Weekly Halachah

R' Mordechai Torczyner – torczyner@torontotorah.com

May I sit while sifrei Torah are carried around the shul on Simchat Torah?

Normally, we are obligated to stand while a sefer torah is carried within our sight, to show honour. However, some authorities suggest leniencies during hakafot, particularly in light of their length:

- Some permit sitting between hakafot, while the sifrei torah are stationary;
- Others even permit sitting after the first circuit of each hakafah;

Still others permit sitting altogether, contending that a sefer torah carried in a circle has the same status as a sefer torah placed on a table.

However, the Chazon Ish was careful to sit only when holding a sefer torah.

It is worth noting that Rav Chaim Brisker would not ask others to take a sefer torah from him. Out of respect for the Torah, he only gave it away when someone else asked for it.

(Kiddushin 33b; Shulchan Aruch Yoreh Deah 282:1-2; Aruch haShulchan Yoreh Deah 282:5; B'Tzel haChochmah 5:139:2-7; Teshuvot v'Hanhagot 2:319; Yechaveh Daat 6:42; Halichot Shlomo Moadei haShanah Tishrei-Adar 12:9)

THE SHUL'S SUKKAH:

Please note that this year the shul is putting up a very modest Sukkah to accommodate those who cannot put up their own Sukkah. It is for single use, that is, for one family at a time, to make kiddush and hamotzi ONLY. If you arrive at the Sukkah and someone else is occupying it, please wait patiently for them to vacate before entering. If you are inside the Sukkah and know that others are waiting outside, please do your best to finish as quickly as possible. Because of Covid, we will not be able to supply challahs or grape juice this year, so please bring your own. We apologize for the inconvenience and look forward to normalcy for next year, b'ezrat Hashem.
