WEEKLY HALACHAH

R' Mordechai Torczyner – torczyner@torontotorah.com

May I sit while sifrei torah are carried around the shul on Simchat Torah?

Normally, one is obligated to stand while a sefer torah is carried within his sight, to show honour. However, some do suggest leniencies during hakafot, particularly in light of their length:

- ♦ Some authorities permit sitting between hakafot, while the sifrei torah are stationary;
- ♦ Others even permit sitting after the first circuit of each hakafah;
- ♦ Still others permit sitting altogether, contending that a sefer torah carried in a circle has the same status as a sefer torah placed on a table.
- ♦ The Chazon Ish was careful to sit only when holding a sefer torah.

It is worth noting that Rav Chaim Brisker would not ask others to take a sefer torah from him; out of respect for the Torah, he only gave it away when someone else asked for it.
