PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Maddie Leventhal Mikveh Project

What an amazing six weeks it has been! There are many people to recognize and thank, but let me start with our amazing Mikveh Chairs, Lisa Berman and Sonya Kaplan. Thank you for your wonderful dedication, day in and day out, rain or snow, with lights and without lights and many other challenges, for the heroic contributions you display for the women using the BAYT's Maddie Leventhal Mikveh three hundred and sixty five days a year. Your passion is contagious and it's one of the countless reasons so many people stepped forward to assist this important campaign.

I keep saying that our community is very generous, but this project displayed that in a short time, we could raise the funds to refresh and modernize our mikveh so that the users will enjoy the highest spiritual experience possible in such an inspiring surrounding.

A huge todah rabbah to our Mikveh Project Chairs Alla Volfson and Shari Vodiano. Stepping forward as leaders in the BAYT community, taking on this particular project shows you have such honour, respect and passion for our mikveh.

Thank you to the rabbinic leadership and guidance led by our Rav, Rabbi Korobkin, Rabbi Scheiner and Rabbi Lesher, Rabbi Goldman— yasher koach!

Thank you to the rest of the committee for the grunt work: Chuck English, Avi Deutsch, Rosy Rosenzweig and Lindsay Salmon (Mazel Tov!!!!). And what a phenomenal team in the BAYT office, led by Avital Sandler and her crew for this project, Shimon Szmuszkowicz, Melanie Emanuel, and Talia Pesachov.

This was truly a heartwarming community mikvah project in partnership with Kollel Ohr Yosef. There were also many other Jewish organizations assisting us, so a huge thank you to: Aish Toronto, Congregation Ayin L'Tzion and Zichron Yisroel, Westmount Shul & Learning Centre, Beit Midrash Zichron Dov of Toronto, Mizrachi Canada, Clanton Park Synagogue, Congregation B'nai Torah Toronto, Thornhill Woods Shul, Bnei Akiva Schools, Rabbi Avraham Gislason Minyan and Bais Tefilloh Franklin.

I would like to reiterate Lisa's message last week and express my gratitude and to the team of attendants who dedicate themselves to helping women fulfill this mitzvah. Mercedes Elmaleh, Deena Mammon, Simy Bitton, Denise Myerowitz and Laya Witty are a devoted group of women who put their holy work above all else. It is only because of them that the mikveh could remain safely open through the pandemic.

A huge thank you to all our donors, especially the matching donors, who made it possible to raise over $400,000! No words can really express my gratitude for your leadership and generosity. May you and your families be blessed with much health and happiness.

After my return from Israel, as Esther and I are off to Israel for our nephew's wedding, I will form a Mikveh Renovation Committee, under the House Committee, which will be responsible for the design and renovation which will be carried out on time and on budget.

May Meira Leah bas Michael's neshama have an aliyah and may this holy congregation be blessed to continue to be a leader of chessed for Thornhill, Toronto and k'lal Yisrael.

Shabbat Shalom!
Craig Guttman, President

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER

TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

If I eat an appetizer before washing for bread, should I say a separate berachah acharonah (after-blessing) for the appetizer before washing? (Part 2)

Last week, we said that food eaten before a bread meal normally requires its own berachah acharonah. However, we said it does not require its own berachah acharonah if the berachah recited before eating the pre-meal food also covers food eaten during the meal. This can happen if one eats fruit before a meal. Fruit eaten during a bread meal, but not actually with bread, requires its own borei pri ha'eitz. So if one recites borei pri ha'eitz on fruit before a meal, planning to have some during the meal itself, then the pre-meal snack is considered part of the meal and it is all covered by birkat hamazon.

We also said that food eaten before a bread meal does not require its own berachah acharonah if the food is halachically part of the meal. This happens with meals on Shabbat, if one eats a course between kiddush and netilat yadayim. Since kiddush must be recited with a meal, everything consumed after kiddush is considered part of the same meal. Therefore, one does not recite a berachah acharonah on a course eaten before washing for hamotzi.

(Mishneh Berurah 176:2; Biur Halachah 176 beirach; Rabbi Yisroel Bodner, Halachos of Berachos, Chapter 19)

D'VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER

CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

Zion says to start our Haftarah that "G-d has abandoned me, G-d has forgotten me" (Yeshayahu 49:14). How can Zion, representing Israel, say that? Doesn't she know about reward and punishment?

The second paragraph of Shma, Vihaya Im ShaMoa, which is in our Parshah, Eikev, lays out how our success or failure is tied to our observance of G-d's commandments. Doesn't Zion realize her sins are the cause of the destruction which she laments?

Bnei Yisrael feel destitute. G-d has seemingly turned his back on them.

The Beit HaMikdash lies in ruins and they are exiled to far away lands. How could they not feel abandoned and forgotten?

Bnei Yisrael may or may not not intellectually understand reward and punishment, but first their emotional reaction must be addressed.

G-d explains through Yeshayahu that our punishment comes out of G-d's love for us, like a parent for a child. Once we recognize that G-d truly loves us, then we can be comforted and begin to return to Him.
