Zoom Announcement

We endeavour to zoom Shacharis (7:15 am) & Plag Mincha Sundays through Thursdays.

We will continue to provide you with this option however, from time to time we may be unable to do so due to circumstances beyond our control such as not enough people to form an indoor minyan. We hope that very soon we will all be together again in the Shul.

BAYT Bingo

We would like extend a HUGE thank you to Marcee Rosenzweig who organizes and runs the BAYT Bingo for seniors. This weekly online program provided many who were locked in with a fun and interactive program. The benefits bingo gave were evident not just to the participants, but to many businesses in our community who donated gifts for winners as an acknowledgement of the wonderful initiative Marcee began. Bingo is taking a short break till after the chagim - Marcee, enjoy your well deserved break!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

•BINYAN HABAYT•

Building the future of the BAYT

Through our new Binyan HaBAYT initiative you can help build an exciting future for our Shul.

Covid and other factors dramatically impacted the Shul's finances. Last year, we launched a crisis campaign that you and many other members generously supported. The campaign will continue with a number of upcoming events and activities. We are confident that it will allow the Shul to address its short-term challenges.

Now, we must turn our attention to the long-term and the new financial reality that confronts the Shul. Revenue from membership contributions and catering commissions will no longer be enough to sustain a thriving kehilla of over 700 members. Continuing to meet the needs of our members and the community requires increased, reliable and enduring revenue. That is the goal of Binyan HaBAYT.

When you participate in Binyan HaBAYT you agree to pay annual membership dues that are above and beyond standard membership amounts. In appreciation, you will be recognized in various ways and will receive many important benefits. Depending on your annual giving level, these include reserved High Holiday seating, VIP seating at Shul events and free admission to many programs. A full listing of giving levels and accompanying benefits is on the other side of this letter.

With its remarkable success over the past 40 years the BAYT has touched the lives of thousands of Jewish families in Thornhill and beyond. Today, under the leadership of Rabbi Korobkin along with our Executive and Board, we are planning for a vibrant and exciting future. With a new Assistant Rabbi, our new youth directors as well as many new initiatives, we are re-opening ready to serve our members and the community. We will be a magnet for Jewish living and learning in Vaughan as well as a leader among Orthodox shuls.

As a builder in our Binyan HaBAYT campaign, you have the opportunity to become a pillar of the future and part of a select corps of visionaries who are ensuring the success of our Shul. We look forward to having you join many others who have become Binyan HaBAYT builders.

Please feel free to contact any of the people below to discuss this unique opportunity.

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER

TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

May I eat in a room which is normally used for davening?

Halachic respect for a shul prohibits eating in spaces which are dedicated for davening. However, there are exceptions, including the following:

- People who learn Torah regularly in a shul may eat in that room while learning, if leaving to eat would take time from their studies;
- A seudat mitzvah may be held in a shul, but most authorities require that the meal not be lavish;
- A community which has a great need to feed people in a shul temporarily, may do so, if they are outside of Israel;
- Caretakers may eat in a shul while carrying out their duties.

(Megilah 28a-b; Talmud Yerushalmi Pesachim 1:1; Shulchan Aruch Orach Chaim 151:1,4,11; Magen Avraham 151:5; Sdei Chemed V Beit haKnesset 40 and Pe'at haSadeh Beit haKnesset 4; Mishneh Berurah 151:5,7,17,20; Biur Halachah 151 v'ain; Aruch haShulchan Orach Chaim 151:6; Yechaveh Daat 3:10; Pninei Halachah Likutim 1:6:8)

DVAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER

cmetzger@torontotorah.com

Forbidden Dark Magic

Why can't we do magic? What makes it so hated that it is called an abomination? Is it so bad to wish to be like the illustrious Harry Potter or the mythical Merlin?

The great rational theologians such as Rabbi Saadia Gaon, Rambam, and Rabbi Levi ben Gershon believe that it is impossible for there ever to have been true magic, and any magic they are performing is just a trick. Rambam takes umbrage at all those pulling the wool over others eyes, leading them astray through sleight of hand. Rambam places the prohibition within the laws of idolatry, as both of these actions lead us away from G-d.

The more mystically minded amongst our sages, such as the Ramban, believe that magic is in fact theoretically possible. So then why can't we go to Hogwarts?

While G-d may have created the world with these mechanisms in place, deviating from the natural order that G-d intended is an anathema. Stealing an item instead of paying, when both are possibilities, is also termed an abomination.

When we meet problems in life we must take the proper path even if it is challenging, and not look for magical shortcuts.

ACCOUNTANCEMENTS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Preparation for the Yamim Nora'im can be stressful in the best of times. Its early arrival this year, the start of the fourth wave and, of course, BAYT membership renewal, present a convergence of challenges we can handle. But we need your cooperation and patience. Hopefully, this update will give our members some needed clarity.

1. We expect to open ticketing registration early next week.
2. We expect to e-mail tickets on Thursday, September 2.
3. The office plans to be open for ticketing matters on Sunday, September 5.
4. We expect about 1,000 people to daven with us, similar to last year. Of that, approximately 300 members have expressed their preference to daven outside.
5. We expect to procure a second tent to accommodate more people outdoors.
6. Our need for extra minyanim stretches the roster of volunteers who can lead tefillah, layn and blow shofar. Please contact Chaim Levy if you can help out.
7. We will have youth programs, but they will be open to member families only, and registration will be required.
8. Masks will remain mandatory at BAYT, including for children in youth programs.

With daily new COVID cases increasing rapidly, our plans may have to change. Thank you for your understanding.

As of this writing, we likely removed direction on our website for current members to contact our membership coordinator, Atara Engel, to renew membership. Atara has been inundated with emails. You should not email Atara to renew your membership. Rather follow the directions in the next paragraph.

Dues for 5782 have been posted to all member accounts. To renew your membership, please log in to your membership account to view your updated invoice, current balances and to make payment arrangements. Your membership is considered renewed only once payment arrangements have been made for the upcoming year. If you do nothing, your membership will not automatically renew.

We understand some of you may need to call the office for assistance with ticketing and renewals. Our dedicated staff is here to serve you. While most members appreciate their hard work, some do not. It is never acceptable for anyone to speak to any BAYT employee in a condescending, abusive, derogatory, untruthful, or berating manner for any reason or to speak bad of our employees to others. BAYT will not tolerate such incidents.

Now more than ever, let's treat one another with kindness, love, and respect.

Shabbat Shalom.
