you very much for honoring our frontline workers.
