WEEKLY HALACHAH
R’ Mordechai Torczyner – torczyner@torontotorah.com

I am leaving town for the last days of Succos; may I dismantle my succah during chol hamoed?

There are three concerns involved in dismantling a succah on chol hamoed:
1. Performing labour during chol hamoed for a non-Yom Tov purpose;
2. Disgracing the sanctity of the succah materials, which have been dedicated for the mitzvah;
3. The possibility that one might need the succah again.

Because of these concerns, we normally do not dismantle a succah on chol hamoed. One who intends to build a succah just for part of Yom Tov should declare before building the succah that he intends to dismantle it during chol hamoed. However, one may dismantle it only in an amateur way, lest he violate the prohibition against performing labour during chol hamoed, and one may dismantle it only after it is clear that he will not need it again.

One who is concerned that succah decorations may become damaged may remove them.
(Shoeil uMeishiv IV 3:28; Shemirat Shabbos k’Hilchatah 67:footnote 177; Piskei Teshuvos 637:1, 638:3; Chevel Nachalaso 4:16)
