ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Binyan HaBAYT campaign gave us the opportunity to give back in a small way to our BAYT.

We moved to Thornhill in 1991 and joined the shul as a very young family where we were welcomed and immediately felt part of a special kehillah. The shul has always been at the centre of our lives. For our children, the sweetness of Torah may have started with candies from Rabbi Taub and learning to sitting in shul. Our children grew up learning Mishnayos, and later Gemara but their favourite place was to learn in shul. Davening on Shabbos morning with groups, BAYT camp, Latke Night, Succos carnivals, are just a few of the memories that come to mind. Growing up in the BAYT means the privilege of progressing from youth minyan to high school minyan through to JLIC and onwards. It means fostering lifelong friendships with people who become like family. Looking to the future, we hope and pray that our grandchildren share similar positive experiences as they grow.

Now, we know that of Rabbi Korobkin, is there for us 24/7. Halachic questions are answered and guidance is given from the perspective of someone who truly cares and would advise his own children with the same care he advises our family.

The BAYT is our Mikdash Me'at and when we look back at how fortunate we were and continue to be, it is important to realize that it is up to each and every one of us to ensure the continuity of our BAYT. Every home needs consistent investments to retain and increase its value. How much more is true for our Mikdash Me'at!

Being the beneficiaries of belonging to such a special kehilla, we believe that the Binyan HaBAYT campaign is our opportunity to ensure that our grandchildren will have the same opportunities that our children did.

Wishing you a Chag Kasher V'sameach!

With much appreciation,
Robert and Lynn Lichtenstein

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRESIDENT MESSAGE:

By the time you read this (noon Friday), the official slate for next year's BAYT Executive Committee and Board will either be acclaimed or contested. You will note old and new names on the official slate this year. Finances and governance continue to be paramount with 4 CPA nominees (and me a fifth as past president). One of the CPAs, Yaakov Adatto, has been serving on the budget and finance committee with outgoing treasurer Jonathan Hames. Howard Wasserman has been 'apprenticing' with outgoing Gabbi David Kaplan. Craig Guttmann (not a CPA), co-chair of our fundraising committee, has made sure the bean counters had beans to count.

As a covenantal people, serving others is what Jews do. We do not think about it. We just do it. 'Shkoach to all the nominees as well as the Nominations Committee (Michael Mammon, Mitch Silverstein, Aliza Gershuni, myself, and chair Zac Kaye).

Starting with the Mayflower, Americans fancied themselves as a covenantal people. Reference to the Israelites and Torah are commonplace in the writings of the Pilgrims (many of whom were anti-Semites), our Founding Fathers and the speeches of every single President since. As Rabbi Jonathan Sacks z'l wrote on this week's parsha, "covenantal politics is moral politics, driving an elemental connection between the fate of a nation and its vocation. This is statehood as a matter not of power but of ethical responsibility."

As an American, lifelong Republican and licensed gun owner, I mourn the demise of civil political discourse and compromise in the United States. If the American covenant with one another is anything other than words mimicking our Torah, enough is enough. Mass shootings in schools, supermarkets, synagogues, churches, or masjids are not OK. Doing nothing is not OK. And in the 50 years since Roe v. Wade, Congress could have legislated on women's rights one way or another but did not. President Obama had a filibuster proof Congress in 2009. Nothing. When it comes to individual rights, it is risky business to leave the law of the land up to the nine unelected individuals who serve as lifetime justices on the United States Supreme Court.

Ontarians vote for a new Provincial Parliament this Thursday. Fulfill your covenantal responsibility. Vote.

Shabbat Shalom.

Jeffrey Brown

P.S. A special shout out to our members David Elmaleh and Aaron Rosenberg for their legal work defending the labelling of produce from Judaea and Shomron as produce from Israel. Join me in a toast, with Psagot wine of course!

DIVREI TORAH & NOTICE BOARD

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

I normally sit for kiddush and stand for havdalah; what do I do when Shabbat leads into Yom Tov, so that havdalah is part of kiddush?

The berachah of havdalah within kiddush adopts the posture of the kiddush in which it is recited. Those who normally sit for kiddush should sit for this berachah of havdalah, too, and those who normally stand for kiddush should stand for this berachah of havdalah, too.

Also: one should not intentionally overflow the cup of wine which will be used for this combined kiddush and havdalah. Rabbi Shlomo Zalman Auerbach explains that one goal of overflowing the cup is as a sign of blessing for one's livelihood, and that is inappropriate during Yom Tov.

(Kaf haChaim 473:20; Mishneh Berurah 296:28; Shemirat Shabbat k'Hilchatah 62:15, 17)

D'VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

G-d guarantees that if we follow all of the mitzvot, that we will have peace in the land. But why does it also say 'no sword shall cross your land' (Vayikra 26:6)?

Rashi explains based on the Halakhic Midrash Sifra that even though it seems unnecessary that no sword will enter your land, it means that armies will not even pass through your land to wage battle with a different nation. But what is so bad about an allied army passing through?

Ralbag, Rabbi Levi ben Gershon, a French Rabbi and philosopher from 13th century France elucidates that there is still damage or fear that can befall the people. An army passing through can quickly turn into a hostile force.

In fact, King Yoshiyahu refused entry to Pharaoh Necho who sought to do battle with Babylon based on this verse. Thinking that the Jews were sufficiently righteous to merit no army crossing Israel, King Yoshiyahu made a tragic mistake which led to a war with Egypt and King Yoshiyahu's death.

G-d willing, one day we will merit to have no sword cross our land in Israel. Until that day we must strive for peace because every sword can be double edged.
