PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

90 Seconds

That was quite the Chag Ha-Aviv which I wrote about in my last message. The weather for chag was spectacular. It was comforting to hear my kids complain about how hot the house was and kept asking when is the AC going to be turned on. It was great seeing everyone outside using the parks and sidewalks.

The Wednesday before Shabbat Hagadol, I was listening to an inspiring podcast with Eli Beer, founder of United Hazalah and Nachman Seltzer who authored Eli's new book, 90 Seconds. I was fascinated with Eli's story (I don't think he's ever been to the BAYT) which I was somewhat familiar with. So in order to have it for Pesach to read, I had the book sent to my daughter Mia in New York who was coming in for chag. I was anxious to read the book, but I wouldn't have it till erev chag.

Two days after ordering the book, on Shabbat Hagadol we had a medical event in the shul. The entire time "90 seconds" is ringing in my head and I hadn't even read the book, I just knew the title. Tik, tik, tik. I cannot begin to express my appreciation and gratitude for the cohesiveness of everyone involved. The Medical, Security and Facilities teams were amazing. The unity and professionalism was so impressive. Right after motzei Shabbat, we identified areas to improve our response and many things were implemented within two days, before Pesach began. We still must identify more women in all the minyanim who consistently arrive early to shul who can assist in the event of any emergency, who are familiar with procedures including where phones and equipment are located. Please contact Alan Jaff jaffdr@gmail.com.

Which brings me to another issue that I have heard brought up time and time again, an emergency drill which has not happened at the BAYT in a very long time. There are lots of reasons and excuses but we must have a proper drill and I hope we have one as soon as possible. Obviously, we never want to have any event at the shul whether fire, medical or other, but we must be prepared. We owe it to our members, especially our children and grandchildren. It is very important, and we need the entire membership to buy in. It's not a waste of time. It's an opportunity to identify weaknesses so we can respond in "90 Seconds". Eli Beer taught me that.

This past Monday was Holocaust Remembrance Day. The Jerusalem Post included a short biography of the six Holocaust survivors who lit torches in the main ceremony at Yad Vashem. I share with you the story of one survivor, Tova Gutstein. Tova (Gitela) Gutstein was born in Warsaw in 1933 to Zanvel and Malka-Mania Alba, the middle of three children of this Yiddish-speaking family.

When the Warsaw Ghetto was established in October 1940, Tova's father was sent to forced labor. From the window of her house, Tova saw German soldiers shooting young men and women every day.

Though only seven, she began to take care of the family's livelihood. She would leave the ghetto through the sewers and beg for food from local Poles, even though they threatened to hand her over to the Germans. Sometimes she collected produce from the fields. She would tie a rope around her waist, fill her clothes with food, and return to the ghetto via the sewers.

When the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising broke out, Tova was outside the ghetto in search of food. Suddenly, she saw the sky turn red; the ghetto was burning. She ran toward her home. The bombing started, and she saw people falling and houses collapsing. When she reached her house, it was already destroyed and her family was gone.

Tova managed to reach the forest and was taken in by partisans. They fed and dressed her in the coat and boots of German soldiers, as well as in clothes they took from clotheslines. Tova lived with them in the forest for about a year and a half, and learned Russian and Polish from them.

When the partisans went on missions, she would climb down into a ditch and the partisans would cover it with branches. One day, the partisans did not return; apparently, they were killed in the action against the Germans.

At the end of the war, Tova emerged from the forest. She waited for her mother at the train station every day for a month. She was eventually sent to the city of Walbrzych, where young Jews took her to an orphanage. After 18 months, she arrived in Germany, where she found her mother, sister and brother in a DP camp in the city of Ulm.

Tova immigrated to Israel in 1948 and became a hospital nurse. Today she is active in helping Holocaust survivors. Tova and her late husband, Binyamin, have three children, eight grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I would like to thank Marc and Michelle Factor for their dedication of the Shulchan Cover in the Gruda Beit Midrash in memory of their parents. I have the privilege of davening in the Gruda every weekday and it's so beautiful to read the inscription. For the parents no longer with us, may their neshamot have an aliyah, and for Michelle's mother who is with us (ad meah v'esrim), may she continue to have much nachat from the family. Yishar Koach!

Thank you to David and Sally Berman and family for their sponsorship of the fourth volume of the Hakhmei Lev journal. Congratulations to our Rav for spearheading this amazing project.

Thank you to the authors (in no particular order): Archie Crandell, Cemach Green, Rabbi Martin Berman, Dr. Eric Lawee, Rabbi Baruch Taub, Rabbi Idan Rakovsky, Rabbi Mordechai Torczyner, Rabbi Dr. Moshe Yeres, Rabbi Shmuel Leshner, Rabbi Shlomo Gemara, Peter Somers, Rabbi Dr. Lazer Friedman, Joey Fox, Daniel Levenstein, Rabbi Daniel Korobkin, Chaim Oliver, Dr. B. Barry Levy, Molly Morris, Rabbi Chaim Metzger, Dr. Marc Herman, Danny Berger and Karyn Goldberger.

And thank you to the editors: Chuck English, Molly Morris, Dr. Gerard Klein, Rabbi Ken Stollon, Rabbi Shmuel Leshner and Rabbi Jonathan Hames. A big thank you to Daniel Safran for typesetting and graphic design.

I would like to thank Gila Martow and her incredible staff for arranging the garbage depot for Pesach which was very much appreciated. It was great to have it during Chol Hamoed which I and so many others utilized. It was great to have Gila join us for the Rav's Shabbat Hagadol drasha too.

Thank you to the Vaughan Fire Department and Jesse Armodiga and his staff for standing out in the rain erev Pesach and helping the community burn our chametz.

The Clark Ave parking lot entrance to the BAYT is now open. Entry to the BAYT building is ONLY through the Parking Lot Entrance, Lower Level. For security purposes we will only have one entrance into shul. Please do not try enter through the Clark doors or open the doors for others. Clark doors are for EXIT ONLY on Shabbat morning. Please ensure the door is fully closed behind you when exiting through the Clark Doors.

There is much discussion in the office about yahrzeits and some members' notifications not being accurate. The first thing that members should be aware of, is that the first yahrzeit can be different than the actual day of passing which is the yahrzeit in year two and thereafter. The shul's minhag is to commemorate the first yahrzeit on the date of burial, not the day of passing. So the date in the system has to be adjusted after the first yahrzeit. Shul Cloud now is capable of having both dates entered. It is really important that members check their yahrzeit listings in their profile to ensure that the day is accurate. We are planning on sending out to our members a listing of dates in their profile and having members confirm the dates. You should see this in the near future.

I will be in Israel for Yom Hazikaron, Yom Ha'atzmaut and attending the World Orthodox Israel Congress in Jerusalem next Thursday and Friday. The two days include over 30 sessions that address the most significant issues facing the world's Orthodox communities, the State of Israel and the relationship between the two. Thursday's sessions relate to the challenges faced by the world's communities. On Friday, the WOIC will address issues facing the State of Israel and our relationship with it. Some of the key guest speakers and lecturers will be the Chief Rabbi David Lau, Miriam Peretz, Rabbi Hershel Schachter, Natan Sharansky, Rabbi Dr. Jacob J. Schacter, Rabbi Yosef Zvi Rimon, Rabbi David Stav, Rabbi Menachem Genack, Rabbanit Yemima Mizrahi and Rabbanit Shani Taragin.

I look forward to reporting back to you about this important conference.

This Shabbat, Rabbi Mazer, Director of Mizrahi Canada, will be our scholar in residence which will be a great preparation for Yom Hazikaron and Yom Ha'atzmaut. The Solomon Brothers will be performing at Mizrahi's program this year and Nachman Solomon will be the Shliach Tzibbur this Shabbat in honour of Yom Ha'atzmaut. Thank you to the sponsors who made this possible and those sponsoring our Yom Ha'atzmaut kiddush. .

Shabbat Shalom!

EVACUATION PROCEDURE FOR SHABBAT/YOM TOVIM

Reasons for Evacuations could be -

- Fire
- Power Outage
- Moving People to Safety

Although we would ideally want to have "wardens" appointed to guide everyone out the building, unlike schools or offices where the core group is static our shul with the multitude of minyanim particularly on a Shabbat we are dealing with a fluid situation.

The evacuation model we are working with is as follows

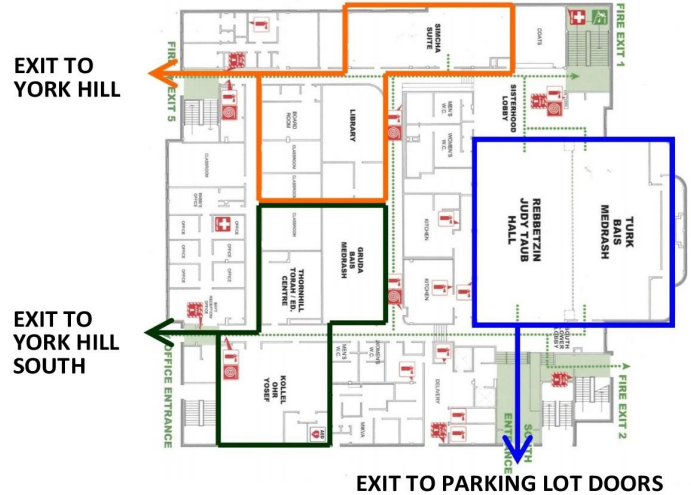

Everyone's cooperation is necessary to Evacuate safely and speedily. Safety-Security Members are to take charge of the area they are in and guide persons out the area. Once an area is CLEAR the Safety-Security Members should proceed to exit the building and make sure that all others have done so as well. As the last persons exit the building advise the Evacuation Leader who will be standing by the island at the Parking Lot Entrance Doors

- When a Fire Alarm or Instruction to Evacuate is heard everyone should move quickly to the nearest designated exit point - do not run or push - proceed down/up the stairs to exit the building and then move to the Safe Evacuation Areas along the east side (601 Clark) and south side (Eitz Chaim) of the parking lot DO NOT CONGREGATE IN FIRE LANE
- DO NOT use Elevators
- DO NOT gather your belongings
- DO NOT try locate your children - the Youth Department will take care of children in designated Youth programs
- When a Fire Alarm is pulled ALL Exit doors unlock
- The first persons reaching a door leading to an exit should hold open the door and stand clear to speed the exit of those behind them until relieved by a Safety-Security Team Member
- Once Safety-Security Team members reach the door they should take over from the lead persons that were first at the door
- Once everyone has safely evacuated the area Safety-Security Team Members should report to the Evacuation Leader to indicate that the area they left is CLEAR
- Persons needing Assistance should move to the closest stairwell landing and remain there until assistance can be provided - advise the Safety-Security Team member who will report details to the Evacuation Leader to arrange for assistance
- Re-Entry to the building will be determined by the Evacuation Leader in consultation with the Authorities (Fire Department, Police etc)

UNLESS There is Smoke or Heat from a Fire, or you are advised otherwise by Security Team Leaders, the suggested exit routes that will reduce congestion are as follows

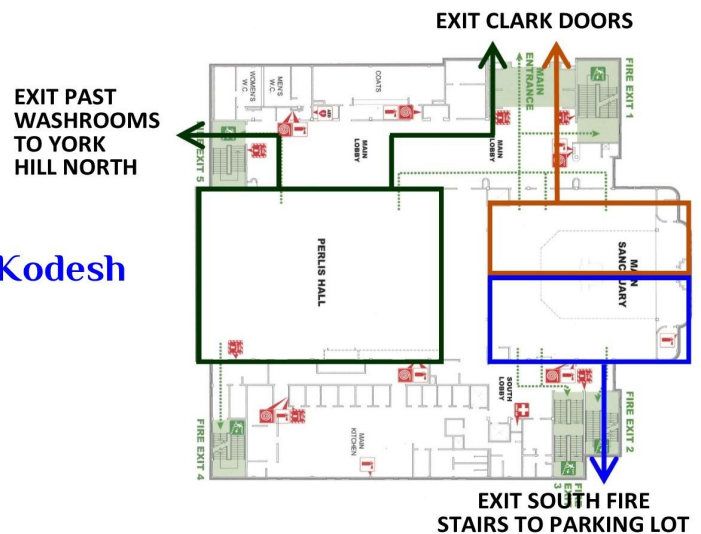

LOWER LEVEL

- Rebbetzin Judy Taub Hall (RJTH) & Turk Bais Medrash -- Right Hand Doors out through Parking Lot Entrance Lobby
- Simcha Suite, Speisman Board Room, Classroom 6 - North-West corridor to Exit to York Hill
- Milevsky/Kollel, Gruda Beis Medrash - South-West corridor past Offices to Exit to York Hill

MAIN LEVEL

- Main Sanctuary Men's Left of Aron Kodesh (North) exit via Clark Entrance Doors
- Main Sanctuary Men's Right of Aron Kodesh (South) exit via Fire Stairs directly out to Parking Lot
- Perlis Hall - exit past washrooms down stairs to York Hill OR through Clark Entrance Doors

THIRD LEVEL

- Main Sanctuary Women's Left of Aron Kodesh (North) exit via North-East stairs out to Wedding Garden
- Main Sanctuary Women's Right of Aron Kodesh (South) exit via South-East stairs out to Wedding Garden
- Youth Classrooms - Exit via South West stairs out to York Hill

LETHAL JOURNALISM,
ANTISEMITISM, AND
GLOBAL JIHAD

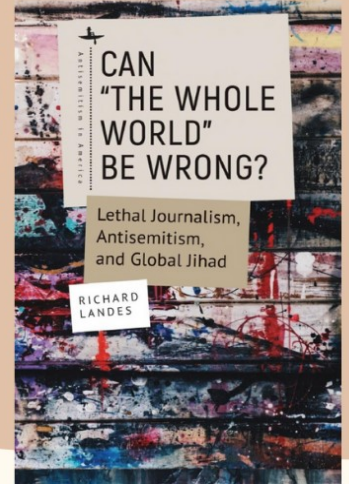

WITH PROFESSOR RICHARD LANDES

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10
AT 8 PM

IN THE SIMCHA SUITE

Jerusalem resident Professor Richard Landes will discuss his newly published book, which explores the surprising development that support for the Palestinian cause had become a litmus test for liberal credentials by 2003. He examines how the "global progressive left" welcomed Jihadis into their peace movement despite their opposing ideals of imperialism, misogyny, genocidal antisemitism, and hatred of the "other." The book provides insights into our current trajectory.

DIVREI TORAH & NOTICE BOARD

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER

TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

I didn't see a flowering fruit tree in Nisan. May I recite birkat ha'ilanot after Nisan ends?

The Talmud outlines a unique annual opportunity to appreciate the world Hashem created: "One who goes out during the days of Nisan and sees trees that are 'melavlev' should say: Blessed is the One who left nothing lacking in His world, creating in it fine creatures and fine trees for the pleasure of human beings." We recite this berachah specifically on seeing fruit trees, and we understand the word 'melavlev' to refer to trees that are displaying the flowers that precede fruit. It is preferable to recite the berachah upon seeing multiple trees in bloom, but where that is not available, we recite the berachah even for one tree.

Even though the Talmud specifies Nisan, halachic authorities understand that one may recite the berachah afterward, but one should really recite it at the first opportunity. The berachah is only recited once each year.

D'VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER

CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

Why is the story of the death of Aharon's sons Nadav and Avihu constantly being interrupted?

Interruptions last week in Parshat Shemini include: the prohibition of intoxication in the Mishkan and the laws of kosher and non-kosher animals. This week in Tazria and Metzora we see various sources of ritual impurity that prevent us from entering the Mishkan or the Beit HaMikdash. The story only seems to finish next week in Acharei Mot, which literally translates to "after the death of Aharon's two sons," we receive instructions about Yom Kippur and receiving atonement.

Our Rabbis and Sages give many explanations for how these seeming interruptions give us more information about Nadav and Avihu's sins.

But there is another possibility. The trauma and raw emotions from the tragedy are so overwhelming, that we need to pause to fully grasp its scope. We need to sometimes take a step back from the tragedies and focus on something else for a time to truly let reality sink in.

We commemorated Yom HaShoah this past week, and will commemorate Yom HaZikaron in the coming week. There are many ways to grieve and remember those who have tragically lost their lives. We must take stock of our feelings and properly respect those who came before us and performed the ultimate sacrifice.

ADULT MEN MORNING KOLLEL SEDER- JOINT PROGRAM BAYT AND KOLLEL

Our Adult Men Morning Kollel Seder has resumed with Rabbi Moshe Yeres. We are a group of men, of varying levels of Torah knowledge and literacy, who come together every weekday morning to study with Rabbi Yeres. We encourage questions and discussion and are non-judgmental in the issues raised. We study the Weekly Torah portion for an hour and then alternate study of Tanach (Book of Ezra and Nechemia), Talmud Aggada (Sefer Ein Yaakov), Jewish Ethics (Ethics of the Fathers through the lens of Rabeinu Yonah commentary), and Jewish tradition (Kitzur Shulchan Aruch). We try to ensure that the source material studied is available and studied in both Hebrew and English.

We meet in person on Mondays and Tuesday at Kollel Ohr Yosef (601 Clark first floor Library classroom), and Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays at BAYT Speisman Board Room. We encourage people to come out and learn in person. For those who cannot, there is a zoom option available (computer, cellphone or by telephone audio). We meet weekdays 10:00 am - 12:00 noon, except Friday from 10:00-11:00 am. It is possible to join the group for specific times and days based on your schedule.

So men, if you are free and are looking for some good Torah study and camaraderie, you are invited to join us. Questions? Details? Please contact Rabbi Yeres at mosheyeres@gmail.com
