Daf Yomi Siyum

MAZEL TOV TO ALL THOSE WHO FINISHED KESUVOS!

One of the pillars of BAYT's mission statement involves "facilitating lifelong Jewish learning." The BAYT's Daf Yomi learning program is an offering to members that truly enhances and supports the BAYT's mission. To that end, it is with great pride that the participants celebrated the completion of meseches Kesuvos with a siyum last Thursday night. Unless you have struggled through a daily learning program like the Daf Yomi it is hard to appreciate the joy and sense of accomplishment that comes with the completion of a significant block of study like this. It was no surprise that those who attended the siyum broke out in song and dance!

Many thanks to the maggidei shiur, Rabbi Leshar (6:00am/ Shabbos and Yom Tov) and Rabbi Rothbart (7:30am), for their inspiring teaching and leadership and, of course, their hard work. It is no small feat to prepare each day for the next day's Daf (on top of full-time jobs and family obligations!). Many thanks also to Rabbi Korobkin and the BAYT's leadership and membership for supporting the commitment to the Daf Yomi. The beginning of a new mesechta (Nedarim) is a great time for new participants to jump in. No prior Talmudic knowledge required! The beginning of a new mesechta (Nedarim) is a great time for new participants to jump in. No prior Talmudic knowledge required!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to Netivot

On behalf of our Rav, Rabbi Lesher, the professional staff, the BAYT Executive and Board, I would like to formally welcome the Netivot family to the BAYT for Shabbat.

I remember the first time I heard that Netivot was thinking of using the BAYT for their Shabbaton, I was so excited. The vision of almost 700 students, parents, principals and teachers using almost every square inch of our 90,000 square feet is a dream, especially when I think of where we were a year ago. Bruchim HaBaim to the Netivot mishpacha! It is wonderful to host you at the BAYT and we hope that you have an amazing Shabbat experience and that this becomes an annual event.

Next week, the BAYT will commemorate the 30th yahrzeit of our beloved founder Joe Tanenbaum z"l. I'm not sure if Joe could ever have imagined the BAYT being this alive for a Shabbat, but one thing is sure, Joe was a visionary. Sometimes, I wonder if the building is too big, but with all the events going on this month, Joe was right. Thank you, Joe. Please join us next week for a special kiddush as we honour Joe's memory. As well, next week we are excited to host the Beit Midrash Zichron Dov Kollel Shabbaton which will include the start of our Friday Night Leil Limmud Program at 8pm in various homes in the community. The theme of the Shabbaton is The Torah of Rabbi Jonathan Sacks.

Shabbat Shalom!
Craig Guttman, President

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER

TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

May I allow a seasonal contractor to clear my snow or mow my grass on Shabbat?

If the contractor is not Jewish, we have the following concerns:

- (1) We may not request a non-Jew to perform prohibited work on Shabbat, specifically;
- (2) We may not benefit on Shabbat from prohibited work done on our behalf, even if we did not request it;
- (3) If work happens on our property and is visible to the public, people may think we requested the work;
- (4) If we are present to observe the work, people may think we requested the work.

If the contractor and/or employees are Jewish, then we have two more concerns:

- (5) We may not cause or enable a Jew to sin on Shabbat;
- (6) We may not pay a Jew to work on Shabbat, even if the work is itself permissible on Shabbat. [However, we may pay for an extended period of time that includes Shabbat.]

We can mitigate the first four problems. Problem 1 is solved by not requesting particular workdays. Problem 2 is not an issue because having a neat yard or a shoveled walk does not constitute “benefiting on Shabbat”. Problem 3 is solved if everyone hires contracts seasonally and not for specific days. Problem 4 is solved by not supervising the work on Shabbat. Nonetheless, problems remain.

Therefore, Rabbi Korobkin’s guidance is this: We are obligated to instruct the contractor to wait until after Shabbat to work on our private property. The only exception would be for threats to life; please consult the Rav if you feel this may be a concern for you.

(Shulchan Aruch Orach Chaim 244 and 252, and commentaries thereon)

D’VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER

CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

Why is Avraham chosen by G-d to be the progenitor of G-d’s chosen people?

Several billion people (Jews, Christians and Muslims) would answer because he discovered G-d and monotheism on his own. But why isn’t that written anywhere in the Torah?

In fact, many of the stories we think about for why Avraham is chosen are not written in the Torah itself. Why would that be the case?

Avraham is told Lech Lecha, to go to the land that G-d will show him, to the Land of Israel, at the age of seventy-five. Why does Avraham receive the mission from G-d only then?

Perhaps the Torah is trying to impress upon us that there is more than one way to become worthy and fulfill our potential just like Avraham did. The age, stage of life, or location we happen to be in are simply the starting point. We need to do our best to accomplish our mission in the world, no matter our circumstances.

OFFICE HOUR UPDATE:

Once the clocks change, the office will only be open until 1 pm on Fridays.

REMINDER:

Please pick up your children from groups at the conclusion of davening, BEFORE Kiddush.
