Shinshinot at BAYT

BAYT is extremely fortunate to have 2 female UJA Shinshinot joining us in September!

The Shinshin program is an elite, pre-army, gap-year program where young Israelis join Jewish communities around the world to provide cutting-edge, contemporary Israeli programming. Each pair of Shinshinim work with a school and a shul (the BAYT Shinshinot will also be volunteering at Netivot HaTorah Day School).

The Shinshinim live with host families in the community. Hosting a Shinshin is truly an amazing and enriching experience.

We are looking for 4 host families - 2 for September to January, and 2 for February to June.

If you are interested in applying, or to learn more, please reach out to Jessica Gilbert (jessica.anne.gilbert@gmail.com). Jessica and her husband, Steve Mendel, were privileged to host one of the Shinshinot this year and are happy to answer any questions you may have about the experience.

DIVREI TORAH & NOTICE BOARD

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

May I recite Tehillim on Tisha b'Av for people who are ill?

We are not allowed to learn Torah on Tisha b'Av, because Torah study is associated with joy. Only texts which are associated with misery and mourning, like Eichah and Iyov, may be learned, and even then not in a joyous way. However, we are permitted to recite passages from Tanach as part of our normal davening, because davening is not viewed as an act of Torah study. Also, one who wishes to recite Tehillim for a person who is dangerously ill may do so at any time.

Regarding non-urgent needs, including reciting Tehillim as part of a daily Tehillim schedule, some authorities recommend waiting until after midday, or even until the next day. This is because Tehillim includes joyous passages, and because there is an element of Torah study every time we read a biblical sentence, regardless of the purpose.

(Ta'anit 30a, Ritva ibid.; Tur and Shulchan Aruch Orach Chaim 554:4; Magen Avraham 554:6; Aruch haShulchan Orach Chaim 554:6; Mishneh Berurah 554:7; Binyan Olam Orach Chaim 30; Rivivot Ephraim 3:368; Teshuvot v'Hanhagot 5:309:8; Piskei Teshuvot Orach Chaim 554:4)

D'VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

What is the meaning of the word Eichah? How can there be so many ways of reading it?

In the simple sense of the word, it means how. But the emotions and context in which the word is read change everything.

In Midrash Eichah Rabbah (1,1) the understanding of Eichah changes yet again. Rabbi Yehudah explains Eichah as rebuke, citing shortly before the destruction of the First Beit HaMikdash when Yirmiyahu (Yirmiyahu 8: 8-9) chastises Israel, "How can you say 'we are wise and the Torah of G-d is with us' when you commit falsehoods and write forgeries?" Rabbi Nehemiah interprets Eichah as the manner of Kinah, lamentation. His proof text isn't Eichah itself, rather in Parshat Breishit (3:9) when "G-d calls out to Adam, Ayekah, where are you?" And Rabbi Nehemiah interprets it as Oy Lecha, woe unto you.

This week we read the word Eichah, how, whether it be in our parsha Devarim (1:12) asking "Eicha, how can I alone bear your loads, burdens, and strife", our Haftarah for Shabbat Chazon (Yeshayahu 1:21) "Eichah, how has the faithful city become a harlot" and begin Megillat Eichah on Tisha B'Av "Eichah, How she sits alone." Which emotions and feelings we say it with will determine the nature of the week, 'how' we relate to the destruction of the Beit Hamikdash.
