PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Make Yourself an Ark of Gopher Wood...

It took Noach one hundred and twenty years (growing trees included) to build the teva (ark) and in all that time, not one person asked what he was doing and if they could help. And maybe most troubling, Noach did not recruit one single person to assist him.

The BAYT is forty years old, and my experience is that there are many people stepping up to volunteer. This past week, for example, one member conveyed to us that she has a certain skill set and said that she would be happy to help with any project we have on the drawing board where her talents could be utilized. I love stories like that. People see all the hard work we are doing, and it inspires our members to offer a lending hand.

Now that the High Holidays and Succot (so inspiring!) are behind us, there is a long list of action items for us to tackle. This Monday evening, the Executive met to discuss much that is on our plate (not just to sing happy birthday to our Sisterhood President, Aliza and eat some delicious Surreal Sweets treats). The board met on Wednesday night. The board heard updates on the High Holidays, the upcoming Gala Dinner and a security update by Daniel Ages of UJA Security and celebrated the birthday of our First VP David Lithwick.

The board also heard about the Phase II plans for the main shul renovation. The Phase II plan is to remove the worn out carpeting on the steps to and on the landing of the bima where the Aron Kodesh is and install tiling. As well, new glass railings are planned. The Capital Improvement Committee is in the process of finalizing contracting and pricing for this renovation which has a tight window of opportunity to complete this phase - as there are no simchas scheduled between January 2 and February 11 as of now.

As you may be aware, we have been dealing with the some of the lights not functioning in the parking lot and after much effort by Jesse Armogida, David Lithwick and David's father-in-law, Elias Hadida, a master electrician, they were able to locate the problem which should be completely resolved and repaired by next Shabbat, please Gd.

There is going to be so much amazing activity going on at the BAYT for the next four weeks (Netivot Shabbaton, Torah Mizion Shabbaton, a kiddush in memory of Joe Tanenbaum's 30th Yahrzeit, Rabbi Becher at seudat shlishit, the Gala weekend and much more) so I hope that you able to take advantage and enjoy all the upcoming events.

Finally, the deadline for the booking tickets to the Gala Dinner and placing ads in the journal is November 10th and it too is fast approaching. You can register for both online at www.bayt40.ca.

Shabbat Shalom!
Craig Guttman, President

DIVREI TORAH & NOTICE BOARD

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER

TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

If I travel to Israel when v'ten tal umatar is said in Israel but not outside of Israel, what should I say in shemoneh esreih?

Israelis begin requesting rain, saying v'ten tal umatar in the daily berachah of Bareich aleinu, on the 7th of Cheshvan (Maariv on October 31). In Toronto we only begin saying v'ten tal umatar several weeks later, in the beginning of December.

Authorities debate whether a non-Israeli visiting Israel between the two start dates should recite v'ten tal umatar. Further, among those who rule to say v'ten tal umatar while in Israel, there is debate regarding what to do upon returning to Toronto. Rabbi Korobkin recommends that such a person should begin saying v'ten tal umatar in Israel, and continue to do so even when back in Toronto.

One who is serving as Chazan must say aloud whatever the local minyan says.

(B'Tzel haChochmah 1:62; Aseh Lecha Rav 6:7; Teshuvot b'Hanhagot 2:55; Yechaveh Daat 1:73; Piskei Teshuvot 117:3; Ishei Yisrael 23:37,39)

D'VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER

CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

Why don't we count Noach as one of our Avot, our Patriarchs? Isn't he called a Tzadik, a righteous individual, by G-d? Doesn't he receive a covenant from G-d and the physical testament to it in the rainbow?

All of the above are true, but the defining story for Noach's legacy comes later. After G-d promises not to destroy the world in a flood ever again, Noach shifts from being a 'Man who walks with G-d' (Breishit 6:9) to being a 'Man of the Earth' (9:20). He proceeds to plant a vineyard, make and drink wine, get drunk, and uncover himself in his tent. Cham sees his father's nakedness, telling his brother all about it. His brothers, Shem and Yefet, take care to walk backwards to cover their father to not see him in his uncovered state. By the end of the incident, when Noach wakes up from his drunkenness, he curses the descendants of his son Cham, namely Canaan, to be a slave to his brothers. He also blesses Shem and Yefet but his last words are cursing his grandson.

Noach's ignoble end shows the dangers of alcohol, but his actions after he was drunk also remove him from being a patriarch.
