DIVREI TORAH & NOTICE BOARD

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

May I use grape juice for the Four Cups at the Seder?

For the second, third and fourth cups, wine is preferable because it is considered prestigious, and because its alcohol is said to bring joy. However, some contend that grape juice is acceptable because it is also prestigious. Further, Rambam writes that one should use a drink that is "sweet to the person who is drinking it." Therefore, one who has difficulty tolerating wine may use grape juice.

For the first cup, there is an extra reason to use wine. This cup fulfills the mitzvah of kiddush, and some rule that the evening kiddush requires wine which is eligible for pouring on the mizbeiach in the Beit haMikdash. There are grounds for disqualifying grape juice from that role in the Beit haMikdash. However, many halachic authorities still state that one who cannot use wine may use grape juice for the evening kiddush, and therefore for the first cup at the Seder as well.

For all of the cups, it would be ideal to mix in a little bit of wine, sufficient to give the wine an alcoholic "edge", to mitigate some of the halachic concerns.

D'VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

How is it possible that the copper Kiyor, washing basin, that the Cohanim would use to wash their hands and feet before their service in the Mishkan is made from Marot haTzovot, the mirrors that women would use to beautify themselves? Isn't that inappropriate?

This is the thought process of Moshe Rabbeinu, as seen in Rashi (Shemot 38:8) quoting a Midrash. The donation of these mirrors initially repulsed Moshe because of the nature of what they are used for, inciting physical desire in another person. G-d tells Moshe to accept these donations of mirrors because they are more precious to Him than any other metal. Through the proper use of them, the women of Bnei Yisrael were able to help raise many legions of children in Egypt. The phrase in Shir HaShirim 8:5, Tachat haTapuach Orarticha, I awakened you beneath the apple tree, alludes to these mirrors.

We expect to encounter holiness and the divine in certain limited situations based on our preconceptions, which are often misconceptions. The lesson of the beloved mirrors donated by the women of Bnei Yisrael shows us how even the most basic or physical of our actions can be the reflection of our innermost divinity and light and can spur us toward G-d, no matter what we thought before.
