Shabbat Services

Friday night: 7:30 PM
Saturday morning: 10:00 AM

Throughout the year we like to keep our young adults encouraged as they embark on their journey in college life. Please ensure that our Care Committee has each student's name, physical address, and email, so we can provide cards and care packages. Please email this information to Ellen Bernstein at ellenbernstein1@gmail.com

Back-to-School SHABBARBEQUE!

Please join us on Friday, September 6th at 6:15 PM for Hamburgers, Hotdogs and other yummy stuff with services to follow with our guest accompanist Marcy Horwitz. During services, Amanda Braun and Alison Litvin will be speaking about their experience to the Ukraine. We look forward to seeing you! Click Here to RSVP

Don't forget to register your children for the 2019/2020 School Year. Click Here for Registration Forms. Contact Alison Litvin at relscool@oratid.org for questions or concerns.

The Kornblau Religious School's Kindness Garden is blooming- and we are asking our Or Atid family if any gardeners out there would like to contribute and be involved as our garden continues to grow. If you would be interested in assisting with garden workshops, speaking with students about the connection between spirituality and ecology, or in donating supplies, plants, or funds to keep the garden thriving, please contact Alison Litvin or call the office at 804 740-4747.

Non-Jew Crew Event on Wednesday, September 11th, 7:30 PM at Hardywood Brewery – West Creek location. The Fall Jewish Holidays "Why are we going to shul so much?" An open and informative conversation about Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and Sukkot, and their importance to both Jews and non-Jews. Click Here to Register

Selichot

Join us Saturday, September 21st at 7:30 PM, as we officially begin the High Holy Day season, preparing for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur with a conversation and reflections on our lives over the past year and how we can strive to make them better in the year ahead.

Come participate as we ritually change our Torah covers and accoutrements, and sing the melodies of the season in a Selichot Service led by our Hazzanim Ron Fink, Sheila Pour, and Rabbi Hal. Desserts and refreshments will be served! Click Here to RSVP by September 13th

High Holidays

It's getting to be that time of year again...the High Holidays are just around the corner. All are welcome to attend our High Holiday Services. Due to the need for tightened security we ask that members register all their visiting family and guest by visiting our website or by calling the office 804 740-4747.

Non-members, whether new or joining us again, must register by visiting our website or by calling the office 804 740-4747, so we know you are coming and please bring a valid ID to present upon arrival at the synagogue. Click Here To Register

All Yizkor Book additions, corrections, or deletions need to be in to Marilyn Wiener by September 20th Click Here for the Form

Mark Your Calendars...October 25th, and November 22nd Marcy Horwitz will be accompanying on guitar at our Friday night Shabbat Services.
