UPCOMING EVENTS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Three Boys

What is the first thing that comes to mind if I say, Three Boys? If my mom were alive, I'm sure her response would be her three boys, but most people would respond about Naftali Frenkel z"l, Gilad Shaer z"l and Eyal Yifrah z"l (may Hashem avenge their blood). Last week, I heard a podcast interview with Gilad's parents conducted shortly after the three boys' yahrzeit.

It brought back a lot of emotions that I experienced back then and it has had a profound impact on my life. I wanted to share some thoughts as we are entering the bein hazmanim period when we enjoy the summer holiday season before our children prepare for seminary and yeshiva, university, and schools.

We have overcome a lot with this pandemic and with it a lot of physical and mental stress and challenges. Every Elul gives us an opportunity to completely reset our lives in a very positive way as we prepare ourselves to take stock and renew our spirituality which ultimately is the healthiest medicine, given to us by Hashem.

Which brings me to something that has bothered me since that fateful time when we heard of their kidnapping. The news shook the four corners of the Jewish world. It gripped all spectrums of Judaism. The intensity of prayer and cohesiveness of communities throughout the world was memorable. It's not realistic to maintain that level of intensity and seriousness for any extended period. But still, I ask: How do we, as the BAYT community, take that inner intense energy and transfer it to our commitment to our yiddishkeit?

There is so much planning and preparation going on behind the scenes at the BAYT as we prepare for our first "normal" Yamim Noraim in three years and it has gotten me thinking. The way to enter into the New Year of 5783 is by preparing with a commitment to how we will return from our summer break and enter into Elul.

One of my goals as President is to ensure that we are providing the tools for our members' spiritual growth. But ultimately that dedication remains with each and every member. I can only assume that my friends are asking the same questions that I'm asking myself: Am I really learning as much Torah as I could be? Am I really going above and beyond in my commitment to chesed and tzedakah or am I just getting by. Do I need help? Am I engaged the same way I was when our three boys were taken from us? How can I elevate my Judaism?

The first two months of my presidency have been inspiring. I'm excited about the possibilities of this beautiful community and it's one of the main reasons I stepped forward. I only ask each of you to do what I ask of myself: to step forward, take the plunge, and undertake to attend a new program, a shiur, a social event, or tefillah, that I normally would not have attended. I can't let the excuses cloud my clarity. We are blessed that the pandemic is behind us and we have life in front of us, together with friends and family, who can commit together with us.

The Mizrahi Kollel will start back up in Elul and that Beit Midrash should be full every Monday night and hopefully expand to Thursdays as well. Bring your chevrotas, bring your spouses, your children and friends. Bring people who have never stepped into a Beit Midrash. Bring the Beit Midrash alive. Bring your neschama alive. Commit to Shacharit and/or Mincha/Maariv everyday. You have no idea what you are missing. I hope women will fill the shul for Kabbalat Shabbat just as you do on Shabbat. I'm frustrated when I go to Israel and both sections of the shul are full on Friday night, men and women. And yet at the BAYT the women's section is empty. Why not at the BAYT? We now have two Daf Yomi shiurim for any morning schedule. We have daily and weekly shiurim from our rabbinic staff. Youth groups and programming are going to be running at full throttle, ready to be full. Overwhelm us with attendance.

The Rav and I want to fill each and every possible seat in our beautiful building. All that remains, is your commitment.

Have an amazing bein hazmanim time with your families. Take some time to reflect on your return to the BAYT with fervour. I look forward to greeting you and recapturing the passion of our yiddishkeit together.

Shabbat Shalom
Craig Guttmann, President

THANK YOU!

Because of the incredible support of the community, The Maddie Leventhal Mikveh Centre will be renovated and rededicated IY'H in time for the 25th yartzheit of our beloved Meira Leah bas Michal (a"h). Baruch Hashem, we exceeded our fundraising goal and can now make this project a reality.

My co-chair, Sonya Kaplan, who works tirelessly behind the scenes, thank you is insufficient! This fundraising campaign could not have happened without your commitment and perseverance.

To everyone who made this happen, Sonya Kaplan and I would like to express our gratitude: The Maddie Leventhal Fundraising Committee co chairs, Shari Vodianoi, Alla Volfson and Rabbi Daniel Korobkin, Rabbi Shmuel Leshner, Avital Sandler, Craig Guttmann, Chuck English, Avi Deutsch, Rosy Rosenzweig, and Lindsay Salmon. The office staff who over and above their regular responsibilities, made this a priority; Terry Rubinstein, Shimon Szmuszkowicz, Melanie Emanuel and Talia Pesachov and the BAYT fundraising committee.

The mikveh is indebted to the BAYT sisterhood, and its president, Aliza Gershuni for always stepping in to help support the mikveh.

There is so much more to the Maddie Leventhal Mikveh Centre that makes it the special place that it is, and we cannot move forward without acknowledging Hakaras Hatov where it is due. We are grateful for Rabbi Korobkin's guidance and to Rav Mordechai Scheiner, Rabbi Baruch Hess and Rabbi Leshner who ensure that the halachic standards of the mikveh are consistently maintained. We have the most incredible team of attendants who dedicate themselves to helping women fulfill this mitzvah. Mercedes Elmaleh, Deena Mammon, Simy Bitton, Denise Myerowitz and Laya Witty are a devoted group of women who put their holy work above all else. It is only because of them that the mikveh could remain safely open through the pandemic. A huge shout out to the BAYT office and facilities staff without whom we wouldn't be able to operate properly; Avital Sandler, Terry Rubinstein, Shimon Szmuszkowicz, Melanie Emanuel and Jesse Armogido and his staff and Olga.

A special thank you to Kollel Ohr Yosef, particularly its executive director Rabbi Yisroel Goldman, for partnering with us to make this campaign so successful.

Thank you all for supporting this fundraising campaign and acknowledging the beautiful treasure that our mikveh is.

Lisa Berman

3 GENERATION GOLDBERG FAMILY AMBULANCE DEDICATION OF THE MAGEN DAVID ADOM AMBULANCE SITTING ON THE CORNER OF CLARK AND YORK HILL

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

If I eat an appetizer before washing for bread, should I say a separate berachah acharonah (after-blessing) for the appetizer before washing? (Part 1)

As a general rule, one should not eat food just before a bread meal, if the berachah on bread would have covered the kind of food eaten before the meal. Eating beforehand causes an unnecessary berachah. A pre-bread course is only appropriate where eating beforehand enhances the eating experience.

In terms of a berachah acharonah for such a pre-bread course: Food eaten before a bread meal is not halachically part of the meal, and requires its own berachah acharonah.

However, this is not true if the food is connected with the meal in one of three ways:

- 1) If the food is eaten to build up appetite for the meal;
- 2) If the food is part of the meal for halachic reasons, as in the case of food eaten at a Shabbat meal between kiddush and hamotzi.
- 3) If the berachah recited before eating the pre-meal food is also intended to cover food eaten during the meal;

I intend to bring specific examples next week.

D'VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

Why does Moshe repeat the Aseret HaDibrot, the Ten Commandments, in this week's Parsha?

Unlike the first time we hear about the revelation at Har Sinai in Parshat Yitro which details all the events leading up to and the preparations for it, this time in chapter 5 it begins very differently. Moshe begins by telling them to listen to the Mitzvot and the Brit, Covenant, that we have with G-d (5:1-2).

Moshe is speaking to the first generation of people who didn't experience Har Sinai personally. Moshe's central point is "not with our ancestors did G-d make this covenant but with us, the living, we who are here today" (Devarim 5:3). G-d spoke to YOU face to face from within the fire (5:4).

The challenge of each successive generation since Har Sinai is how do we connect back to that moment. Moshe anticipates this question telling us that we are going about it all wrong. Each of us was there even if not physically. What do we do today to relive the Har Sinai experience?

SEEKING FUN FACTS

BAYT is celebrating its 40th anniversary with a Gala Weekend from November 25th to November 27th. Leading up to this wonderful event we're looking for you to send us FUN FACTS you have about our BAYT. We'll share them on our soon to be released fortieth anniversary website.

Please keep anecdotes short, fun and of course – factual. Here's one to get us started:

Did You Know? during the city-wide blackout in 2003 there was a wedding at BAYT lit only by 1,000 tealights and food was prepared on several barbecues quickly donated by The BAYT Brotherhood.

Please remit your submissions as soon as possible to celebrate40@bayt.ca

BAYT is celebrating its 40th anniversary with a Gala Weekend from November 25th to November 27th. We'd love to have a picture of your favourite memory of the BAYT for our photo gallery along with a caption explaining the picture. It could be your wedding, bar mitzvah, event or program you attended. Please send your submissions to celebrate40@bayt.ca. Looking forward to hearing from you.

"FRIENDS FROM TWO DIFFERENT JEWISH WORLDS"

featuring Rabbi Korobkin and Rabbi John Moscovitz

Sunday, August 14 at 10:30 am

John Moscovitz is a Sr. Rabbinic Fellow at the Shalom Hartman Institute in Jerusalem.

John Moscovitz grew up in St Louis, Missouri. Being an anti-war activist, the left was his political home throughout much of the 1970's. Seeking to combine his Jewish and political commitments, John Moscovitz enrolled in rabbinical school.

In 1987 Rabbi Moscovitz began at Holy Blossom Temple in Toronto as an Associate Rabbi. He became the Sr. Rabbi in 2000, a position he held until becoming the congregation's rabbi emeritus in 2014. Author of "Evolution of An Unorthodox Rabbi" (2015), Rabbi Moscovitz has written for a number of publications. He is now writing a memoir of his leftist days in which Tom Hayden, among others, figures prominently.
