PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The BAYT welcomes IDF Col. Golan Vach, Commander of Search and Rescue operations in southern Israel.

I can imagine the scene at Har Sinai just after receiving the luchot from Hashem. Moshe returns to the camp of Israel with this amazing gift from Hashem. Moshe sees that Bnai Yisrael have sinned. A great sin. We have all visualized the moment. The instant when Bnai Yisrael have done wrong and feel the deep pit in the stomach. Or the moment when you heard that Israel was attacked on October 7th or when you realized that hostages were kidnapped and taken to Gaza. That's what I feel when I read the words of Col. Vach:

"The music festival was the most difficult scene I've witnessed in my life. I've had twenty years of natural disasters like hurricanes and earthquakes. I was a combat officer in Lebanon and in Hebron. I've seen everything, and this was something else. They had one goal - not to massacre, but to humiliate."

Colonel Vach will address the kehilla after davening on Shabbat morning in the Main Sanctuary.

Talking about the Main Sanctuary, the members highly enjoyed the drasha and shiur given by Rabbanit Taragan last week. One member shared, "I just wanted to express my thanks for a very meaningful Shabbat with Rabbanit Taragin. It was incredibly special to hear such a holy and learned woman speak from the bimah. The women's section was especially full, which I think is a testament to the significance of having a woman speak from the pulpit."

A big thank you to the Canadian Yoatzot Initiative, Rivka Sonenberg and Hadassah Thau for putting this wonderful Shabbat together.

A big thank you to our Rav and Melissa Lantsman for their fireside chat (do we have a fireplace?) this past week. It was a very informative conversation covering many issues, but none more important than antisemitism and security in Canada and around the world. Melissa spoke about many things, but some of the highlights for me were her comments like: we are in the fight of our lives, Western civilization versus barbarism; we are seeing everything against the freedom that we fought so hard as an immigrant family from Soviet Union; that it is unconscionable that IRGC is funding mosques in Canada; we must fix the immigration system and the point system which brought critical trades to build a greater country are no longer; police enforcement is not the problem but rather there are no consequences for stealing as one example (she called it the stealing car frequent flyer program); governments have been defunding the police for the past ten years; her plan to get rid of DEI at the federal level; starve UNRWA; MAiD is a huge problem and must be addressed as it unreal that the current government is trying to apply MAiD to those with mental disabilities and next will be people with disabilities, resulting in a "dehumanization of life".

One question posed by an attendee was whether it was time to give up on the future of Canada and I thought her answer was important. Melissa said this can all be fixed and put back on track. It can be turned around. Don't give up hope. Canada is the greatest country in the world, Melissa said. My father used to say that all the time. Next to Israel of course.

Melissa addressed the SIP grants. SIP grants are Communities at Risk: Security Infrastructure Program (SIP) which provide time-limited funding and support for communities at risk of hate-motivated incidents/crime to enhance security measures at their gathering spaces. The BAYT and other Toronto synagogue's applications were ALL shockingly denied. Melissa added that Montreal shuls were denied as well. However, the government did introduce an eSIP in late January, but all paperwork (and there was A LOT) had to be in by February 18th. The stipulation is that all the grant money and work has to be spent and completed by March 31st. This week we received the approval for the eSIP. I am very grateful to my first VP David Lithwick for working so hard to secure the $115,000 grant. The exec and board were grilling David days before about the spending and the plan. We are now working diligently to get the work completed on time. It means very important security updates to outdated equipment, security gates and much more, including funds for more security guards. Yashar Koach David. Your love of maintaining the BAYT building is remarkable and appreciated.

Also, a huge thank you to the BAYT Security Team who ensured the safe environment provided for the fireside chat. Thank you to Alan Jaff, Steve Mortfield, Aaron Rosenberg, Rabbi Witty and Josh Katchen for your assistance. It is very much appreciated. Some people tried to sign up for the event after the deadline passed. Please understand that the BAYT has multiple events and security is a very high priority. One of the ways to ensure safety is to have all attendees pre-register (weddings included) which enables security to check off everyone entering the building. It also helps the facilities staff prepare seating for events. In the future, please register on time. It really helps the office staff greatly and we do not want to disappoint members. There is no pleasure in denying people access to events.

And as many of you know, David Lithwick is one of the chairs of the Mikveh Committee along with Lisa Berman. We are getting close to the official opening of the Keilim Mikveh and the Mikveh. The weather cooperated this week and rainwater we received. Thank you, Hashem. We look forward to the Keilim Mikveh opening very soon. Entry for members will be accessed with your fobs during operational hours. Check the bulletin for details. We welcome you to attend our Chanukas HaBayis, the official opening for the mikveh, on Sunday, March 10 at 4pm. It is incumbent on our membership to attend this momentous occasion. Sponsorship opportunities will be publicized shortly. The Mikveh is stunning. No expense was spared. I will write more about it in the coming weeks.

And finally, Mazel Tov to the those studying Daf Yomi who completed Baba Kamma on Thursday! Yashar Koach!

Shabbat Shalom

INTRODUCTIONS TO THE LAWS OF PRAYER

BY RABBI ADAM FRIEDMANN

AFRIEDMANN@TORONTOTORAH.COM

Why Do We Pray Three Times a Day?

The Talmud records a debate about the nature of our three daily prayers. According to one view, our patriarchs Avraham, Yitzchak, and Yaakov established the daily prayers of Shacharit, Minchah, and Maariv respectively. According to a second view, the prayers were established by Chazal and based on the daily sacrificial service in the Beit Hamikdash.

The Talmud concludes that both views are correct. The patriarchs established the three prayers. Each one is innovative in that each represents a different emotional context from within which we turn to G-d. However, the patriarchs' establishment of the prayers was not halachically binding. The halachic system of prayer was established later by Chazal and they modeled this system on the daily sacrifices.

Many details of the laws of prayer reflect the fact that the prayers are modeled after the sacrifices. The times for the daily prayers match the times for the daily sacrifices. On days when a Mussaf sacrifice is offered, we likewise add an extra prayer service. An individual may recite extra voluntary prayers in the same way that they can offer extra voluntary sacrifices. However, a community may not add extra prayer services since there is no concept of a voluntary sacrifice at the communal level.

(Berachot 26b; Yad Peshutah, Hilchot Tefillah 1:5; Mishneh Torah, Hilchot Keriat Shema 1:5-6,9-10, 3:2) to Hilchot Tefila; Nefesh Hachaim

D'VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER

CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

Why when Bnei Yisrael are counted do they give half a Shekel as "kofer nafsho"? What is a "Kofer" for his soul?

Targum Onkelos translates it to mean "Purkan", a redemption. But how does giving half a shekel protect everyone?

Shadal (R' Samuel David Luzzatto, 19th century Italy) explains that one day Bnei Yisrael will sin as described by the Torah. They will become drunk on their own success and riches and forget that their accomplishments come from G-d. G-d commands them to give half a Shekel now that will go towards the construction of the Mishkan. The silver is to be given now, when Bnei Yisrael are united in humble beginnings and will serve l'kaper, to atone, in advance for their sins. It will be a physical reminder located "before G-d" that every Jew, whether rich or poor, is equally part of the Mishkan and a full member of the Jewish people.

People often question why countries have yearly taxes and membership fees. The answer, beyond the fiscal, reveals a similar idea - to remind us all of our mutual allegiance and stake therein. We all are members of a greater unit than ourselves, and all have an element to contribute. Only when we all take responsibility can we achieve redemption and make every individual count.

BAYT GARDEN INITIATIVE

Gan BAYT 2024 – Here we Grow Again

The following was used in September 2023, to introduce the BAYT and its short history of gardening to the New Horizons for Seniors grant assessors.

Our objective was to secure a grant for the 2024 Growing season.

We succeeded!

If you would like to join the effort, please visit the Web Link on the ad in this week's BAYT Bulletin.

Fred Winegust & Izzy Kutnowski

Co-Chairs

BAYT Garden Committee

Community Gardening continues to be a safe outdoor activity for seniors who wish to remain active and engage with others in their community.

In 2022, we received our first New Horizons Grant. Twenty five senior member families of the BAYT synagogue volunteered to take responsibility for 100 growing containers. Many of these volunteers had no experience in growing food. Thanks to the 2023 New Horizons Grant, the synagogue farming community grew to about 60 families, with the Seniors from 2022 becoming mentors to the new Seniors of 2023.

Participating families continue to grow enough food for themselves and for others in need in the wider community.

BAYT enters its third year as a Community Farm, Neighbourhood Partner of Reena, an organization which provides housing, support and employment training opportunities for individuals with diverse abilities. Reena is located 1 kilometer to the west of the BAYT synagogue.

The proposed project "BAYT Community Garden – Heterogeneous Community" would build on the momentum of 2022-23, and move some of our experienced synagogue members to a new site on the east side of the Bathurst-Clark Resource Library.

BAYT will maintain a level of 60 participating families at the BAYT East Parking Lot. We hope to have 10 families garden at the Library, and those open positions at the BAYT Garden will be filled by new farmers, who will be mentored by the 2022-23 farmers.

Those moving to the Library, will also be mentors to first time gardeners, who are members of the community at large.

A portion of the vegetables produced at the Library and at the BAYT synagogue will be provided to the wider at risk community in the neighbourhood, thus expanding connections in the wider community, while safely reducing social isolation.

We would refresh the soil and fertilizer and new vegetable plants at existing 200+ growing containers at BAYT Parking Lot Garden and improve security around the garden as there was a significant increase of involuntary donations of produce in 2023.

We would also use the grant to provide containers, soil, fertilizer and plants, for the BAYT members who choose to garden at the Library.

BAYT would continue to leverage on-line and video education, developed by Reena in 2022, and use some of the BAYT Gardening Class of 2022-23, to mentor the new volunteers in 2024.

This education leverages gardening curriculum developed by Reena.

This project would promote volunteerism among seniors and other generations,

This project directly supports the social participation and inclusion of seniors who over time can become mentors to a new cohort of seniors.
