NOTICE BOARD

BINYAN HABAYT TESTIMONY

We moved as a family to Thornhill a few months before COVID hit in early 2020. When we first arrived in the community, the invitations from friends and neighbours were overwhelming. We felt so blessed to be welcomed into the shul and its members with such a warm embrace.

Before we had an opportunity to reciprocate, the pandemic began and we were all locked away. We knew BAYT was hit hard in so many ways, both emotional and financial. We were so impressed with how the shul did its upmost to stay in touch with the kehilla, but at the same time always adhering to legal and safety measures. The shiurim moved to zoom, minyan moved to tents, backyards and online and chesed programs adapted.

We knew we had to do our part for the BAYT community and help keep the shul financially strong. One way people contributed was the emergency campaign, which was a terrific success. Becoming a Binyan HaBAYT member is a way to be a consistent part in the growth and success of the shul and we are proud to be part of this project.

DIVREI TORAH & UPCOMING EVENTS

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER

TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

I stayed up throughout Shavuot night; do I say Elokai Neshamah in the morning?

The berachah of Elokai Neshamah is recited each morning to thank G-d for restoring our souls to our bodies, after we have slept. Halachic authorities debate whether this is a personal berachah about our own sleep, or a global berachah thanking G-d for enabling sleep for humanity.

If the berachah is global, then we should recite it each morning regardless of whether we have slept. If the berachah is personal, then we should recite it only after we actually sleep. Within the latter view, estimates of how much sleep would trigger this berachah vary; one commonly cited number is 30 minutes.

Therefore: One who did not sleep for 30 minutes straight during the night should satisfy both views by hearing the berachah from someone who has slept. If no such person is available, one may recite the berachah and rely upon the view that the berachah is global rather than personal.

(Shitah Mekubetzet Berachot 60b; Tur Orach Chaim 46; Levush Orach Chaim 46:8; Rama Orach Chaim 46:8; Pri Megadim Orach Chaim 46:Eishel Avraham 2; Birkei Yosef 46:12; Shaarei Teshuvah Orach Chaim 46:7; Biur Halachah Orach Chaim 4 David; Aruch haShulchan Orach Chaim 46:13; Or l'Tzion 1:7; Piskei Teshuvot Orach Chaim 46:15)

D'VAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER

CMETZGER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

Why does Har Sinai not retain any sanctity after we received the Ten Commandments and Torah there, while Har HaBayit, the Temple Mount, is still holy even almost 2,000 years after the destruction?

Dr. Murray Herbert Danzger Z"l, my Zaidie and a sociologist who authored Returning to Tradition, about the Baal Teshuva Movement, explained based on the Rambam, that in Judaism we don't make places holy simply because G-d came down to meet us, or a prophet prophesied. Making a place eternally holy can only be done when people go up to G-d to greet Him, not when G-d comes to us. That is why the Temple Mount retains its sanctity while Har Sinai did not.

It is up to each and every one of us to go up this Shavuot to embrace the Torah and bring sanctity into our lives and homes.
